TIME TO SPRAY WITH SOLUBLE OIL

All those having the Dormant Soluble Oil for the dormant application and wishing to get the softening effect of the bark and a possible shortening of the blossoming period should spray at this time or as soon as it is possible to get in the orchard with the spray rigs. Where the ground is too wet this spray can be applied any time until the buds begin to break. However late applications would have little or no shortening effect on the blossoming period, but will be equally effective in softening the bark. As an insecticide it is equally or more efficient than lime and sulphur when applied as a dormant spray.

Do not apply the lime and sulphur at this time but wait until the buds are breaking or separating.

COUNTY PATHOLOGIST.

CRATER FOREST BEST PROFIT PAYER

Receipts of the Crater Forest reserve for 1916 were greater than those of any other of the national forests, according to compilations made by the bureau of national forests, furnished by Supervisor M. L. Erickson. The receipts were $98,227. The next largest earnings were made by the Whittman reserve, with $72,672. The third on the list is the Tongass, in Alaska, with $55,499. There is a big drop to the fourth, Wallawa, with $26,168.

Siskiyou forest earned but $9786, Cascade but $1646, Umpqua $21,042.

The receipts of the Crater Forest are divided as follows: Sale of timber, $28,730; cattle and horses, 196 permits, 6293 head; sheep and goats, 11 permits, 5264 head. The total cost of operation and maintenance, $52,676.

A WISE SAYING

Open in a great while some wise man says a whole lot in a very few words, like these: "It's a long lane that has no turn." "Whoever a man sows that shall he reap." "Every dog has his day," and if we will watch the human race some of them must have had their when they were pups. You, Mister Man, are just as much entitled to ride in a Ford as any one, you should have just as nice a home as your neighbor and its up to you. No one is going to hand you these good things on a silver platter, but lots of worse looking men and in their day, poorer than you ever was, have them today. But they have earned them, Mexicans do their plowing with a stick. They could have up to date tools, and we have men, white men, in the Rogue river valley, trying to spray apple trees with a tin can and a bicycle pump, and when they bring their wormy fruit to market no one wants it. We, that means us as well, will take a two-cylinder Bean Spray Rig and drive any man's three-cylinder out of an orchard. The Bean is King every one here knows that, but they had rather use the cheap kind. Well, what you sow you shall reap and it goes all the way down the line. We know you can buy spray hose for 16 cents per foot, but Bean hose costs you 22 cents; likewise nozzles. But look at the reaping, what will the harvest be?

The hill sides and gullies are full of discarded spray rigs, but you will never find a Bean rig among them. A second-hand Bean rig is just as good as a new one, but never one for sale. Please do not rave at the spray hose next fall when it's all your own fault. Get the wheels in your head to going right. Come down and let Big Johnson show you a Bean rig—Shortie or Ben could, but they will be very busy looking after that Blue Lodge stuff, for it keeps things going some to keep up these days at the Big Stone, you know.

SMOKERS HIT BY HIGH COST OF LIVING

Smokers are the last class to be hit by the rising tide of high prices. Beginning today new prices on cigars, cigarettes, chewing tobacco and matches went into effect at Medford cigar stands. Cigars formerly retailed at five cents are now seven cents, or four for a quarter. The exception to this rule is in the case of local made smokes, which are being sold with no change in price. Cigarettes have advanced five cents a package all along the line from the five cent to twenty five cent varieties. Fine cut tobacco in cans has not raised in price.

Chewing tobacco, formerly five cents a cut has doubled in price. Even matches are taking a flight, now being retailed at two boxes for fifteen cents. Smaller packages may be had at the old price of five cents.

EVENING VESTS, FANCY SILK: "TRENCH COATS" LATEST

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—Models of coming styles exhibited at the convention of the National Association of Merchant Tailors, which opened here today, showed no radical changes from those of last year. Among the novelties, inspected by the 400 delegates was a "trench" coat patterned after the coats worn by soldiers abroad. The garment has large lapels, a deep collar and is built to fit snugly.

The black vest for evening wear is a thing of the past, the tailors announced. The proper vest, they say, should be of fancy silk or pique, either hite or blue. Square shoulders were decreed for business suits instead of the slanting shoulder effect.

SANE AND SAFE CIGARETTE LAW

SALEM, Or., Feb. 14.—A "safe and sane" anti-cigarette bill was passed by the house late today and probably will go through the senate and become the law of the state. Representative Gore voted for the measure and Thomas and Sheldon against it.

The bill is sort of a compromise between the Sweeney bone dry bill and the conservative Stott bill, both of which were passed by the house last week, later recalled and tabled.

The bill passed today is a redraft of the Sweeney bill. It strictly prohibits the sale of cigarettes to youths under 21 years of age, and makes it a misdemeanor for a minor to smoke cigarettes.

It provides heavy penalties for violations. It authorizes the district attorney and other prosecuting officers to enforce the law under pain of becoming criminally liable themselves.

At the suggestion of Representative Kahl, the provision against billboard advertising was stricken out.

Henry Wolf left Wednesday morning for his home at Willows, Cal., after spending a month in Medford and vicinity on business.

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR, SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25-Cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff Doubles Beauty of Your Hair

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

DON'T GIVE UP

Discouraged Citizens Will Find Comfort in the Experience of a Medford Man.

Experience is the modern instructor. Profit by the experience of others. It may save your life. The experience of friends and neighbors. The testimony of Medford people will bring renewed encouragement.

Here is a case in point: D. R. Andrus, 510 S. Fir street, Medford, says: "I was bothered considerably by my kidneys and bladder. I had trouble in retaining the kidney secretions and I also had a dull ache across my kidneys. I found good relief from Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys acted more regularly and I didn't have that trouble in my back. This has convinced me that Doan's Kidney Pills are a medicine of merit and are worth recommending to others."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Andrus had. Foster-Silberman Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
