Mrs. Joe Rader opened her beautiful home on the Pacific highway, February 13, at a 12 o'clock St. Valentine luncheon, when Phoenix ladies helped her entertain fifty ladies of the physical education classes of the Medford conservatory. The ladies from Talent, including Mrs. Lynette Hovious and Miss Swindler of the conservatory, were the guests of honor. The spacious living rooms were artistically decorated. Red ribbons, from which were suspended red and white hearts and saucy cupids, were hung from the massive chandeliers to all parts of the rooms. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the same manner in the dining room. Pink and white carnations formed the table centerpieces, with pink and white cupid place cards. An elaborate three-course luncheon was served at 12 o'clock. Covers were laid for fifty.

Mrs. Frame in a few well-chosen words welcomed the guests. In response, Mrs. Helliwell of Talent read an original poem entitled "If" written by Miss Lucille Ames of Talent, which caused much merriment.

On Thursday evening, February 18, Mr. and Mrs. Reimer entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner. Covers were laid for six. Mrs. Lynette Hovious, Miss Isabelle Seindler, Coral Faye Hovious, Mrs. Reimer, Mr. Reimer and Lillian Reimer. Later in the evening the beautiful home was filled with guests, all dressed in white, who enjoyed a St. Valentine's party. The white garlands of the guests with the dangling red hearts was the keynote of the evening decorations, the beautiful rooms being a riotous color of red and white carnations, white narcissus with suspended decorations of red cupids and hearts. After an evening of unique St. Valentine's entertainment, with the color scheme of red and white predominating, was served at 10 o'clock to the following guests: Mesdames Gillard, Mills, Rose, King, Spence, Griffin, Burgen, Helliwell, Manning, Vanderlinis, Terrell, Galbraith, Adamson, Ames, Foss, Morse, Ross, Heiber, Hovious, Smith, Mr. Reimer, Mr. Morse and the Misses Swindler, Powers, Hanseom, Hovious and Reimer.

Miss Bess Bryan left Tuesday morning for Chicago, where she goes to take a position as vocal teacher in a conservatory of music. Miss Bryan came from Chicago to Medford nearly two years ago to visit her sister, Mrs. H. E. Tucker, and to get a much-needed rest from a strenuous season of concert and recital work. During her stay here she has been prominent in musical circles, both as a successful teacher of vocal music and as a talented soloist, the quality of her voice being a beautiful lyric soprano, and she has delighted her friends on many occasions with her singing. By her many accomplishments and her pleasing personality Miss Bryan endeavored herself to the Medford people, though to have her go will greatly rejoice at her success in securing such a desirable position.

The young men's class of the Presbyterian Sunday school entertained with a Washington dinner Friday evening. Those present were: John Whipple, William Hillis, William James, Stanley Jones, Earl York, Harry Wortman, Gardner Gould, Charles Wortman, Kenn Caldwell, Everett Rummell, Edward Kelley, Jasper Maddox, Howard Fajpeler, Justin Smith, Ronald Gould, Vincent Blakey and Miss De Vore, teacher. The following officers were elected: Harry Wortman, president; Gardner Gould, vice-president; Justin Smith, secretary; William Hillis, treasurer; Earl York, chairman social committee; Earl York, chairman. Social committee: Vincent Blakey, chairman. Literary committee: John Whipple, chairman athletic committee.

The regular Parent-Teachers' meeting of the Lincoln school will meet Friday at 3 o'clock in the school building. Those attending are requested to bring rose cuttings, flower seeds and bulbs and the school children will plant them. The school day is to be observed by the school day.

The Parent-Teacher council of Jackson and Josephine counties present the name of Mrs. W. W. Usher to the women of Oregon as their candidate for the presidency of the Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher association of the state of Oregon. Mrs. Usher is one of the pioneer workers in child welfare work in this part of the state. When the first parent-teacher circle in Medford was organized in the Washington school in 1911, she was made the treasurer of the organization and had much to do with the growth and development of the work in the city. She was made one of the vice-presidents of the State Congress of Mothers in 1912, and in that capacity was always helpful to those wishing to organize or seeking help of any kind along the line of parent-teacher work. Mrs. Usher removed to Ashland in 1914 and since that time has been entering in her efforts to further the cause of child welfare wherever the opportunity has presented itself. Always sympathetic and prompt to help, conscientious and faithful to her trust, Mrs. Usher will make an ideal president for this great organization. In order that the southern Oregon candidate may be elected, it is necessary that all circles in southern Oregon see to it that they are affiliated with the state and county organization, and that delegates are sent to the state convention of Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher association in October at Eugene. Any desired information concerning the matter will be promptly sent from the child welfare bureau of education, having a room in the public library of Medford.

Mrs. Judson, Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Wood were hostesses to the Progressive club for the benefit of the Relief corps at the pleasant home of Mrs. Judson on Beatty street, Wednesday afternoon, February 14. The house was very prettily decorated with flags and festoons of hearts hung from the ceiling in all the rooms. They spent a pleasant time with a guessing contest. The winners were Mrs. Reames, first prize, and Mrs. Rossberry, booby prize, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Bradbury, Norris, Miller, Rosedberry, Clay, Walters, Reames, Wilkinson, Wilson, Andrus, Kenyon, Tucker, Frazee, Hull, O'Brien, Evans, Hart, Noble, Metz, Woods, Kenworthy, Hull, Kent, Judson, Norris, Dow, Pichel, Welch, Hess, Tinker, McDonald, Stine, Smith, Currier, Glascock, Frank Shoults, Boardman, Banbin and Miss Leona Hill.

Among the many social functions of the week, a valentine party given by Miss Margaret Sears at her home on North Central was greatly enjoyed by those present. Friday 2:15 is the opening session of our Esson-Clarke Sunday school rally.

Ashland is sending a delegation of about 20 people, and Central Point is also planning to be with us.

The little convention promises to be a real live affair, and every Sunday school worker is expected to be present.

The afternoon program will be followed by a fellowship luncheon for our out-of-town delegates, and for our own teachers and officers.

Following this, the evening service of song, aided by our Sunday school orchestra, and the addresses by Sister Esson and Bro. Clarke will be worth while to Sunday school folks.

First Baptist. "A live church with a cordial welcome." Evangelist H. E. Marshall will be in charge of all services tomorrow. He will speak at each of the five services, as follows:

9:45 a. m. Bible school. At this service Rev. Marshall will speak upon "Safety First."

At 11 a. m. the subject will be "The Unity of Christ."

In the afternoon, at 3 o'clock sharp Mr. Marshall will give his much talked of lecture on "The Bible; Every Book of it a Necessity." Parts of this lecture were given two afternoons of this week. Interest was so intense that the congregation continued to stay and ask questions after having been dismissed. In this lecture Mr. Marshall explains the seven periods of Time, shows how the Bible foretold the present great world war, presents in a clear way the second coming of Christ, the translation of the church, and brings striking and startling statements regarding the last thousand year period upon which the world soon enters. Whether you can agree with Mr. Marshall or not you will be greatly interested in hearing his teaching.

At 6:30 p. m. Young People's hour, he will speak on the subject, "Why I am a Baptist." Mr. Marshall is a man of positive convictions and has a reason for everything believed and taught.

The evening evangelistic service follows at 7:30.

Tonight (Saturday) is Young People's night. Subject, "The Call of the Wild."

The pews of the church have been changed so as to eliminate two aisles, thereby increasing the seating capacity of the church.
