On Wednesday with the spring sunshine a large crowd of ladies met at the First M. E. church for the homecoming of the ladies aid. The business session was followed by a pleasing entertainment, given by the Loyalty circle. The ladies were ushered in the church while the soft strains of an appropriate march was played by Mrs. Percy Wood.

A piano solo, "Blumenlied," by Jaeger was well rendered by Robert Rollins. A piano solo, "Traumeri," by Mrs. Wood. The circle presented a dramatization entitled "From the Cradle to the Grave." Mrs. McNary spoke very becomingly of each character while a quartette invisible, Mrs. W. H. Meeker, Mrs. Martin, Miss Armstrong and Mrs. Kerns, sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Baby Rolland Campbell represented the bud of womanhood and Nellie Glasecock as the next step, childhood. Mrs. Chas. Campbell as the young lady, Mrs. C. A. Meeker as the bride. Mrs. Glasecock, as the step on the balance. Mrs. Jacobs as the mother, Mrs. Daniels as the busy housewife, Mrs. Lawton as age creeps on, and Grandma Meeker as the last step.

Following the program the crowd assembled in the social hall which was beautifully decorated with blossoms and plants and was served to dainty and delicious refreshments while graphophone music was played. At the close, Mrs. Upton of Portland, an enthusiastic representative of the Louise home spoke to the ladies of the great work being done for girls not only in this state but California, Washington and Idaho. The Louise home, strictly nonsectarian, situated near Portland, is managed with the utmost care and those who are not connected with this wonderful work cannot have the clearest idea of just how the impossible is made possible.

Mrs. Upton is very capable for this work and is looking after and caring for hundreds of girls from ten to twenty years of age. Mrs. Hathaway of Ashland also spoke of this great work, and said Mrs. Upton had the hearty co-operation of all whom she came in contact.

The W. C. T. U. held a get-together social at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Lawton, 310 N. Bartlett street, Wednesday evening. A splendid literary program under the direction of Mrs. Riley D. Henson was rendered, as follows:

Song, "America."
Prayer by Mrs. J. W. McDonald, Bible lesson, 91st Psalm, Mrs. Rosa Ponting.
Song, "Greetings," by 6 girls.
Reading, "The Empty Nest," Miss Marie Seely.
Vocal solo, "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," Mrs. Kerns.
Recitation, "What the Temperance Cause Has Done for Me," Miss Lillian Caston.
Vocal solo, "Springtime," Miss Fidelas Moran.
Instrumental duet, Rose Billings and James Henson.
Instrumental solo, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," Miss Rose Billings.
Reading, Mrs. Etta Manning.
Vocal solo, "Swing Song," Miss Ruth Billings.
Song, "Working Together," by 6 girls.
Benediction, Rev. J. W. McDonald.
At the close of the program refreshments were served by Mrs. Henson, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Ponting, Misses McDonald and Sharpe. Forty were present.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet in the chapel of the church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Christie and Mrs. Dixon will be the hostesses. A report of the Presbyterian which was held at Roseburg last week will be given. All members and friends are cordially invited.

One of the most delightful surprises of the season was given last night at the home of Mrs. O. C. Purkeypile on Olson street. The occasion being a farewell to Misses Grace and Myrtle Purkeypile who leave soon with their parents to make their home near Portland. The girls had accepted an invitation to 6 o'clock dinner and upon returning home found themselves unexpected hostesses. The evening was spent in music, games and a few clever impersonations, after which dainty refreshments were served by Miss Myrl Davis, one of the instigators. Those enjoying the farewell were Miss Georgia Whillock, Wanita Carsterns, Junnita Crawford, Etta Grieve, Edna Marquis, Doris Layne, Myrtle and Grace Purkeypile and Myrl Davis. Messrs. Arthur Nordwick, Rolland Parker, Arthur Hughes, Thornton Gould, Nola Lindley, Ralph Balcom, Walter Marquis, Robert Kent, Boyce Slewing and Wesley McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Van R. Peirson entertained at dinner on the evening Damosch's symphony orchestra appeared in Medford. Their guests were Messrs. Langenus and DeBruschel, masters of the clarinet and oboe, now members of the New York orchestra. Mrs. Peirson's brother, Robert Willaman of St. Paul, is one of the only six graduate pupils Mr. Langenus has in the United States, having formerly achieved success in his native country, Belgium. After a four-course dinner, served with table decorations in yellow, Mr. Peirson gave his guests a short ride around the valley before leaving them at the natorium for the evening's concert.

The regular meeting of the Reames chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was held at the Masonic hall Wednesday and initiation a short but very enjoyable program was given. A colonial minuet was given by sixteen girls of Mrs. Hovions' class, Vocal solo, Mrs. Hall, and violin solo, Miss Florence Clark. The remainder of the evening was spent with dancing. The following committee was in charge: Mrs. J. F. Lawrence, chairman. Mesdames Burbridge, Lane, Carlies, Morris, Seyler, Soliss, Weissing, Witte, Clark and Miss King. Messrs. Woodford, Carlin, Lawrence, Corlies, Burbridge, Weissing, Morris and Witte.

On Wednesday p. m. the Progressive club were entertained by Mesdames Metz, Bohm and Bradbury, at the home of Mrs. Metz, on Bartlett street. After a pleasant social hour Miss Phillbrook gave a selection on the piano, also the hostess gave a guessing contest. Delicious refreshments were served, after which the visitors departed feeling they had spent a pleasant afternoon. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Roseberry on W. Palm street. Members and friends cordially invited.

