"THE BIRD OF PARADISE," AT THE PAGE THEATER FEBRUARY 12

Managers throughout the country are now serving the amusement world with both old and new plays. One of the real successes of the past few years which will again be seen at the Page Theater on Monday, Feb. 12th, is "The Bird of Paradise." Richard Walton Tully's beautiful romance of the Hawaiian Islands. No one who has seen the play will be able to forget it. It carries all the poetry of Hawaii. The story is one of the loveliest and most touching ever written into a drama, and the scenery seems to have caught up bits of the mid-Pacific islands and set them down upon a modern stage. Especially wonderful is the last scene, showing the active volcano, Pele. The part of the little Hawaiian princess, Luana, will be played this year by Miss Olin Field. Arthur Maitland will fill the role of the American doctor. The quintette of singers and ukulele players are one of the attractions of this interesting and fascinating play.
