SAMS VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Day were callers in Ashland last week, where Mrs. Day remained with her little boy, who is under the doctor's care there.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoner and daughter, Lila, have moved out to their ranch to remain during the spring. This adds another pupil to our school.

C. H. Natwick of Eagle Point was looking after his road machinery here Monday.

H. I. Pelton was doing business in Central Point and Medford Tuesday. Mrs. W. W. Edington is quite ill with a gripe.

In answer to an item in the Table Rock Tablets, the Sportsmen's club states that their object in offering a bounty on large chicken hawks was to protect the poultry raisers of this section, who claim to have been damaged by them to the extent of losing as many as 150 chickens from a flock within a single season.

The club states that most of the hawks killed were frequenting poultry premises and they hope, as they believe, that their absence will not make the field mice any more plentiful.

J. K. Moore was a Medford visitor last week. Mrs. W. A. Tresham is undergoing a very severe attack of poison oak.

F. K. Deuel and Al Wicks were looking after interests here Tuesday. Mr. Deuel says in reference to his ranch that he does not care to sell and cannot see why any one should when they possess soil of this productivity and with prevailing high price of wheat added to it.

Many from this section attended the dance at Gold Hill. Miss Retta Edington is visiting her brother and family in Eagle Point.

Frank De Ford hauled a load of wheat to Eagle Point last week. The warm, sunny days are drying the soil rapidly and many have commenced making early gardens.

Mrs. O. T. Wilson and children visited relatives in Table Rock Saturday and Sunday.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Last Saturday night there was what is called a social dance—that is, got up on the spur of the moment, by calling those interested in such a move by phone and thus making arrangements in a hurry. There was a good attendance, and those who took part report having had a very enjoyable time. They danced until about midnight, and among the young men who took part the following came to is generously used in tuberculosis camps is proof positive that it is the most energizing preparation in the world. It has power to create power. It warms and nourishes; it enriches the blood, stops loss of flesh and builds you up.

the Sunnyside for beds and breakfast; Lyle Purdin, Raymond Reter of Medford, who remained until Monday morning; George Guiren, Al Clements, Jack Florey, now of Jacksonville, and Henry Truist.

Mrs. William Hihman, Sr., came out Saturday to visit her son, W. R. Holman, who is confined here with a broken leg, and returned to her home Sunday afternoon. There was a regular string of visitors came in Sunday to see Mr. Holman. Among them were Mrs. Sam Coy, Miss Vera Grover, Miss Nellie Coy, Mrs. S. H. Harvish and daughter, Mrs. Fred Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. George Austin, Mrs. Edna Edsall, besides quite a number whose names I did not learn.

Henry Truist and Miss Louisa Brady were among the guests for dinner Sunday. W. L. Jones, who is serving Uncle Sam by going around among the cattle men and ascertaining the number of cattle they want to put on the government range this spring, was with us Saturday night.

J. H. Rigby and family of Crook county, Oregon, arrived here and were met at the train by his father-in-law, Mr. Logan, who came in from that country last fall. They are thinking of settling in this section.

Mrs. O. M. Goff of Butte Falls, who has been visiting the family of William Perry, returned to her home Tuesday on the P. & E.

Mr. Brown, the county surveyor, came out on the P. & E. Tuesday to survey out the line between the lots owned by Mrs. Rose Potter and the one owned by A. B. Zimmerman.

Mrs. Jude Mayham was taken to Medford the first of the week to consult a specialist with regard to her eyes, as she is blind at times. In the morning when she first gets up she can see to distinguish the different persons around, and by 2 o'clock p. m. she is stone blind. The old lady is of the old pioneer stock, as her father, John Mathews, was among the earliest settlers in this section, and was born and raised in this neighborhood, and was one of my pupils in school in 1867. Her friends sympathize with her in her affliction.

Lyman McCord, a brother of Mrs. A. L. Hazelton, started for his home in Prineville last Monday. W. D. Roberts and daughter were shopping in our town Monday.

Benj. Brophy brought out a band of cattle that he has been feeding at A. E. Strong's place, Monday evening.