The St. Marks guild gave a cafeteria luncheon Thursday for the members, after which a business meeting was held of which time the election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: Mrs. Roger Bennett, president; Mrs. R. D. Holke, vice president; Mrs. D. B. Russell, secretary, and Mrs. S. T. Richardson, treasurer.

Mrs. Preston left Sunday night for San Francisco, Calif., after spending a week here, the guest of Mrs. Lincoln McCormack. Mrs. Preston will return in a few weeks to spend the summer in Medford.

Wednesday evening the young ladies' class of the Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed a theatre party after which they went to the home of Miss Daisy Bain where refreshments were served.

The regular monthly meeting of the Greater Medford club will be held at the armory on Monday at 2:30. This is a very important meeting, as officers for the coming year will be elected. A full attendance is desired.

The Roosevelt Parent-Teachers' circle held its regular meeting Friday. Musical numbers by May Heath, Fay Fryear and Ruth Billings opened the program, and were much enjoyed. Mrs. Platt read an interesting paper on "Mothers," and Miss Worrell spoke of the continuation school for vacation, noting the practical and economical benefit to be derived from such a system of schools. Following these talks a social half hour was spent, during which refreshments were served. Mayor Gates then addressed the circle on "School and Civic Needs." His talk was plain, open and to the point. He considered thrift and economy in school matters from the broad perspective of the future life of the child, proving that in their perfected development lay our greatest asset as a nation and that this must be done through our public schools. Eliminating the word "exam" from our vocabularies we can do that which we will to do and the city of Medford can, if it will, make its public schools stand with the best in the nation. The circle heartily endorsed Mr. Gates, expressing their appreciation by a rising vote of thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meeker provided a very pleasant evening for the members of the choir of the Methodist church at their home Monday. Each guest came dressed to represent a song and much enjoyment was had in guessing the name of the song. A prize was given the one guessing the most, which was won by Miss Vera Roundtree. A musical contest was then had, Miss Matie Vroman being given the prize for this. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Steep, Mrs. VanSeoyoc, Mr. and Mrs. Edmeades, Mr. and Mrs. Cannady, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meeker, Dr. and Mrs. Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Lawton, Mrs. Homous, Mrs. Kerns, Mrs. Phillbrook, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Swindler, Miss Brooks, Miss Roundtree, Miss Barbee, Miss Danham, Miss Vroman, Nola Lindley, A. L. Vroman, Bernard Roberts and Dean Carder were among those present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Danrall and little daughter, Maxine, of Spokane, who have been spending the winter in Los Angeles, stopped over for a night and a day for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bellinger of So. Peach. They were old time friends of Mrs. Bellinger in Washington. Friday afternoon Mrs. Bellinger accompanied them to Rich for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arthurs. Mr. and Mrs. Danrall were perfectly delighted with the Rogue river valley.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Edward Steep, 210 Crater Lake avenue, Friday, May 4th, at 2:30 p. m. The study for the afternoon is "Heroism in Christian Missions," found in the fifth chapter of the text book. Mrs. Olen Arnsperger has charge of the program. Mrs. Kerns will lead the mystery box. All are invited to be present.

Miss Margaret Launspach of near Jacksonville was given a party in honor of her birthday last Saturday. Those present were Thelma McCoy, James Stover, Constance Bordwell, Ruth Loy, Catherine Wyszong, Gaynell Kelly, Ruth, and Gladly Minear. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Hines, Mrs. Herbert Launspach and Ruth Launspach.

It was the pleasure of the Tuesday afternoon sewing club to meet with Mrs. R. B. Hammond at her home Tuesday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with sewing and conversation. The guests present were Mrs. Blain Klum, Mrs. Wm. Lydiard, Mrs. Otto Klum, Mrs. Bardette Dodge, Mrs. Olen Arnsperger, Miss Laura Treichler and Miss Helen Dahl.

Mrs. Debroy Getchett was a Saturday luncheon hostess, honoring Mrs. Chas. Chadwick of Chicago, who is a guest in the valley for a few weeks. The luncheon table was lovely with early spring flowers. Covers were laid for eight.

OREGON ON THE MAPS OF NATIONAL PARKS
SPOKANE, Wash., April 27.—W. G. Edens, of Chicago, was re-elected president of the National Parks Highway association at the third annual convention today.
The delegates voted to include Oregon in the sisterhood of state sponsoring the National Parks highway. This action includes the extension of the highway from Puget Sound, the present western terminus, to take in the Pacific highway, from Blaine to Portland and the Columbia highway, east from Portland along the Columbia river. Oregon will contribute to the funds of the association this year and will enter upon full membership next year when the highways in which it is directly interested are included in the new maps.

E. WALKER GETS JOB AS DEPUTY
J. W. Driscoll, deputy fish and game warden for this district No. 2, has resigned to take up other work at Klamath Falls, May 1st, and Ed Walker, who has been a deputy under Mr. Driscoll, has been promoted to fill the vacancy. Both of these men have proven very valuable to the service. Mr. Driscoll will be missed by sportsmen and people generally, all of whom will be glad to learn of Mr. Walker's promotion.

Ralph Ewing has been appointed a deputy warden to have charge of the screen work in irrigation ditches in this part of the state. It is hoped that this work will be pushed rapidly now and the toll of young trout through the irrigation ditches will be stopped to a great extent this spring. Mr. Ewing also has the same power as any other deputy to make arrests for violations of the fish and game laws.
Owing to the fact that license money is going in so slowly and the commission is short of funds no other deputies will be put on now.
