ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Ashland's celebration dates this year will be Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 3, 4 and 5. Of course the 4th will be the red letter roundup date, though something will be doing every hour during the celebration period.

In the dual series of basketball games Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, between Ashland and Klamath Falls high school teams, played here, the Ashland boys won both games—Tuesday evening by a score of 24 to 9, and Wednesday evening 25 to 17.

David C. Kilgore, who formerly resided in this vicinity, died at the State Hospital in Salem, Thursday morning, aged about 70 years.

Mr. Clara B. Purucker of Medford, accompanied by Mrs. H. O. Purucker and son Bob of this city, leave next week for a visit of two months at San Diego, Cal.

Valentine day passed uneventfully. Churches were closed from 6 a. m. till 7:30 p. m., but the banks, schools, postoffice and stockyards remained open for routine business.

On the occasion of Rev. Ward W. MacHenry leaving Baker to accept a new pastorate at Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church in Portland, the Methodist, Baptist and Christian churches of Baker, participated in a farewell service in his honor.

Earl Hason's temporary address at Aberdeen, Wash., is No. 11 North B street.

W. A. Freeberg returned on Wednesday from a six months' stay in various parts of California. He brought his car as far as Hill but owing to the condition of roads returned to Hornbrook, from where the machine was shipped over the mountains.

Funeral services of the late Geo. Engle were held at the family residence on the Boulevard, Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. J. Douglass, Methodist pastor. Interment was in Ashland cemetery.

Miss Anna Purucker of Medford is visiting this week with the family of her brother, H. O. Purucker, living on Pioneer avenue.

Gwin Butler of this city has recently furnished the Medford Commercial club with a lot of Newtown apples for advertising purposes, the size and quality of the fruit being universally considered as paramount to no others.

Homer G. Smith, a private in Co. E 15th U. S. Infantry, died at Tientsin, China, Dec. 27 of pneumonia, aged 26 years. His remains reached Ashland on Wednesday, by way of the Philippines and San Francisco. He was the son of A. E. Smith, residing on Sixth street, who is in the employ of the Southern Pacific as watchman of the White Point tract on the Siskiyouos. Funeral services will be held at the family residence next Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. D. D. Edwards of the Nazarene church. Interment in Mountain View.

In a free for all rumpus on the mezzanine floor of an annex to Curtis restaurant at the depot Wednesday night, the color scheme was red, some blood being shed. In Justice Wimer's court on Thursday, Alec Hall pleaded guilty and was fined $5. Otis King elected to stand trial, was found guilty, and fined $20. Moral: Avoid a common multiple of 5 by pleading guilty.

Major H. O. Butterfield, owing to the resignation of Col. Geo. Holley, has been advanced ten numbers in the official ranks of the Boy Scouts, and now is in command of the three patrols of the organization here.

Spray calendars as issued by the county pathologist, are now available at the Commercial club and Fruit and Produce association offices.

Oliver Paulserud has purchased of W. W. Caldwell the old Downing property on Oak street and will remodel the building into a fine residence, the location of the premises justifying it. In the deal Caldwell receives a residence lot in Spokane and balance in cash. The Beaver Realty Co. negotiated the transfer.

A. L. Lamb has the contract for replacing the damaged portions of the Cunningham block.

Jesse N. Drew of Klamath county and Miss Hazel Smith were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Smith on Wednesday, by Rev. H. A. Carnahan. The newly married couple will reside on a ranch near Dalry.

The local Masonic lodge will confer the third degree on Saturday evening of this week, a prominent Wells-Fargo messenger on the Ashland-Portland run being the candidate.

Leslie R. Coombs has returned home after an absence of several months in eastern Oregon, engaged on an extensive building contract.

Geo. W. Jones, Dead Indian rancher, whose city residence is on Fairview street, and who has interests near Oakland, Ore., has gone north to look after property there.

The State Game and Fish commission reports 50,676 fishing licenses issued in 1916, and on this basis it is figured that anglers spend $1,250,000 in Oregon annually.

The current issue of the Road- YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS maker, published at Moline, Ill., contains an article by Morris J. Durgea, whitom secretary of the Ashland Commercial club, dealing with the Pacific highway and illustrated with scenic attractions appearing in this vicinity and northern California. Durgea now holds a sinecure as "executive secretary" of the Moline chamber of commerce, incorporated and limited.

The midwinter meeting of the Iowa society of Medford, held on Wednesday evening, was a notable reunion. J. F. Hopkins was elected president, and Mrs. E. J. Runyard secretary. Frank J. Shlan is president of the Ashland Hawkeye association.

A delegation of Chinese from Yreka were here early in the week making preliminary arrangements as to the celebration of their new year anniversary.

CENTRAL POINT

J. W. Merritt was a recent business visitor here.

Many of our young folks attended the concert given by the O. A. C. Glee club Friday evening at the Page theater.

Mrs. Lizzie Johns, after an absence of many years, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Witte.

Bert H. Dyer of Hillsboro, Or., has purchased the Central Point Herald. Mr. Bruser, formerly owner, will farm in the Willamette valley.

The revival meetings conducted by Rev. Reed, the pastor of the M. E. church, are well attended, and much interest is shown. Clarence Meeker of Medford is chorister and each evening sings effective solos that are greatly appreciated by those who attend. Mrs. Reed is also present and is doing all possible to make these meetings a success.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our Grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

"TIZ" PUTS JOY IN SORE, ACHING FEET

"My, how 'Tiz' gladdens tired, swollen, burning feet— It's glorious!"

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, no more swollen, aching, tender, swollen feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.

No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain.
