WILLOW SPRINGS

The many friends of Ethel Dean will be glad to know that she is again at her home, after a long stay at the Dow hospital. Plans are underway for a big time at the Willow Springs Grange on February 24th.

Miss Catherine Dickerman of Rockford, Illinois, is a guest at the home of Mrs. R. W. Elden. Miss Dickerman is on her way to Southern California.

Mr. A. Z. Whitney of Ashland spent Sunday with the M. F. Young family. So many children having colds and coughs, the school board of our district thought it advisable to fumigate the school room.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crane will leave soon for Applegate, where they will reside in the future. Mrs. Anna Wright and Mrs. Cummins took a Pullman car for Ashland the last of the week.

Last Saturday afternoon Messrs. Ernest Webb, Henry W. Frame, P. E. Wynkoop and W. W. Watson drove into town to meet an engagement, as per announcement in The Mail Tribune, to talk over with the people of Eagle Point, the prospect of creating an interest in the poultry industry.

Mr. Barton, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy, on Millonaire Row, left for his home at Minneapolis Sunday morning, stopping on route at Spokane.

James Stevens, after a visit of several days with A. C. Fiero and wife, left for New York Saturday evening. Mr. Stevens is a singer of considerable ability.

Our local high school basketball team defeated the Gold Hill high school on the local floor Friday evening. The Gold Hill team did not show good team work, and were too young and inexperienced for the Central Point boys, also the Gold Hill girls did not play as good as they did once before when they played here.

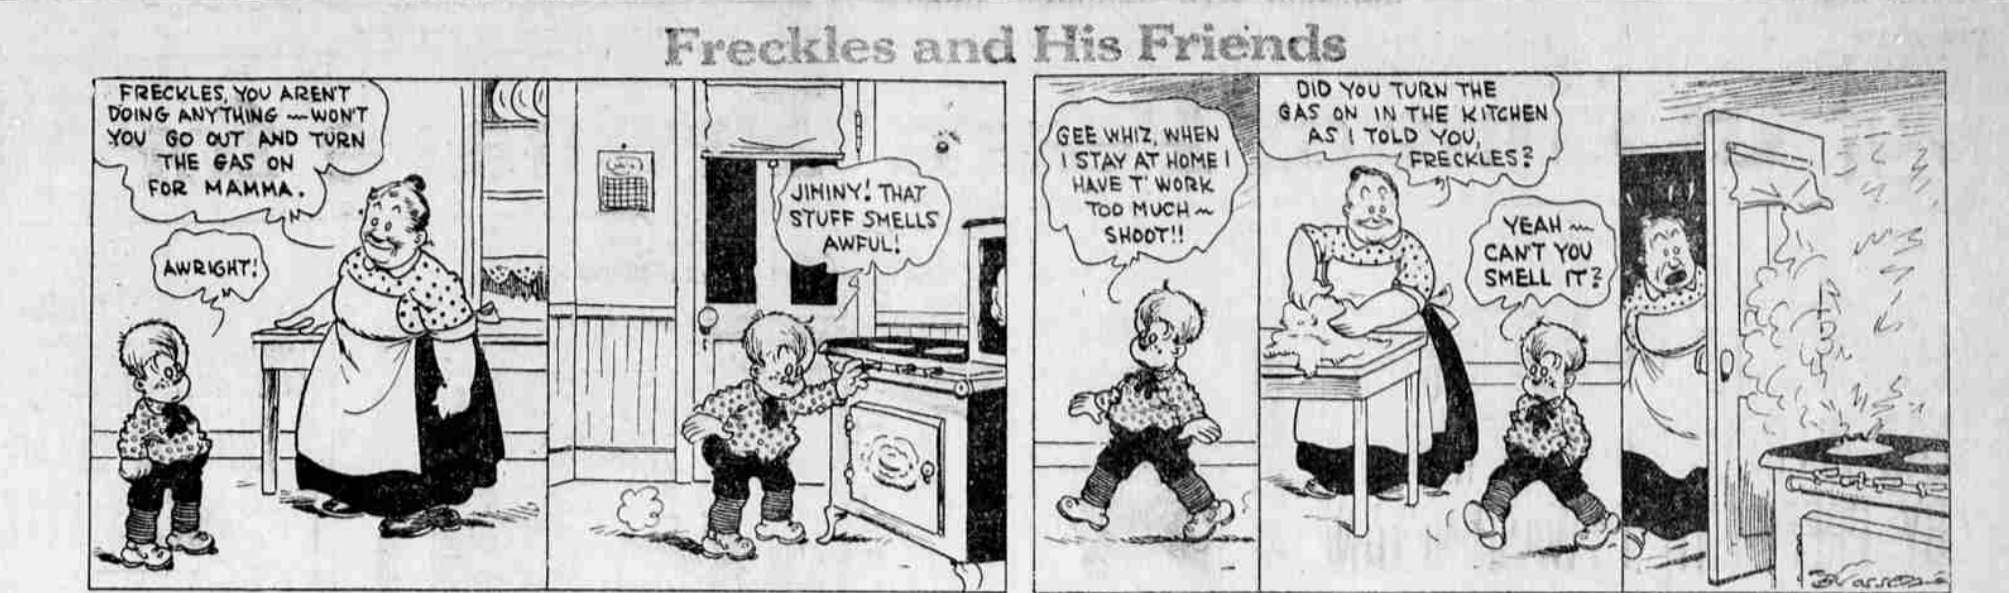

T. Ernest Francis, who has been employed by the Palmers Investment company for the past eight months, left for Ontario, Canada, Monday evening going by way of California.

