ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Mrs. Dr. W. E. Blake delightfully entertained at her home, 118 Bush street, last Saturday afternoon having for her guests, Mesdames Clark Bush, Louis Dodge, F. H. Johnson, J. H. McGee, W. C. Mitchell, W. E. Newcomb, Chester Stevenson, Roy Walker and G. H. Yeo. Unique decorations were profuse and suggestive of the romantic St. Valentine period, these novel effects being supplemented by the serving of a dainty two-course luncheon. As previously announced, Bishop Sumner of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, visited Trinity church on Saturday and Sunday, an official call being made the occasion of a reception in his honor at the parish house on Saturday evening, at which a large number were present to form the acquaintance of and pay their respects to a prelate, who is one of the most genial and companionable of men. On Sunday morning the Bishop confirmed a class of seven, including Mrs. B. Holt, Mrs. J. B. Wiener, Mrs. T. W. Aeklin, Miss Doris Tavenner, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cunningham, and Raymond H. Rager. In connection with the rite of confirmation, Bishop Sumner delivered an opportune and scholarly discourse. Basketball records at Klamath Falls last Friday and Saturday, between the high schools of that city and Ashland resulted in victory for Klamath. On Friday the "Tule" team triumphed by a score of 38 to 16, and on Saturday 35 to 5. The locals will play return games with the visitors on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week amid home surroundings. The Wednesday afternoon club will be entertained Valentine Day by Mrs. Dr. Swendenburg at her home, corner of Iowa and Gresham streets, assisted by Mesdames Elise Churchman, J. H. Turner, L. S. Brown, Mary Newlin and Hattie Camps. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mitchell are the recipients of much sympathy from a wide circle of friends, incident to the death of their son, Vernon, who passed away on Sunday, as a result of an acute attack of appendicitis. He was an only child, nearly 18 years of age, and a universal favorite. A number of reservations are being made for Ashland residents, who will attend the Lincoln birthday anniversary banquet at Medford on Monday evening. Last Saturday evening the Junior Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle met with Mrs. Caroline Schurman, 214 C street, and in a review lesson finished the study of the book by Dr. Griffiths. Routine studies were followed by a social hour and the serving of refreshments. Rev. A. J. Hogg of Medford, and Rev. H. A. Carnahan of this city, exchanged pulpits in their respective Presbyterian churches on Sunday. Mr. Hogg's theme at the hour of morning worship was the Apostle Paul's memorable words, "I Am Not Ashamed of the Gospel of Christ," from which text he cited a powerful lesson in the exercise of moral courage and Christian fortitude. Medford high took revenge over the local Coast Artillery team in an exciting basketball game at the armory on Saturday evening, which the visitors won by the close score of 28 to 15, the contest being a return one. Even up records will have to be settled by a third struggle. George Andrews, of Medford, is the new director of the Ashland

