The Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. R. C. Minear on North Ivy street, last Friday afternoon. A large attendance was present. Mrs. C. A. Meeker had charge of the program. The meeting was opened by instrumental music by Mrs. Anderson. Instead of carrying out the regular program, the afternoon was given over to Mrs. E. L. Miller of Pasadena, Cal., field worker in western states, who gave a very interesting talk on home mission work. Mrs. Kahler, Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. Perkins of Central Point were present. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses, Mrs. Minear, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Manning.

The Wednesday Study club met at the library Wednesday afternoon, the subject of the afternoon being "Siberia." The members responded to roll call by giving facts regarding Siberia. Mrs. Van Seoy read a paper on the "Expansion of Russia to the East," and Mrs. Page told of the "Conquest of Siberia." A magazine article on "The Swift Success of the Russian Revolution," from Current Opinion, was read by Mrs. Boggs. It was voted to give $6 to the Greater Medford club for patriotic purposes, and $6 was donated to the Red Cross society of Medford. The ladies decided to spend each Wednesday during the summer months aiding the Red Cross work.

The Cheerful Workers of the M. E. church South gave a literary program in the church Thursday evening. The program was as follows: Song, "Greetings"; song, "Dusting"; recitation, Lucile Ralston; song, "The Nation's Jubilee"; recitation, "Baby's Logic," Eva Vaughn; song, "Kissing Time," by six girls; recitation, Audrey Roberts; song by six girls; recitation, "A Word to Mothers," Rose Billings; prayer song by the girls. At the close of the program refreshments were served in the basement by Mrs. W. C. Rice and Mrs. Johann Billings. The color scheme of pink, green and red was used.

A very pretty card party was given at the Masonic hall Wednesday evening by the auxiliary social committee of the O. E. S. The hall was decorated for the occasion with patriotic colors. Honors for the evening fell to Mrs. H. D. Corlies and Mr. Swan for 500 and Mrs. G. L. Schermerhorn and Mr. Hutchinson for bridge. The committee in charge of the evening was Mesdames Young (chairman), Kidd, Wilson, White, Hargrave, Weeks, Weising, Lawrence, McGowan, Platt, Wagner, Merrick, Hutchinson and O'Brian; Messrs. Lawrence, Gates, Garnett, Cooley and Van Wanning.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Homer, 727 South Central avenue, the W. C. T. U. will give a get-together social and literary program. The members and friends are cordially invited. A splendid good time is promised. Mrs. Riley D. Henson has charge of the program.

Tuesday night was the social night of Olive Rebekah lodge, and as usual everybody enjoyed themselves. After a short program games were played until the committee announced that refreshments were ready in the banquet room.

The Monday club was entertained by Mrs. Lee Root at her home Monday.

The second annual Parish dinner of St. Mark's church will be given Monday evening, April 23, at St. Mark's hall to all members and supporters of the church, who are cordially invited.

The regular home-coming of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will be held at the church Wednesday afternoon. A large attendance is desired. All ladies having penny slips are requested to return them at this time.

The St. Mark's Guild will give a cafeteria luncheon next Thursday for the members of the guild, after which there will be election of officers for the coming year.

Miss Lorena Stratton will entertain with a 7 o'clock dinner this evening for a few friends at her country home. After dinner cards will be enjoyed.

Mrs. George O'Brian was hostess to the Friday Evening club at her home on West Jackson street Friday evening.

Miss Myrie Davis entertained this afternoon at her home on North Peach street for the Serious Ten club.

A decided success in every sense of the word was the Elks' tennis dance which occurred Friday evening. This being the first tennis party of the season, no efforts were spared to carry out the summery "atmosphere." The spacious ball room was tastefully decorated with scores of brightly colored Japanese lanterns and parasols. Tennis racquets and nets were interspersed about the hall with numerous American flags of various sizes. The balcony presented a scene from a summer garden. White lattice work units were used, being entwined with purple wisteria, through which a big yellow moon gleamed brightly. An excellent six-piece orchestra under the direction of Clyde Hazelrigg supplied "tangful" music for the dancers, most of whom were attired in tennis apparel. Electric fans cooled the air, while plenty of punch provided a speedy relief for the thirsty. An 11 o'clock ceremony was a feature of the evening. The following committee were in charge of the affair: George Codding, Carl Tengwald, Frank Ray, Horace Bromley and Frank Coleman.

The Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs luncheon will be held in the tea garden of the Multnomah hotel at Portland, Or., on Saturday, April 28, at 12 o'clock.

