

CLUB PLANS TO EXHIBIT PAINTINGS OF MISS ROBINSON

The Greater Medford club has a rare treat in store for the public in the near future in the way of an exhibit of the latest paintings of Miss Dorland Regina Robinson.

Those who were fortunate enough to see the first exhibit of the remarkable work of our young southern Oregon artist held about a year ago under the club's auspices will surely look forward to this promised treat with anticipations of real pleasure.

The paintings which are to be shown are now on exhibition in the Crawford studio at Burlingame, California. The collection has attracted a great deal of attention and very favorable and flattering notice. The Burlingame Advance referring in a recent issue to the paintings on exhibition, says: "The work of this artist shows great genius for analysis and characterization." In addition to this encouraging recognition Miss Robinson's work recently received enthusiastic appreciation by art critics in Portland and San Francisco, where it has been placed on exhibition. Miss Robinson is now at Burlingame executing a number of commissions for portraits. It is hoped, however, that she will complete her work there in time to be here when the club gives the exhibit.

In connection with the exhibit a musical program of unusual attractiveness will be offered. Miss Adele Brault, a recent comer from Portland, will appear as a singer for the first time in Medford. Miss Brault possesses a soprano voice of unusual charm and richness. Another feature which will enhance the pleasure of the afternoon will be the unique costuming of the young ladies who will assist in the serving of refreshments.

The exhibit will be given in the parlors of the Hotel Holland and the date will be announced in the near future.

The committees appointed are as follows:

NESBIT'S FLAG POEM MAKES HIT THROUGH NATION

The poem, "Your Flag and My Flag," appearing on the first page of The Mail Tribune today is hailed by many eastern critics and admirers as a new national anthem. The simple, stirring verses are now sweeping the country and one enthusiastic admirer, writing the Editor and Publisher, announces them the best expression of American sentiment since Drake wrote his famous poem, beginning "When Freedom from her mountain heights."

No poem in recent years has so thoroughly taken hold of the American people.

SPECIAL PROGRAM GIVEN BY PUPILS OF WASHINGTON

Washington Parent-Teachers circle met Friday, March 23, with a splendid program by the "teachers." It is not strange to think they would put on a strong program, but to think it possible on Friday, the 23rd.

The early part of the program consisted of business incidental to any successful organization. Mrs. Fred Mears is the president of this circle.

Miss Cox acted as temporary chairman and spoke briefly on the accomplishments of the circle in bringing things to pass. It will stand all patrons in hand to visit this circle often, as they have much talent and real leadership.

The little tots of the third and fourth grades sang a song that was happily received. Mr. Cramer followed with an instrumental solo.

Miss Porter's selections in illustrating her subject, "Teaching Poems to Children," were of an appealing nature such as "Little Boy Blue," "Wynken, Blynken and Nod," etc. A solo by Miss French, our music director in the Medford schools, always pleases her audience.

Mrs. Daily and Miss Hoffman, spoke on the subject, "What Teachers May Reasonably Expect From Parents," they brought some valuable ideas to the parents.

Miss Adele Brault rendered a pleasing vocal solo.

Miss Van Meter's reading was one of unusual interest to parents. A piano solo by Miss Parneker showed rare ability.

"A Stunt" by Misses Fielder, Barbee, Gould, Parneker and Hermonson, were a nonplus, hence it was as represented.

Prof. Hillis gave a strong talk on "Why Children Fail in Arithmetic and Spelling." His talks are always of a practical and pleasing nature. He gave reasons why they fail, and illustrated it by charts made from two years of observations. One reason for children in the fifth and sixth grades failing is the change of text books and the children are slow to change the old order of thinking and working.

The committee in charge served refreshments and a pleasant social hour was spent.

April meeting will be "Children's Day," or "Pupil's Day."

Music—Mrs. Lange.

Costuming—Chairman, Mrs. Brackinreed, Albert W. Clarke, Elizabeth Putnam, G. T. Heine.

PARENTS FAVOR SPECIAL COURSES, PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The following resolutions were adopted by the Roosevelt Parent-Teachers Association at their regular monthly meeting:

"Be it resolved by the Roosevelt Parent-Teachers Association that we express our appreciation of the earnest efforts made by the superintendent of our city schools, V. Melde Hillis, to enhance and enrich the course of instruction heretofore followed by the addition of special courses in music, art, physical training, and teachers' training, which we believe have proved in practice to be very beneficial to our children and we earnestly request the school board of district 49 to allow these courses to be continued.

"Be it further resolved, that we also value very highly the benefit to our children from the courses now followed in manual training, domestic science and domestic art, and that we respectfully urge that these courses be continued.

Resolved further that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and a copy thereof presented to the school board of district 49, signed by the president and secretary of this association on its behalf and that copies be also furnished to the newspapers of this city.

MRS. MADDOX, President.
MISS JEFFREY, Secretary.

The Tri-State Good Roads mass meeting held Friday evening at the Commercial club rooms was attended by a large number of representative citizens who entered into the spirit of the business for which they assembled with commendable enthusiasm.

The meeting was called for the purpose of formulating plans for providing entertainment for the attendance of delegates to the Tri-State Good Roads congress to be held in this city on May 16 and 17.

On the question as to whether or not those present endorsed the Tri-State Good Roads association's purpose to hold the proposed fourth annual congress in this city at that time the vote was enthusiastically unanimous.

On the promise of adequate support for the congress in all its features, President Westerlund was on motion instructed to appoint the necessary committees to take care of each feature of the program. These committees will be appointed and announced at a later date.