Speaking of Mr. Strong brings to mind that he was here Monday and gave me the following item for the readers of the Mail Tribune: Those interested in the Poultry association or in the poultry industry, in this section of the country, are to meet in Brown's hall next Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m. to take steps toward the organization of a poultry association in this section of the country. W. W. Watson, secretary of the Jackson County association; H. W. Frame, president; Mr. Webb of Central Point, director; C. C. Cate, county pathologist, and others are expected to be here. The object of the meeting is to create more of an interest in the poultry industry and to consolidate the interests so as to be able to do business on a larger scale, so as to be able to ship the product in carload lots and thus minimize the cost of freight. The plan is to induce those who have orchards to arrange so as to have from 100 to 150 dozen hens on a place, hire an expert to superintend the work and care of the hens, so as to bring the production of eggs to a higher plane and thus increase the revenues and utilize a lot of land that is otherwise wasted.

There were twenty-six cream cans put off the P. & E. train here Tuesday on the trip from Medford to Table Rock. That gives some idea of what is doing in that line in this section.

W. E. Butler, one of our progressive farmers, received a stamp puller Tuesday from Hubbard Bros., Medford.

Lem Charley and wife passed through here Tuesday on their way to Medford.

In my last I gave an account of a panther being killed up in the Lake Creek country and credited Rudolph Peck and John Watkins, and it should have been Rudolph Peck and John Walsh, instead of Watkins.

Mrs. Nellie Wooly, Mrs. Roundtree and two ladies from Central Point went out to Medford in Will Lewis' jitney Tuesday.

Jud Edsall, Wig Jack, Benj. Brophy and T. E. Nichols went to Medford Tuesday.

Floyd Pierce, who has been in the mines for the most of the winter, returned to his home Tuesday.

Perry Foster, Peter Young, Henry French, John Rader and wife, and James C. Johnson were among the business callers Tuesday, and while here Henry French paid up his subscription to the W. M. T. and ordered the D. M. T. and Mr. Johnson paid up his subscription to the W. M. T.

leave Monday for Nampa, Idaho, where they expect to reside in the future.

Miss Ethel Evans of Medford spent Sunday with Hazel Anderson.

Miss Rita Morse of Medford spent the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Morse.

Mrs. Caroline Anderson entertained the following guests at a dinner party last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson and family of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch, and family, of Wagner creek, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Klum and Mrs. Peter Garrett of Ashland.

The many friends of Mrs. Clyde will be glad to hear that she is recovering from her recent illness.

FLOUNCE ROCK FRILLS

Dr. Holt was called to this neighborhood Thursday night to attend Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield's youngest child, Dorothy. She was taken suddenly with something like convulsions, which developed into paralysis of the left side. She is a little better now. A trained nurse is staying with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Mooney and son started to Medford Monday. They stopped at John Grieves for the night.

Mr. Stinson took his wife to the valley Saturday as she is quite sick. Mrs. Shall accompanied them. Mr. Stinson took Mr. Irwin's car, as his own was a runaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine spent the day Thursday with Peckers and Blanchards. Mrs. Erskine spent that night at Mrs. Dawson's and the next day visited the Florence Rock school.

The W. M. B. met at Mrs. Violet Ditsworth's Saturday afternoon and proceeded to tack a comfort. Mrs. Blanchard was a guest of the hostess that day. Mrs. Ditsworth served dainty refreshments of pink ice cream and angel food cake. There were 10 ladies present besides the children.

There was a very pleasant party Friday night at G. W. Kincaid's. The old fashioned fun making games were played. Mrs. Carl Richardson and Miss Belva Walker made candy, which was said to be delicious, and some one popped corn and Howard popped the question, but was rejected because of his thatch.

Miss Delie Whisenant spent Friday night with Hazel Ditsworth and attended the party at Mr. Kincaid's.

Pearl Peyton went home with the Nyl young folks Friday night and stayed several days with them. There was a party at Mr. Nye's Saturday night and Sunday the young people visited at Ed Hollenbeck's.

Mrs. Shannon went to Medford Thursday to be gone several months. Paul Peyton spent part of Saturday night with Stewart Ditsworth.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How to Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or ears disappears. Your stuffed nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sneezing, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.
