WASHINGTON, April 7.—Plans for financing the war were discussed today by Secretary McAdoo with members of the house ways and means committee and with Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee.

The $3,400,000,000 already asked for the army and navy is expected to suffice, in addition to the regular appropriation bills until June 30, 1918.

The step considered most important now is the extension of an immense credit to the entente allies—probably at least $2,000,000,000—as an indication that the nation is going into the war to the limit with the resources most readily available.

Bonds under such plan would be issued to take over bonds of the allies, making them in effect security for those obligations. Most of the money derived from such bonds, it is expected, would be spent in the United States.

On the question of finances leaders feel that the burden of the war should be about equally divided between taxation and bond issues.

TWO BILLION LOAN TO BE MADE ALLIES BY UNITED STATES

BOPP TELEPHONES WILL SURRENDER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Franz Bopp, former German consul general under prison sentence for violating American neutrality, telephoned to federal authorities here today from St. Helena, Cal., that he was on his way to surrender. A few minutes previously federal agents announced he was a fugitive, believing he was heading for the Mexican border.

RAIDERS IN ATLANTIC

The first report came from Nantucket lights, which saw a strange ship passing west at 7:20 o'clock this morning and promptly reported it to the Boston navy yards and the navy department. Destroyer flotillas are at sea in the vicinity and presumably they heard the wireless warning, which swept the coast line and set out to locate the mysterious craft. Meanwhile shipping was warned not to venture out.

Soon after a report of a raider off the Virginia Capes came from Hampton Roads where shipping also was held in port, while armed afloat went to sea to investigate.

Navy officials expect many reports of raiders while the sea coast is at high tension and many such probably will turn out to be unoffending tramps.

No precautions are being overlooked, however, and the naval patrol is on the alert to examine all strange ships.

Bayard and Valerie Getchell, small children of Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell, will entertain a few of their friends to roll Easter eggs on the lawn Sunday afternoon. This is an annual custom. Mothers of the children are invited to tea.

Mrs. W. F. Holt and daughter of Los Angeles is the guests of her cousin, Miss Susan Deuel.

BLUE LEDGE TO SHIP FOURTH CAR OF ORE MONDAY

Superintendent F. W. Carnahan of the Blue Ledge mine is in the city arranging for the camp and feed for stock. He reports work in vigorous progress in the Blue Ledge and is adding men to the force as rapidly as he can profitably work on that property. He is getting the ore to the smelter as rapidly as possible. The fourth carload of rich ore will be shipped Monday from the Jacksonville terminus of the Bullis line.

The road from the mine to the tram dump is rapidly improving since the snow melted. As many teams as can be engaged are busy hauling the ore to the railroad. Feed has been so short in supply lately that teamsters have hesitated to undertake the work.

The superintendent has no word from the east concerning the success or failure of the John F. Cowan deal to buy the mine. The latter's option period terminated on March 31.

GRANTS PASS TO HEAR CONCERT HERE

A block of seats have been ordered by the people of Grants Pass for the Symphony orchestra, which takes place at the Medford Natatorium Tuesday, April 17th. Every town in the Rogue River valley is now included in the sale of seats for this unusual attraction. It is a foregone conclusion that every town in the valley will be well represented. Reports coming in from the various cities where the New York Symphony orchestra is appearing, gives us fresh evidence of the rare treat which is in store for us on April 17th when we will have the opportunity of hearing this magnificent organization of 90 musicians in addition to Efreu Zumbalist, one of the world's greatest violinists, who will play in the Medford concert a concerto by Fagini, supposed to be the most difficult composition ever written for the violin.

ence she was in the passenger trade between Shanghai and Vladivostok. She is a new, speedy ship, built at the German works or Schichau. She was taken to Tsing Eao and was overhauled and could do better than seventeen knots. She was equipped with guns, manned by a German crew. The old German gunboat Cormoran was being dismantled at Tsing Tao and the captain and most of her crew were transferred to the newly converted auxiliary cruiser. She was taken the first night of the war and was the first prize of the Emden. The Russians claim she had been taken inside of territorial waters of Japan, which was prior to Japan's entering hostilities.