It was tentatively agreed to limit the scope of the work of this congress to Benton, Linn, Lane, Douglas, Coos, Curry, Josephine, Jackson and Klamath counties, known as the western district, over which Commissioner Adams will have personal supervision. The committee appointed to attend the Roseburg Good Roads meeting consist of W. H. Gore, E. M. Brown, Delroy Getchell, W. C. Loeffer, Geo. T. Collins, H. L. Walter, Roger Bennett, John W. DRAMA LEAGUE TO PRODUCE THREE PLAYS ON FRIDAY

The Medford center of the Drama league announces the public production of three one-act plays in St. Mark's Hall on Friday evening, March 30 at 8 o'clock.

The cast of the first play, which is Lord Dunsany's "The Lost Silk Hat," includes Messrs. Hamill, Alfred Carpenter, Murdock, Carroll Carpenter and Hill. This comedy is one of the best for amateurs and the casting has been unusually fortunate.

Mrs. Arnold Seudder and Mr. S. V. Beckwith will present Alfred Sutor's "Open Door."

Mrs. F. H. Cowles and Fritz Newhall will be seen in "Just as Well," by Hartley Manners.

The Amateur Play Committee, which has charge of the production is made up of Mrs. Frank Preston, chairman; Mrs. P. W. Hamill, Miss Bullis, Miss Hubbard and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter. It is the aim of this committee to give at least one performance each year. In larger circles plays are produced about once in six weeks, and this policy has been the means of increasing the interest in the little theatres, which are rapidly springing up all over the country and which have been found to have a very decided effect upon the legitimate drama.

Tickets are on sale at Brown's and the Medford Book Store, at 50c each.

J. F. Sankey of Portland is in the city for a few days transacting business.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO AID WAR ORPHANS

A movement has been started in the city schools by Mrs. Alan Brackinreed to promote the forming of clubs among the children in connection with the work of the local branch of the American Society for the Relief of French War Orphans. The work undertaken is in line with that being carried out in the public schools generally throughout the country.

Mrs. Brackinreed addressed the children in the various schools during the week, explaining the work of the society and the pressing needs of the French people, laying stress upon the debt of gratitude which this country owes to France for assistance rendered during the Revolutionary war.

A lively interest in the work was awakened among the pupils, and gratifying results are looked for.

SOIL TILLAGE EXPERT LECTURES MONDAY EVENING

W. H. Campbell, for the past twenty years one of the leading authorities in America on soil tillage, will lecture at the armory in Medford next Monday night. Mr. Campbell will discuss the most important principles involved in farming in regions where the rainfall is not sufficient to produce maximum crops by the usual methods of farming. His lecture will be of special interest and value to those who do not have irrigation. It will, however, be of value to all farmers, as many of the subjects discussed are fundamental in all types of farming. Mr. Campbell's lecture will be a startling one to many, as his methods of dry farming differ radically in some respects from those commonly practiced.

Mr. Campbell's work has been carried on principally in the driest regions immediately east of the Rocky mountains. There he has produced startling results and has had a notable influence on methods of dry farming.

He is the inventor of the surface packer, an implement which is now extensively used on the loose, dry

LINCOLN SCHOOL CLOSED BY MEASLES

Owing to the rapid spread of measles during the past week, the local board of health have deemed it advisable to close the Lincoln school for a period of two weeks.

It is requested that during that period, children who have been attending this school shall remain away from the play grounds of the other schools of the city. Also, it is requested that they do not visit the public library, moving picture theaters, churches, Sunday schools or any indoor gatherings.

It is hoped that parents will cooperate with the board of health in seeing that these requests are carried out.

Soils of the plains region. His lecture will deal primarily with methods of preparing and cultivating soils, and seeding. He places special stress on using small quantities of seed, recommending in some cases as low as 20 pounds of wheat per acre, and far less seed corn than is generally used.

While Mr. Campbell's lecture applies particularly to the loose mellow soils, many of his recommendations will also be of great value to farmers on our heavy soils.

Every rancher in this country should make a special effort to attend this lecture.

Chalmers 7-Passenger Touring Car
Price $1350 Detroit

Choose a Chalmers as You Do a Watch

Compare two watches. They may look exactly alike. They may be equal in diameter and thickness. They may weigh the same. Perhaps your eye can't distinguish any difference between the gold in the two. One may seem to keep as good time as the other.

Big Differences There

Yet there may be a vast difference. One may be a Tiffany Swiss and the other a non-descript. If you trust only to an off hand examination you may make a bad mistake in your choice.

True of Automobiles

The same is true of automobiles. Some other car may closely resemble a Chalmers. It may weigh about the same. Have about the same wheel base. The paint may look more or less alike—at first glance.

Yet there may be a vast difference. Differences you can discover only by the closest scrutiny and comparison.

Go Deep

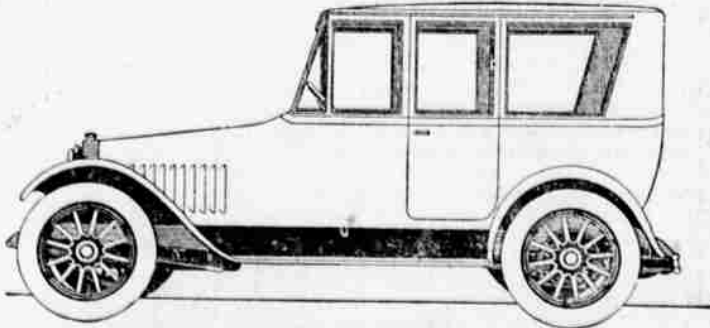

If you are to get the correct idea of the Chalmers, you must go beneath the surface. There the big, important differences lie. Differences in materials. Differences in methods of building. Differences in quality of workmanship.

To look only at the exterior of the Chalmers you wouldn't discover that the gears and shafts of the transmission are of crucible nickel steel, case hardened and carefully heat treated.

All of the above means quality—the kind of quality you need in the car you buy, and the kind of quality you GET in the Chalmers.
