EDEN PRECINCT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch of Talent were trading in Ashland Saturday.

C. B. Ward of Phoenix left last Friday for Los Angeles where he will visit his brother.

Mrs. Sam Cope of Phoenix was among those who went to Medford Saturday.

Mrs. D. Lenher and daughter, Miss Rose, and son, Herman, were among those from Phoenix who were at Ashland Saturday.

George Roberts of Fern Valley was guest at the Carey home Sunday.

We are told that Mrs. Geo. Morse and Mrs. H. Frame of Talent are both on the sick list.

Those from Talent who attended the Ohio reunion at Ashland Saturday were Mrs. Olive M. Wolter, Mr. Cook and Mr. Bigham.

Mrs. J. E. Roberts and daughter, Miss Julia, visited at the Mrs. Robinsons' father's, A. H. Houston, in Phoenix Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamond of North Talent were in Medford on business Saturday.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reams of North Phoenix district has been very ill with pneumonia.

Parties from the Applegate valley were in North Talent Sunday to see about buying hay to feed about forty head of cattle.

Phil Stinebow of Phoenix was a Medford visitor Friday.

Mrs. Joe Rader has almost recovered from her recent attack of tonsillitis which was very severe.

Miss Mollie Towne, Owen Dunlap, and John Edwards, and Mrs. Pratt were trading in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Swezy, nee Miss Holt, and her sister, Miss California Holt, both of Winnemucca, Nevada, are in the valley visiting their father, Senator Holt of Ashland, and friends in their parts of the valley.

Mrs. C. P. Christensen of Ashland, nee Miss Eisle Reams, presented her husband with a ten pound boy on February 27, 1917. The happy parents have the congratulations of their many Talent and Phoenix friends.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

D. D. Fredrick was busy the past week hauling hay from Theo. Glass'.

Miss Lilian Chapman of Medford spent several days this week with parents at Antioch.

The Glass brothers were doing business in the valley towns one day last week.

Mrs. Fredrick spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks of Medford.

Freckles and His Friends

at the Modus orchard one day the past week. Dick Vincent is calling on friends and relatives of Sam's Valley this week.

Several of the farmers are having to buy hay to feed their stock during the winter. A dance was given at the home of Florence Walker last Saturday night, with quite a number in attendance.

Grandma Glass is now staying with her son, Elbert Glass, and family. Ed Russel, who has been working at the Buzzard mine during the winter months, passed through the valley one day last week, returning to his home in the Meadows for a visit.

George Lawrence was hauling wood to town this week. Percy Chapman of Sam's Valley has purchased a Ford car.

BUTTE FALLS

William Perry of Eagle Point was a Butte Falls visitor on Tuesday. Wm. Barrian returned Tuesday from Medford.

J. W. Kelso of Derby was a business visitor in Butte Falls on Tuesday.

Charles Edmondson and John Swanson went up to the Allen place Tuesday and brought Allen's cattle through Wednesday, taking them to the ranch near Derby. They had run out of feed at the upper place. The snow was so deep they had a hard time getting the cattle through.

Bennie Edmondson spent Tuesday night in Butte Falls on his way home from Derby.

Mrs. Rupert Gleason went out to Medford to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sears.

W. W. Parker went up to the Allen place Thursday to move Ben Edmondson's family out to town. They came down Friday evening.

Charles Patton came down from the ranch Friday evening.

The high school on Friday evening gave their third program, the last of the series they have been giving this term. The first program, Miss Fredenburg's side received two votes and Mr. Parker's one; second, Mr. Parker won every vote and the third Miss Fredenburg received two and Mr. Parker one. Miss Fredenburg's side will be required to give a basket supper to Mr. Parker's side. They expect to give it April 1st.

ROGUE RIVER

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Ladies' Improvement Club was held at Mrs. Sandry's last Friday. An interesting Washington program was given under the direction of Mrs. Skidmore and refreshments served by Mrs. Merriman.

Rev. Alfred A. J. Hoeg of Medford, on account of irregular train service was unable to keep his appointment to preach here last Sunday evening.

Rev. Gloschner of Grants Pass filled the appointment.

The small attendance at school during the heavy snow induced the school board to close the school for a week. Work will be resumed Monday, March 5.

Miss Mary Huret was visiting schools in Grants Pass Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Rule spent Wednesday in Gold Hill with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Clark.

The Methodist boys' Sunday school class basket ball team of Ashland will play the Rogue River boys on the local floor Friday evening.

