ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The Commercial club meets next Monday evening, March 5, in regular session. H. O. Frohbach will be installed as secretary, vice Frank Shinn, resigned. The organization supplements the Roundup company in backing the big celebration here next summer for three or four days, with July 4 as the red-letter epoch.

By mutual arrangements duly advertised, the three banks in town and G. F. Billings & Son are made agencies whereby taxes may be paid directly here without correspondence of trip to Jacksonville. The nominal fee is 15 cents.

The recent visit of Miss Ida Tarbell, distinguished lecturer and writer, to the Pacific coast is a reminder to the people of this city that she is as Nancy Glass, and Ida Tarbell is the schoolmate in former days.

W. A. Shell, a newcomer here from Edmond, Alberta, and who recently purchased the barber shop of Rogers & Saunders in the Rose block, is to occupy the Tozer house on upper Laurel street.

Panama exposition medals are now ready for distribution to local prize-winners, in which list H. H. Leavitt and the Patterson Orchards are entitled to honor distinctions. Gold medals go to Albert Johnson, H. H. Leavitt and S. A. Peters; silver, D. M. Lowe and Albert Johnson; bronze, H. H. Leavitt and Albert Johnson.

The recent death of General Funston is a reminder that in 1893 Herman Mattern of this city made the trip to Alaska with Funston, starting from Seattle. The stay in northern wilds lasted a year, during which time the future general, then a young man, was in the government civil service. The associations of the men were intimate and Mr. Mattern speaks in highest terms of his friend's genial disposition and varied accomplishments. In 1897 Funston wrote for Scribner's Magazine a very interesting description of the Alaskan journeyings, incidentally referring to Mattern as "the good-natured German."

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair returned on Wednesday from a fortnight's stay in various sections of California, including a visit with J. Syd McNair, now a resident of Corona.

Miss Iva Tozer of Petaluma, Cal., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tozer of that city, and granddaughter of Job Tozer of Ashland, was married March 1 to William Katen of Petaluma. The newlyweds will reside in Oakland.

R. D. Sanford of this city has a communication in the Portland Journal of Wednesday incorporating a series against publishers of delinquent tax lists and lambasting legislators in general. Of course it follows that the Oregonian is ripped up the back.

Ladies of the Baptist church will hold a food sale at H. P. Holmes' store, Saturday, March 3.

F. S. Fay, formerly engaged in painting here, has opened a store in Santa Barbara, Cal., at 732 State street, which deals in paint and allied trades.

The Travelers' club, composed of young people of the Methodist church, will hold a "backward-swap" party on Friday evening. Rules of the tournament imply a reversal of the mode of wearing garments as customarily donned. This innovation is simple enough as regards all masculine attire, but when it comes to reversing the stern dictates of fashion as applied to feminine apparel, how will that be—be so arranged as to produce the desired backward effects?

There's a fine lot of oil paintings in the windows of Hosler's cigar store on the Plaza. The work is the intuitive genius of W. A. Freberg, who never took an art lesson along these lines in his life. The collection includes a series of scenic beauties, several given a local coloring by the representation of familiar attractions in Ashland parks. Others represent majestic features of mountain, canyon and dale.

Soda waters as supplied from adjacent springs and delivered within city limits through the pipe system will be sent to San Francisco for further analysis to determine their actual constituents. This is being done in response to criticism of many that the soda output is flat to the palate as compared with the lithia flow at the fountains, consequently steps will be taken to punctuate the neutral flow with the necessary "pep." It is not thought that another bond issue will be required to remedy existing conditions, the expense being defrayed from the effervescent sinking fund.

The Bagley Canning Co. of Talent is this early in the field securing contracts for tomatoes of the vintage of 1917.

Monte Briggs and associates of this city contemplate installing an exclusive shoe store at Yreka, and have a location in the Hathaway block under consideration.

It requires a half-column space in local papers to meet legal requirements as to "plans and specifications" for the sale by the city to the highest bidder of one solitary improvement bond in the sum of $279.50.

Mrs. Julia McQuillan returned on Thursday from a winter's visit with her sister at Los Angeles.

Among home teachers employed in outside districts, Miss Margaret Hodgson will be employed in the Bohinger Gap district, near Eagle Point, and Miss Myra Ginter has been at home recently from her school duties in the Penkey district, Son's Valley, taking an enforced vacation due to roads rendered almost impassable by snow.

The high cost of writing is exemplified by an Ashland tailor recently going into business on his own hook, who publicly advertises that for three years preceding his recent venture he not only worked for nothing, but boarded himself as a side line.

