

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The Valley View Telephone Company has finished connecting its system from the Wreath ranch to Eagle Point north of town. About seven miles of wire have been strung, the improvement costing $400. It is known as line No. 18, with eight subscribers to date with more to follow.

Charles A. Branin of Portland, traffic manager of the Associated press in Ashland on Wednesday visiting his cousin, Frank Shinn and also attending to business matters connected with the Premier news-gathering bureau of which he is a most lively and genial representative.

Although Ashland is a dry town it is not backing any "dry fish" propositions as printed in these columns. What was written was "dry fresh" process as applied to preserving fruits and vegetables under a new and distinct method.

Jno. R. Cadwell, of Morrisonville, Wis., was here early in the week, accompanied by his family, visiting the family of Councilman W. W. Cadwell. The men are cousins. The visitor continued their trip down into California on a tour which includes sight-seeing throughout the Pacific coast territory.

The local committee of the Tri-State Good Roads Association, which is assisting in the campaign for the big bond issue in behalf of improved highways consists of Bert R. Greer, Charles B. Wolf and Austin Chisholm.

George Miller is recovering from a case of blood poisoning which for a time assumed dangerous proportions. An injured thumb started the complications.

Miss Georgia Kahler, of Taconna, has established a record in typewriting, having averaged more than 60 words per minute for a quarter of an hour, without a single error. She is 17 years old and a graduate in national typewriting honors from the senior class Stadium high school in Taconna.

Even filibustering tactics in the U. S. Senate has not served the purpose of giving an impetus to enlistments for either army or navy here. A recruiting officer from Medford has been in Ashland this week but without results. A bulletin in the post-office placards an appeal for enlistments through official channels.

D. B. Grant, of Portland, former Ashland business man has been in the city this week renewing many old-time acquaintances. He now represents the Reliance Life Insurance Co., of Pittsburg, Pa.

Mrs. Mary Tollett, of Thornton, Wash., who has been here this winter visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Mashburn, was removed to the Granite City hospital. Her condition is progressing favorably.

Dr. Nellie Anderson, partner of Dr. Bertha Sawyer in the practice of osteopathy, has gone to McMinnville, where she will open an office.

H. G. Enders returned early in the week from California, accompanied by H. N. Baughman, of San Francisco, who will be the new manager of the shoe department in the Enders department store.

Ashland Butte Lodge No. 1223 Loyal Order of Moose will elect officers at its regular meeting Monday, March 12, following by refreshments and smoker.

F. J. Porter, Southern Pacific employe, has purchased of Elder T. J. Bunch, the property near the Adventist church and is already in possession. The home is a new and modern bungalow. The Beaver Realty Co. negotiated the sale. Elder Bunch now resides at Boise, Idaho.

The matter of securing a new Southern Pacific station building for Ashland will be made a special order of business at a joint meeting of the Women's Civic Improvement Club, the city council and the Commercial club to be held at the city hall, Friday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ball who recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a reunion of near relatives, at Holden, Mo., are expected home this week, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Wenner, of this city, who went east to participate in the golden festivities.

Preliminary to the business session next Monday evening the Auxiliary club will attend a theatre party at the Vining, with Mesdames O. Bergner, H. Provost, N. G. Bates, J. P. Wolf and E. H. Bush as hostesses.

Funeral services of Pearl, the infant daughter of Mrs. Jane Dodge, were held on Thursday afternoon at the home of O. H. Johnson, father of Mrs. Dodge. Rev. H. A. Carahan spoke words of consolation to the sorrowing relatives, and many friends were present to add their measure of sympathy for the bereaved ones.

Members of the Ashland W. C. T. U. are invited to co-operate with kindred organizations at a reception to be held at Dr. T. G. Hieme's home in Medford, 16 Rose avenue, Friday evening of this week, the guests of honor being Jackson county home-coming legislators.

Henry C. Galey has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late George Van Tassel. The valuation of the estate is approximately $30,000 in realty and personal property. The whereabouts of several relatives of the deceased are gradually being determined.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dodge of this city were the guests on Wednesday evening at a dinner party given at Medford by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stone at their home 19 Rose avenue.

Samuel Pennington, former member of the local park board, has received his commission to inaugurate landscape architect features for the park surroundings of Grenada, the lively little burg over in Siskiyou county.

Undertaker Stoke was called to Central Point this week by the death of Isaac Thompson, who was a native of New York and 78 years of age. Funeral services will be held on Friday with interment at Central Point.

The Men's Social Service League struggled with the problem "What is the Matter with the World?" without arriving at definite conclusion. Rev. M. C. Reed of this city will preach a sermon with the same query for a text at Talent on Sunday morning next and at Central Point in the evening.

C. A. Harlburt, representing the Strong Manufacturing Co., of Winsted, Conn., dealers in casket hardware, was in the city on Thursday, interviewing the trade incident to his semi-annual canvass of coast territory.

George S. Howard, of Portland, who used to live here on Terrace Heights, and who managed Senator Cummins presidential-busted boom in Oregon, has dictated a telegram to the senator, upbraiding him for the part taken in the filibuster movement, adding that "Oregon friends await some statement from you that will relieve them of distress and embarrassment."