Samuel Mathis returned Thursday from a business trip to Medford.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett
Ex-County Commissioner James Owens, one of our progressive farmers and stockmen, was in town Thursday and while here renewed his subscription to The Daily Mail Trib-

me. He, in speaking of the hard winter and the length of time they have had to feed their cattle, remarked that he thought that he had feed enough to carry him through, that is, he had feed enough for another month. Wig Jack, another one of our hustling stock men said that he could feed for another month, although quite a number of our stock men are running short on hay. Ben Brophy took out another band of about 75 head of cattle to the Hanley ranch Thursday to be fed.

Mike Hanly was here for dinner Thursday, and while here remembered that he had about two hundred tons of hay on hand for sale.

H. L. Stiles, who, with his brothers, have a saw mill on Indian Creek, passed through town Thursday morning with two carts loaded with hay, taking it up home to feed his stock. It seemed rather a slow way of getting hay up there, about fourteen miles from here, but the roads are so bad that he could not haul as much any other way with the teams. It is the old Free Ferry road for about 11 miles, and it is so bad every winter that no one who is familiar with it will attempt to haul a load over it in the winter. It is simply a fright.

Thursday there were about 20 passengers got off of the P. & E. car at this place. Among them were Wrist, J. C. Carlson, L. D. Hurt, W. L. Jones and J. E. Grubbe, five of the men in the forest service for Uncle Sam. They are all engaged in making a road that inadvertently is styled the West-Carlson road, but Mr. West tells me that it is the Soda Springs-Eagle Point road. I am glad that our dear old uncle has had compassion on us poor mortals, who have to travel through that country, for the last time I was up in that section, in a one-horse buggy, I was almost afraid to ride over some places the road was so steep and sliding.

Among the other passengers on the P. & E. Thursday was Mrs. Martin Bowles, Mrs. J. L. Ragsdale, and her son, Ty. They had been out to Medford to be witnesses in the John Ragsdale case, but it is reported that the case was put off for some time, George Frey came out with Mike Hanley in a buggy and the whole bunch of them were here for dinner. Mrs. Ragsdale, son and Mrs. Bowles went on up to Lake creek on the P. & E. stage.

C. J. Heikson, salesman for the Chas. H. Lilly Co., was also with us Thursday, also another salesman, but I did not learn his name.

W. Hart Hamilton and son, Sherwood, came in on the P. & E. Wednesday afternoon and Mr. Hart started for his home in San Jose, Cal., the next day, his son remaining. Mr. Hart is the owner of the old Wm. Clark farm and the old Ashpole farm combined. Sherwood has resumed his place at the table in the Sunny-side Hotel.

C. B. McIntosh, one of the men in the section gang on the P. & E., who has been boarding at the Sunny-side, had his family come out Thursday evening, spent the night with us and Friday moved into the house recently vacated by Norman McQuoid, and Mrs. M. McQuoid started to meet her husband in Oakland, Cal.

Thursday evening some of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. David Cingade gave them a surprise party. The company was comprised principally of elderly people. Light refreshments were carried in by the guests and coffee, pie, and cake were served, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. In fact, "Ma" Cingade knows just how to arrange to have people have a good time.

Ed Boothby, formerly of Prospect, and Peyton, but now of Ashland, was here for dinner Friday on his way up to their home, north of Ashland, with his brother's horses to feed, from near Peyton as he, Percy Boothby, was about out of hay. In fact, hay is a cash article anywhere in the hills now. This morning (Saturday) there was two ears of hay went up to Derby, one for John Allen and the other for Jeff Brophy, and this morning two men were in town handling hay for sale.

Miss Lee Middlebush of Trail came out on the car Friday morning and took the Eagle Point-Perist-ster for her home. She had been to Jacksonville to visit her sister, Mrs. Strong.

N. Gorman and wife were in town Friday getting supplies from our merchants.

E. A. Hildroth and Jeff Brophy were passengers on the P. & E., and so was John Pappafotis, a traveling salesman on his way to Butte Falls.

C. H. Wetters and wife, a son-in-law of Mrs. F. M. Stewart, from Spokane, Wash., are here visiting her mother and step-father.

Glen Terrell of Brownboro was here for dinner Saturday on his way to Jacksonville to play basketball with the Eagle Point team vs. Jacksonville tonight.

C. E. Clark, our meat market man, has added to his meat business a full line of bakery goods, such as bread, cookies, etc., and has given me his subscription to The Daily Mail Tribune. We speak for him a lively business.

In addition to Messrs. James Owens and C. E. Clark, C. R. McIntosh has subscribed and Joe Norman has paid up his subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune.

With the Fingers! Says Corns Lift Out Without Any Pain

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quart of an ounce of freezone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This new drug is an ether compound, and while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heeled footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.