Medford is in the limelight by virtue of the submarine menace. Mrs. E. C. Kenly of that city has a sister, Mrs. G. Boston, who was a passenger on the ill-fated Larcion, destroyed recently. Miss Dorothy Conner, also of Medford, was on the Lusitania. Fortunately both have survived the awful experience.

Two convalescents are on the streets again, one being R. C. Porter, ex-chief of police, who has been housed for some time past, due to protracted illness. Another is F. F. Bates, who was down town on Thursday for the first time in ten days, after meeting with a serious accident in the local stockyards in which he sustained a fracture of the collarbone and in addition was "shook up" generally.

The family of Rev. G. S. Brett, pastor of the Congregational church, were surprised on Tuesday evening by a welcome from members of their flock, who without formal notice took possession of the manse and proceeded to inaugurate an informal house warming, at which mutual greetings and felicitations were in order. Mr. and Mrs. John Patty were ringleaders in the invasion. The scriptural adage, "By their fruits ye shall know them," was literally exemplified by the visitors, who presented the family with forty quarts of the canned product.

Miss Angie McDonald, formerly stenographer at the Ashland creamery, and George Burns, Wells-Fargo messenger running through this territory, were married in Portland recently.

Mrs. J. M. Wagner has returned from an extended stay with relatives in Oakland, Cal., where her sons Bob and Carol are located. Miss Bessie Wagner has gone to Oakland to join her brothers there.

The request of the Vining for free electric light service at its theater entrance, in line with privileges granted Hotel Austin and a good many private residences in the way of porch lights, was referred by the city council to committee, this action implying that the city might be compelled to restrict the deadhead burden which is bearing heavily on the electric light department.

Mrs. J. E. Roberts and Mrs. C. Carey of North Talent were Medford business visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. H. P. Pratt, George Ebers, James Martin, C. S. Sargent, Jack Martin, John Calhoun, all from Phoenix, were in Medford Wednesday.

Mrs. Allen had the members served with refreshments consisting of fruit salad and wafers, doughnuts, coffee and sweet cider. This another very pleasant afternoon was passed and recorded.

SAMS VALLEY

Don Houghton of Toledo was calling on relatives here last week.

M. Gross, a dress goods salesman, was through our vicinity this week. He reports that a recent letter to him from Germany states the war is very near a close, the Germans having to quit with a losing game.

The ground is still white with snow, and so long as freezing continues it will be some time before it goes away.

Mike Koser and family arrived from Iowa Monday. They are of present visiting with Mr. Straus, who is a brother of Mrs. Koser. Later the family will reside in the home vacated by Peter Van Hardenburg, where they will make their home for an indefinite time.

As D. C. Wilson was leaving Gold Hill Wednesday his team of mules became frightened near the Lane & Co. warehouse and were soon completely from under the control of any one. Mr. Wilson and Stubbiefield, who were with the rig, succeeded in getting to the ground just before the rig was overturned. The mules were caught near the cement plant, and luckily no damage was done excepting to the rig, which was somewhat dilapidated.

The same day Mr. Tresham almost lost control of his team of mules near Gold Hill, having been frightened by an automobile.

Our school progressed on through the unusual weather with a fair enrollment. The Koger family have added three new pupils to the school.

Jim Smith and sons of Sardinia creek have come into our precinct this week with several large bunches of cattle, which they are feeding on the Pelton place, where they have purchased hay.

This has been an unusually severe winter for men with stock, and it takes a man with much nerve who can wade through snow and keep a stiff upper lip while the sounds of bleating sheep and bawling cattle ring in his ears with snow covering the ground in the place of the usual carpet of green. Many sheep are huddled throughout this section, and it is feared the severe weather will cause quite a loss.

J. I. Frobenberg was visiting relatives here this week.

John Hall and wife, from Medford, are visiting relatives here preparatory to leaving for the Willamette valley.

EDEN PRECINCT

Miss Lolla Roberts and Mrs. Anzeroth of North Talent were Medford shoppers Wednesday.

Mrs. R. N. French of North Talent visited Mrs. Dan M. Condit at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford last Monday.

Men who have stock that they will lose from want of feed could easily make arrangements to have them fed in the valley and let those have feed take their pay out of stock so fed. There is plenty of hay and the stock are good for the amount it would take to save them, even if one had to put up cash for the hay.

Mrs. Dr. Webster of West Talent arrived home last Monday from an extended visit in the east, having been in Washington, D. C., and in New York, Chicago and St. Louis and several other large cities.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric spasms of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called frezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, falls right out.

This drug is a sticky odor compound, but dries at once and simply survives up the corn without inflaming or ever irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of frezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Get this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

Everybody uses Weyler's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delight for toilet regulars. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