Choral union and his duties as such instructor implies a visit to this city once a week. Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter are expected home early this week from an extended tour to Texas and Southern California points. They left Ashland on the date of the general election in November. The offer of W. O. Dickson and Henry Galey to audit the city accounts for the past seven years, is a reminder that in 1910 Dickerson and Claussing did the job thoroughly for the seven years preceding that date. It required several weeks to complete the accounting and the expense aggregated $700. The volume of the city's business has greatly increased since the 1910 audit, but the adoption of improved systems of bookkeeping in the various departments would simplify the work. Owing to the expense involved the council decided not to have the job done at present. Sewell R. Reeves, former resident of this vicinity, died at the Veterans Home, Retail, Wash., Jan. 29. Funeral services were held January 31, and interment was in the Elk's burial plot at Brentwood, with military honors, in which a Knight Templar escort participated. The deceased was a member of the Masonic chapter and communitary affiliations here. The withdrawal of General Pershing's forces from Mexico was signalized here last week by the serving of a distinctive Mexican dinner and supper at Auxiliary hall, given by the ladies of the Deacons Society of the Christian church. Substantial meals, including chile con carne, frijoles, sopa de arroz, fideo, ensalada, pan y mantequilla, cafe o te and tamales de maiz, were served, either collectively or in short order courses by experienced chefs, under the direction of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wellinger, who were former missionaries at Monterey, state of Nueva Leon, and well qualified to suggest a menu in keeping with culinary traditions as they exist across the border. Mrs. Agnes Herndon left on Saturday for an indefinite stay with relatives at Springfield. Within thirty days it is the expectation to have a definite decision regarding the installation of a "dry-fresh" preserving plant in this city, an institution which will handle not only fruits, but vegetables. Negotiations as to requirements are being conducted through Commercial club channels with a leading outside corporation. With the advent of another summer and autumn season, it is confidently expected to have a well-equipped cannery, now idle, in active operation. The Auxiliary club's card party in the former G. A. R. hall was attended by nearly 100 last Friday evening. Refreshments were dainty and decorations of the club's headquarters were simply elaborate. Proceeds of this jolly social event will be diverted to a fund being raised for a piano purchased from the Commercial club. "The Bird of Paradise," at the Page, Medford, on Monday night this week, is one of the stellar attractions which will be witnessed by a number of Ashland theatregoers. Among recent assignments as leaders of various choirs of city churches, Miss Margaret Anderson, teacher of music and drawing in the high school, directs the Presbyterian chorus; Mrs. J. H. Elmore, Methodist; Howard Ewer, Christian. Aldred Beaver and Walter Herndon, former Ashland boys, have sold their hardware business at Springfield to M. C. Bressler, also formerly of this city, who is a natural born trader and wholesaler or retailer everything in the hardware or implement trade, swapping horses, harness and houses as a side line. Jackson county now has an auto for every 18 people, and the state at large one for every 25. Since Ed Wolters of this city secured a new Dodge, Ashland now has about 140 cars within city limits. Mrs. M. G. Lawrence has returned from an extended stay at Pasadena and other Southern California resorts, to look after property interests at Backhorn Lodge, in the Tolman Springs district, east of Ashland, which has been occupied in the meantime by John Gearing as tenant, in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence. Josephine county is planning by way of a preliminary levy for the erection of a new court house at Grants Pass, to be either of concrete or brick, 65x130 feet, containing all modern improvements. Cost limited to $80,000, an expenditure which will be met by installment levies covering a series of years. W. A. Shell, of Edmonton, Alberta, has purchased the Rogers & Saunders barber shop on Main street, taking possession last Saturday. The family will reside on Katley street. T. C. Duggan of the Antelope section was buying seed grain from our farmers the first of the week. According to the old belief about ground hog day we should have an early spring as the sun did not shine in this section during the entire day. Several Table Rockers motored to Medford Sunday evening to get the latest news at The Mail Tribune office. Ed Dutton, the genial road supervisor of the Eagle Point district, purchased a load of seed oats at the Nealon ranch Tuesday. We understand that the Sportsmen's Club of Sams Valley has placed a bounty of $100 on hawks. A great many of us think this is not a wise move as we are told by men of science who make a study of the hawk that they are very essential to the farmer, and we believe from personal observation that for every chicken they catch they pay the farmer a good price in the number of mice and other rodents they destroy. Miss Angeline Cameron who is attending St. Mary's academy at Medford spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks. W. R. Byrum disposed of a load of hogs last week that brought him nine cents on foot. C. W. Gray of the Grants Pass meat market was through here Monday looking for cattle and hogs. He offered ten cents for fat hogs and six and one half cents for fat cows, the highest price that we have any record of being offered in this district. Ed Vincent pulled several acres of orchard on the Miller and Nealon ranches Tuesday and will finish his job of pulling in the Washburn and Root orchards as soon as the ground dries sufficiently to hold up the engine. He uses his gas tractor which is found to be much cheaper way than a stump puller or team. Colonel Washburn is transacting business in the northern part of the state. School Supervisor Peterson gave a very interesting talk on fertility last Wednesday evening at the school house. His talk was illustrated with stereopticon views and proved very interesting and instructive to the large crowd that was present. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Richardson and little Miss Doris of Ross Lane, visited relatives in this vicinity Sunday. Judging from the talk of our young men this community would furnish its full quota of volunteers should hostilities commence. There was an attendance of 29 at the Table Rock Sunday school last Sunday. Resolutions were adopted commending Representative Gore for his stand on the Sunday closing bills. James Penland made a trip to Medford Saturday and had a foreign growth removed from one of his eyes. Some fourteen members of our Sunday school visited with the Agate Sunday school last Sunday afternoon. The spelling match last Saturday night conducted by the Arrow Heads proved to be very entertaining. Mrs. R. E. Olson carried off the honors in the final count thus losing to the Arrow Heads the much coveted victory. Theodore Glass and W. C. Chapman, two prominent ranchers of the Antioch district, were doing business in this district Thursday. Mr. Glass purchased a load of hogs from L. E. Reauber, who had invested in a little advertisement in the Mail Tribune. Verne Pendleton reports that his three cows produced 252 pounds of cream during the month of January, which tested from 41 to 45 per cent butter fat. Mr. Garrison of Medford visited last Thursday and Friday at the Collins home. Mr. Edington of Sams valley sold a fat cow last week that weighed 1600 pounds and brought a little more than $100. Roland Parity is employed at the Modoc orchard. J. H. Lydard has declared war on the hoppers, using traps and poison to destroy them. M. B. Chase has purchased a new Ford car which brings the number of Fords in this community to nine out of a total of fifteen cars. The next program of the Arrow Heads will consist of a cyehearing match and everyone is invited. All will be given a chance to participate.

home in Medford Saturday after a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Jack Tugate. Robert Frost left Saturday for the valley, returning Thursday with his bride. They have rented the Adams house. His brother and wife came Thursday and they expect to make their home in Butte Falls for some time. Mrs. Ben Edmondson came thru Sunday on her way to John Allen's near Derby, returning home Wednesday accompanied by her husband, who has been caring for the Allen place during Mr. Allen's affliction. J. W. Barker gave a dance at his home Saturday evening. Tom Walker and Charles Stewart finished their work for Geppart and moved their camp outfit Tuesday. Merrill Stewart went down to the Geppart place Monday afternoon returning Tuesday. Mrs. Carl Jackson came up from Dupray Thursday for a few days' visit with her parents. Stanley Spencer came up from Dupray Thursday. Mrs. Wayne La Port has been very sick this week. Dr. Holt was called up Friday to attend her. She is some better at this writing. The Sunday school gave a concert Friday evening to raise money to purchase chairs for the small folks. The program was selections by the orchestra. A duet by Mrs. Frank Carson and Mrs. Rupert Gleason, accompanied by Mrs. H. D. Mills; a cornet solo by Buel Hildreth; a recitation by Mrs. McDonald; piano solo, by Miss Johnson; tenor solo by Ray Parker; Piano Duet by Mrs. Mills and Miss Johnson; selection by orchestra; Japanese drill by eight girls; piano solo by Miss Stewart; cornet duet by Mr. Hildreth and Mr. Parker; recitation by Frank Carson, "The School Master's Guests"; solo by Mrs. Mills, accompanied by Miss Johnson and Frank Carson; male quartette; orchestra. The program was enjoyed by all and we hope it will not be the last of the kind they give.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

T. C. Duggan of the Antelope section was buying seed grain from our farmers the first of the week. According to the old belief about