The entire program will be devoted to "Patriotism." Delegates to the recent council meeting of the general federation in New Orleans will present the plans for patriotic service determined upon by the council. Each club in the Federation is asked, if possible, to send a representative. By order of the president, every one is asked to make reservation early as possible. Fifty cents per plate. Mrs. J. A. Pettit is corresponding secretary, 874 E. Taylor street, Portland. Any member of the Greater Medford club wishing to attend this luncheon can be accredited by communicating with Mrs. C. L. Schieffelin.

The Drama league will give another one of its enjoyable readings Monday, April 23, at 7:30 o'clock, at the public library. John Galsworthy's play, "Justice," will be read by members of the College Women's club. The characters will be represented by the following: Mesdames L. E. Williams, Harrison, West, E. E. Kelly, Olen Arnsperger, R. B. Hammond, O. L. Davidson, James Campbell, M. E. Root, Misses Julia Hopper and Bess Kentner, with Miss Cox as stage director. These readings are open to the public and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of this opportunity.

The Parent-Teacher circle of the Lincoln school will meet at the school building Friday afternoon, April 27. During the business meeting officers for the year will be nominated. Dr. S. A. Lockwood will speak about contagious diseases, telling how to detect the symptoms one from the other. Professor Hillis will give his lecture illustrated with chart. A musical number will be given by one of the grades. An invitation is given for all to attend, as this will be the last program to be given this year.

FAIR WEATHER FOR WEEK IN NORTHWEST

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Sunday issued by the weather bureau today are:

Pacific states: Generally fair except for occasional showers along the north Pacific coast; temperatures somewhat below seasonal average.

WILL PARRY DYING FROM OPERATION

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Will H. Parry of Seattle, Wash., vice-chairman of the federal trade commission, was at death's door today, the result of an operation for gall stones. His physicians doubted that he would live through the day.

SHOPPERS SNAPPED ON FIFTH AVE.

NEW YORK, April 21.—What so-called prominent women are now wearing on their shopping tours indicates a conservatism in dress which is quite in harmony with the serious spirit of the times.

Portugal Faces Cabinet Crisis

LISBON, April 21.—Antonio J. Almeida, president of the council, today presented to Bernardino Machado, the president of Portugal, the resignation of the entire cabinet. Premier Almeida's action followed an adverse vote in the chamber of deputies on the question of the government establishing a national economic council.

NORWEGIAN VICTIM OF GERMAN TORPEDO

LONDON, April 21.—A dispatch to the Central News from Copenhagen says an official Norwegian communication announces that the Begrengt has been sunk by a German submarine and that eight of the crew were killed.

It is also reported that the Norwegian steamer Worden, 766 tons gross, has been captured by the Germans and taken to Cuxhaven.

Miss Mary B. Snyder of Pittsburg and New York was shopping the same day garbed in the simplest but the most stunning of one-piece dresses.

Mrs. Mortimer L. Schiff was snapped the other day wearing one of the new belted, sleeveless, long loose capes. Her hat is built on the close fitting curves of the helmet worn by many European soldiers.

es. The "coat dress" had its fullness caught well to each side. With it was worn a square fur cape and a hat of most becoming curves.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt was out at the same hour wearing a conventional long coat out on the latest lines, that is with a rather full skirt confined by a narrow belt.

The Crown of Womanhood

"Uncared for hair cannot be beautiful. There is no part of the human makeup so revengeful as the hair. It cries out: Look at me, care for me, or I will disgrace you! Treat me with consideration and I will be a glory to you."

With the above words, Lillian Russell, an unquestioned authority on feminine attractiveness, places no uncertain value on nice hair as a beauty asset. Unkempt, uncared for hair not only cannot be attractive, but is actually a disgrace.

But why have ill-kept, untidy hair? By devoting a few moments regularly to brushing and intelligent application of NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE, the hair may be made to yield wonderful returns in increased personal charm.

Dandruff is the direct cause of more hair trouble than anything else. The hair becomes thin, harsh, uneven and falls out in quantities. It looks dead and lifeless; there is no luster. The scalp itches.

HERPICIDE will remove the dandruff which is causing all the trouble; clean the scalp, give the hair life, snap and luxuriance. The hair stops coming out, the itching ceases almost at once and withal there is a most gratifying sense of cleanliness. To the woman who wishes to make the most of nature's gifts by having fluffy, beautiful hair, NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE is a toilet necessity. It is exquisitely perfumed and is a delightful hair dressing.

In 50c and $1.00 sizes. At drug stores and toilet goods counters everywhere. Guaranteed by The Herpicide Co.

Applications at the better Barber Shops and Hair-Dressing Parlors. Send 10 cents for sample bottle and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. S, Detroit, Mich.