More meters are being requisitioned by the electric light department. Nearly 100 have been installed within the past six weeks, indicating a desire on the part of patrons of the system to avoid complications due to blown out fuses on flat rate schedules.

Another chapter in connection with the activities of the late springs commission was written on Monday evening, when the city council released the bondsmen of Messrs. Greer, Dodge and Jordan from any responsibility attaching to acts of the commission on and after Jan. 1, 1917.

The late Mrs. C. E. Tilton held a policy of $500 life insurance in the Women of Woodcraft, having been a member of Aetna circle of this city.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Mrs. Nellie Wattenburg, president of the Rebekah Assembly for Oregon, came in Saturday afternoon and presided at a special meeting of the order in our town that evening.

There was a very good attendance and the lodge members seemed to appreciate her visit. After the regular routine of business, light refreshments were served with coffee and about the approach of Sunday morning their homes. Mrs. Wattenburg remained with us until Monday morning, when she took the car for Medford. She expects to reach her home in Klamath Falls the last of this week.

Mike Hanley Jr., Charles Edler and Fred Frey, all of Lake Creek, came in Sunday evening for the night and asked for an early breakfast the next morning. They had brought out a band of two hundred head of cows, taking them to the Nedernyer ranch to be fed.

On Monday Fred McPherson passed through here with another drove of cattle on the way to the Hanley ranch to be fed. The past winter has proven to be a hard winter for the stock men, as they have had to feed so long that many of them have had to buy hay to keep their stock alive. And many of the stock men along and on the north side of the P. & E. have shipped hay in, driving their stock as near the Derby depot as they can get feeding places.

Tuesday there was a carload of hay came in to Eagle Point for John Thompson of Climax, and he had a load of it taken to the old Bybee place on Antelope creek to feed his sheep that night. He brought his band out to San Coy's to feed. There was another part of a carload of hay taken on up to Derby, but I did not learn who it was for. Some of those who are compelled to buy hay are paying as high as twenty dollars a ton for it and about all of the hay in this section has been bought up that way on the market.

Mrs. Thessier, who has had charge of the primary department of our school for the past two terms has resigned and she and her son, Walter, started for her new field in Canada where she has a school engaged for ten months. The school board have employed Mrs. W. O. Wheeler, wife of the principal of our school to teach the rest of the term. She was to have commenced last Monday, but the powers that be thought it best to fumigate the primary room, as it was discovered last Friday that the teacher and her son had what they call "Pink Eye," so instead of taking any chances on having the disease spread, decided to have the room fumigated on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wetters of Spokane, who have been here visiting Mrs. Wetters' mother, Mrs. F. M. Stewart, started for their home Tuesday. Work Pool was a business caller in our town Monday, and so was James Owens. He was here as a member of the board to examine the affairs of the First State Bank of Eagle Point, and while here for dinner he said that they found the bank in a very healthy and prosperous condition and that the deposits were greater than last year and that its management was O. K.

Henry Trusty, the mail contractor and carrier from here to Persist was so much indisposed Monday morning that he employed Jerry Lewis to drive the stage that trip. He made the trip all right, but this Wednesday morning he was so greatly improved that he thought he could stand the trip.

Our meat and bakery man, Carly Clark, has established new standard scales and put up a new meat sign over the door of his shop.

Thomas Stanley and Guy Prekret were business callers in our town Tuesday, and so was A. G. Bishop, one of our leading orchardists. He was trying to find a way to hitch three horses abreast to a wagon, with a tongue in it, so as to have each one do his part. He has a quantity of oil to haul from the railroad for smudging purposes.

Our depot agent, Amos Ayres, has been furnishing Irvin Daley with a fine lot of finishing lumber for his house that he is building in the Lake Creek country.

W. Hart Hamilton has rented a part of his farm to Sherman Wooley to be put in corn, and he will live in the house now occupied by Frank Abbott, and Frank will move into the house built some time ago by Mr. Lake. He has John W. Smith, our leading carpenter, putting an addition of two rooms and otherwise improving the place. Mr. Hart has purchased about a dozen cows and thinks of going into the dairy business on a limited scale.

Among the passengers on the east bound train Tuesday were Otis Hubbard, of Derby; Robert Lewis, of Persist; Miss Kay Kingaid of Prospect and John Wingham of Elk creek (Trail). Miss Kingaid was returning home from Applegate, where she has just closed a six month's term of school.

Mrs. Amos Ayres, the wife of our depot agent, who has been visiting relatives in Medford, has returned to her home again.

Since my last writing, Roy Ashpole, one of our hardware merchants, has renewed his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune, and John Howard has ordered The Daily Mail Tribune. He used to take the Weekly Mail Tribune and had it discontinued when he started back east and now that he has returned, wants The Daily Mail Tribune.

Joe Parker, former depot agent of Medford, but now of Portland, called for dinner Wednesday. He seemed glad to get back among his old friends again.

Since writing the foregoing, Art Smith, who owns and operates a farm on Big Stickey has called for dinner and paid a year's subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort. When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, neuralgia, croup, stiff neck, asthma, bronchitis, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (if often prevented pneumonia). It is always dependable.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair. You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually. Says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied. Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful. This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days. This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
