TWO INDICTMENTS BY GRAND JURY

The May term of the grand jury convened Monday morning and got down to business quickly. Indictments were returned Monday against Irving Oehler, alias E. Cravencore, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and Lloyd Parker for larceny from a dwelling.

Oehler was captured several weeks ago when following his passing of worthless checks on various Medford merchants, he was fleeing from the city in a car which he purchased from C. E. Gates and paid for with a worthless check.

He was caught in the Siskiyou by Sheriff Jennings when his auto became stalled in the mud. His wife, a former Medford girl whose maiden name was Nan Smith, was arrested with Oehler, but was later released on small bail, on recommendation of County Prosecutor Rohbers.

She was more wanted as a possible witness against Oehler. It is said that Oehler will plead guilty when his case comes to trial.

Parker is accused of having stolen a suit case full of clothing from the Depot hotel at Ashland some time ago.

Six other cases are being considered by the grand jury, including the cases against Conley and Slide, the Phoenix postoffice burglary suspects. Among the other cases are three criminal assault cases, including one from Gold Hill and another from the Lake Creek district.

That is the purpose of the liberty loan and through subscribing to the loan every citizen will do his bit toward hurrying things along and shortening the most terrible war in all history."

FRENCH STEAMER COLBERT IS SUNK

PARIS, May 21.—The French steamer Colbert, which was torpedoed in the Mediterranean on April 30, was on her way to Salonika when she was sunk. The ship was struck by a torpedo below the water line and the engine room was immediately flooded.

There was no sign of a submarine as the ship began to sink rapidly by the stern and the lifeboats were launched. The Colbert sank in five minutes and after she had disappeared the submarine emerged and, as is their custom, her commander asked the name, description and destination of her victim.

Before he could get his information a French patrol boat appeared and opened fire. After four shots had been fired the U-boat submerged just as a seaplane appeared on the horizon.

Sufferings Cured by Medicine Recommended by Sister-in-law.

One day when I was feeling unusually bad my sister-in-law came in and said, 'I wish you would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.' So I began taking it and I am now in good health and am cured. I took the Compound three times a day after meals, and on retiring at night. I always keep a bottle in the house."—Mrs. L. N. BURNHAM, 295 South St., Jamaica, N. Y.
