Dr. George Reber of the University of Oregon delivered an interesting lecture at the public library Saturday evening upon the Russian revolution and the new democracy. He traced the Russian revolution from its source, and declared that while reaction might follow, the nation would never go back to where it was under the bureaucracy. He contrasted the ideas of western and eastern Europe showing that with the impractical mystical nature of the Slav, who had never experienced feudalism or the revolution, and was still in the patriarchal age with all the simplicity and brotherly love of a frontiersman, such a government as that of the United States was an impossibility. He predicted that Russia would work out her own salvation along purely Slav lines and probably add much to the world thereby.

Miss Jennie Hunter, physical training instructor, and Miss Eileen French, music instructor, will be in charge. All seats are 25 cents.

The first part of the entertainment will consist of fourteen numbers, including a drill with illuminated Indian clubs. The second part will consist of the presentation by high school students of the operetta, "Hiawatha's Childhood."

WANT MEDFORD YOUNG TO ENLIST AT ONCE

Vernon Vawter received the following telegram yesterday from Mr. Blackburn of Portland which is self-explanatory:

Portland, Ore., Apr. 14, 1917. Vernon H. Vawter, Medford, Ore.

At instance H. H. Ward, president Oregon Patriotic Service League I am appealing to you to arouse patriotism of young men of Medford and vicinity to point of enlisting in the United States navy first line of defense period.

Medford has not responded to the president's call for young men as well as other cities of Oregon and I request your efforts to arouse red blooded young men to their duty if there are any such in Medford.

Navy representative Palm block will arrange transportation. These young men are needed immediately. BLACKBURN.

HELLO GIRLS OFF TO JOIN NAVY

The telephone-using public of Medford and vicinity is asked to be as patient as possible and to try and keep its temper within the next week or ten days, as the local exchange will probably be more or less inefficient due to the fact that one-half of the operating force has gone to naval reserve duty at the Paget Sound navy yard. Their places have been filled, but it will be some time before the usual efficiency of service will be regained.

"We ask for patience on the part of telephone users," said Captain A. J. Vance, manager of the company, Monday. It would hurt the efficiency of any business institution to have half its working force taken away at practically a moment's notice. The naval reserve girls' positions have all been filled, but the new incumbents are not all experienced."

AUTOS COLLIDE, OCCUPANTS UNHURT

The automobiles driven by T. C. Norris of Medford and S. E. Conatser of Central Point, collided at the intersection of Main and Central late Sunday night. Each was badly damaged but none of the occupants was injured. Mr. Norris who hauls the mails between the depots and the postoffice, puts all blame for the collision on Conatser, claiming that he had the right of way and that Conatser was violating the city and state auto traffic regulations in not turning properly at the corner. Norris threatens to cause the arrest of Conatser.

Four of the Finest Each year many thousands of visitors—sometimes hundreds in one day—are ushered through the spotlessly clean modern factories of the Postum Cereal Company, and are made acquainted, through the famous "open door" policy, with the methods used in producing Postum . . . Instant Postum Grape-Nuts and Post Toasties No other food is quite so fine for building brain and brawn as Grape Nuts. No other drink quite so excellent for the relief of harassed "coffee nerves" as Postum. No other cereal breakfast food quite so delicious and satisfying as Post Toasties. The trip through the plant is interesting. You are invited to take it when you come to Battle Creek. It conveys an idea of the immensity of the pure food movement. Competent guides are always in attendance. Postum Cereal Company, Battle Creek, Mich.