Mrs. Marie Powers of Gold Hill spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Hara.

J. F. Hay left for Granada, Cal., Tuesday morning.

Mrs. J. S. March and wife, who have been visiting friends at Rogue river, returned to Merrill, Ore., Tuesday morning.

At the regular meeting of the W. R. C., Saturday afternoon, some of the members of the W. R. C., Medford, were present, namely, Mrs. Kinion, president; Mrs. Major Andrews, Mrs. Evans. The object of their visit was to invite the W. H. Harrison, W. R. C., to Medford Wednesday afternoon to attend corps, and partake of an oyster supper Wednesday evening.

D. C. Grim, councilman, firechief, and member of the board of public works, is visiting relatives near Corvallis this week.

Miss Francis Aiken, the popular school teacher of Table Rock was a visitor here Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Keizer of Bend arrived Tuesday morning to visit relatives.

James Hildebrand left for Portland Monday evening, where he has secured employment.

The Hikers club, which was to be organized Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Reed of the M. E. church was interfered with by the inclement weather.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Marshall left Tuesday evening for Washington.

At the close of the evening service of the M. E. church Sunday night, Rev. Reed requested all present, while the congregation sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," to give the hand of fellowship to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brower, who have been faithful workers in the church, and who leave soon for Gresham, Oregon, to make their future home.

The Knights and Ladies of Security, of which Mr. and Mrs. Brower are active members, gave them a farewell reception Monday evening.

Miss Edna Sutton, of Gold Hill, has been the guest of Mrs. Isel Lewis for the past week.

Isel Lewis has moved from Fourth and Manzanita street to the Olson property in the suburbs north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crane will leave soon for Applegate, where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. Anna Wright and Mrs. Cummins took a Pullman car for Ashland the last of the week.

Last Saturday afternoon Messrs. Ernest Webb, Henry W. Frame, P. E. Wynkoop and W. W. Watson drove into town to meet an engagement, as per announcement in The Mail Tribune, to talk over with the people of Eagle Point, the prospect of creating an interest in the poultry industry.

At the close of the lecture Mr. Watson asked for the names of those who desired to join the Southern Oregon Poultry association and quite a number paid their fee and were enrolled as members of the association. Before leaving this subject, I would like to say that while Mr. Watson is writing so much on the subject of poultry raising and its benefits that would be derived from joining the association.

Miss Louise Blass came out Saturday evening and gave a dance in the opera house and it appears from reports that it was well attended. They danced until about 2 o'clock Sunday morning and then dispersed and the following persons were found at the Sunnyside Sunday morning: Clifford Hickson, Guy Pratt, Glen Haley, George Gairn, Lyle Parden and Raymond Reter of Medford and Al Clemons, Dave Smith and Noble Zimmerman. They seemed to be well pleased and had but few complaints to make.

The Jacksonville basket ball team came out Saturday evening and played against the Eagle Point team, and carried off the laurels, the game standing 25 to 13. Mr. Bradshaw of the Jacksonville Post was among the guests for supper and said that he came out to see the game.

Mrs. McCaslin of the Ali Vista orchard was here Saturday afternoon to attend the Southern Oregon Poultry association meeting and spoke on the subject of the production of eggs, saying that she had thirty-five Orplington hens and that they had averaged her twenty-three eggs a day all winter. She spoke very highly of that breed and so did A. E. Stony.

Judge Tom Velle and wife were among the guests at the Sunnyside Sunday for dinner.

Irvin Daley, wife and daughter, Miss Vineta, came out on the P. & E. Monday and took the Lake Creek stage for their home in the Lake Creek country.

Norman McQuoid, one of our town councilmen, and a respected citizen, left Monday for Oakland, Cal., expecting his family to follow in about two weeks.

C. M. Martin and Frank Farlow came out from Medford on the P. & E. Tuesday and took the Lake Creek stage for their homes.

R. C. McMillan, representing an insurance company of Portland was here for dinner Tuesday, and so was Wayman Bergman and Milton Houston of Trail. They were putting up the telephone poles along the route from here up the river that had been broken down by the snow. Thomas Vestal and three other men were here for dinner, whose names I failed to procure.

C. V. Cummings, the superintendent on the Ali Vista orchard, was in town Tuesday, having irons made to make frames to haul his crude oil from the depot. He has ordered 25,000 gallons, to be used this spring in spraying the fruit trees in the orchard.

Thomas E. Nichols shipped 110 sacks of potatoes from here to the Medford Fruit Co. Medford, Tuesday.

Mr. M. McIntosh came in Tuesday evening and engaged a room at the Sunnyside. He is working for the P. & E. section gang.

At this writing, Wednesday afternoon, the snow is ten inches deep on a level here. We have had an unusually hard snow storm for the season, but the sun is shining bright now.

I omitted to state in the proper place that Mr. William Holman, who has been here for the past month with a broken leg, was taken to his father-in-law's, the home of W. W. Taylor. He was carried on a litter by five or six men. He is doing finely.

J. H. and Aden Tyrrell of Lake Creek came out from Medford in their Ford, but the snow is so deep that they thought it best to leave it and take the stage.

J. R. Milon of Lake Creek and L.

W. Wencer and Fred Bellows were among the guests here Wednesday for dinner.

Since my last writing Henry French has paid his subscription to The Daily Mail Tribune and stopped his Weekly Mail Tribune.
