

SOCIETY

An engagement that is of interest to a number of Medford people as well as Ashland friends, is that of Miss Helen Mae Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott of Portland, who formerly resided in Ashland, to Mr. Mark Slocum of Marshfield, Ore. Mr. Slocum is formerly of New York city, but came west to engage in business with his uncle at Marshfield. The date of the wedding has not been definitely set, but will be some time the latter part of June. Miss Scott has many acquaintances in Medford and Ashland who will be surprised to hear of her engagement. In the meantime the bride-to-be will make an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. A. Martin at Marshfield.

Vernor Garrett has returned home to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerge Garrett, after being graduated from the University of California May 17. He attended the University of Oregon three years and transferred to the the University of California for his senior year. Mr. Garrett will resume his duties with the Rothschild Importing and Exporting house of San Francisco about June 1, where he will assist in the foreign department until called to the officers' training camp at Presidio.

Next Monday and Tuesday from 2 to 5 o'clock the industrial art exhibit will be held at the high school building under the direction of Miss Griffith, supervisor of art in the public schools. She will be assisted in receiving the visitors by the presidents of the various Parent-Teacher circles, including Mrs. F. W. Mears, Washington school; Mrs. Maddox, Roosevelt school; Mrs. Maddox, John Persevel school; Mrs. Irvine, Jackson school. The general public is cordially invited to view the exhibit.

The Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock when Rev. J. Powers united in marriage Miss Sadie E. Whitman and Robert T. Nichol. Mrs. W. J. Luckeroth was matron of honor and Mr. Luckeroth was best man. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Andrews of 510 S. St. Street and was a student at the St. Marys academy. The young couple left for Chico, Calif., where Mr. Nichol has secured a position with the Ford Auto company of that place.

Miss Mercedes Barber was hostess at a prettily appointed 1 o'clock luncheon at her home Thursday in honor of Miss Mildred Wicks who leaves soon with her parents for San Francisco where they will make their home. A beautiful bouquet of Cherokee roses centered the table. The guests were: Misses Mildred Wicks, Laura Page, Esther Warner, Hazel Nuttle, Lucille Messner, Frances Bacon and Grace Wilson.

The Greater Medford club will hold their last meeting for the season Monday afternoon at the library. There is considerable business to be transacted, and final reports for the year made. The new president, Mrs. R. J. Conroy, will be inaugurated. She will outline the plans for the work of the coming year.

Miss Flora Gray who has spent four seasons in New York studying and coaching advanced piano playing, will leave N. Y. June 1 for Medford where she will spend the summer. Miss Gray recently appeared in recital in Chickering hall with pleasing success.

St. Marks Guild met Thursday and after the business meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. R. H. Holmes and Mrs. H. B. Clark.

Mrs. S. T. Richardson entertained the Thursday Night Bridge club at her home on Summit avenue Thursday evening of this week.

Mrs. W. L. Holloway was hostess at an informal afternoon of bridge Thursday. Tea was served in the late afternoon.

Mrs. Lee Root left Thursday for Bremerton, Wash., where she will join her husband who is in the service at that place.

The Thursday Night Bridge club entertained their husbands at the home of Mrs. M. M. Wagner Monday evening.

Mrs. C. M. Thomas was hostess to Le Samedi club this afternoon at her home on Rose avenue.

Miss Jean Badger returned home Sunday from Berkeley to spend the summer with her parents.

Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton are spending the week-end in Portland.

Mrs. F. W. Hollis was hostess to the Wednesday Study club at her home on Oakdale avenue Wednesday afternoon. About fifty members and invited guests were present. The annual election of officers was held and the following officers were re-elected: Mrs. Frank W. Hollis, president; Mrs. Fred Kramer Deuel, vice president; Mrs. John A. Torney, secretary; Mrs. Moses L. Alford, treasurer. A report of the year's work was given, showing the club had given $15 to the Belgian children's fund, $6 to the fund for the flag for the Seventh company and $6 to the Red Cross. Under the auspices of the club, Dr. George Rebe of the University of Oregon gave a lecture on Russia, the subject of the study during the year, and which subject will be resumed this fall. During the afternoon Mrs. Walter M. Van Scoyoc rendered two vocal solos in a very pleasing manner, and instrumental selections by Mrs. W. Carlton James were given in her usual brilliant manner. Maurice McManey's promising young baritone voice captivated all and brought forth a ready encore and Miss Ruth Warner, one of Medford's young vocalists, delighted the audience with a number of selections.

Thursday afternoon a miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. A. H. Case and Mrs. B. J. Plymire at the home of Mrs. Plymire, in honor of Miss Carrie Hansen, whose wedding will take place June 2. The rooms were prettily decorated with Oregon grape. A green and white color scheme was carried out. One novel feature of the afternoon was the announcement being made in rhyme. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many presents which were presented in four wagon loads by two little Cupids. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon. The guests were: Mrs. Tedrick, Mrs. Ella Hodman, Mrs. W. O. Webster and daughter Millicent, Mrs. Jack Schurr, Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son Nicholas, Mrs. Peter Young, Mrs. Walter Stover and son Hugh, Mrs. N. Nelson, Mrs. Lena McClellan, Mrs. J. Metternick, Mrs. Hansen, Miss Laura Joy, Misses Stella and Myrtle Hillis, Celia, Carrie and Anna Hansen.

The monthly homecoming of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church met at the church parlor Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance. After a short business session ten ladies of the South Oakdale circle representing a backward military squad, with Mrs. James Campbell giving orders, gave a backward drill to music, much to the enjoyment of the audience. They were encored and were prepared to exhibit a new turn of movement. Mrs. Hall favored the ladies with two very pleasing solos. Mrs. Minear then gave the invitation to refreshments which consisted of tea and fruit cake and was served in a very dainty style. Flowers both wild and tame added much. The Priscilla circle will have charge next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Donna Platt were delightfully surprised at their home on South Oakdale Friday evening, May 18, when the Barneca boys and Faithful Band class of the Baptist church gave a house warming party. The host and hostess proved themselves equal to the occasion and favored with several beautiful selections of music. Many games were played and ice cream and cake was served, after which best wishes were expressed for the future of the happy couple. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

On Friday, May 18, the "Twice Five" club of Jacksonville spent a most enjoyable afternoon with Mrs. J. P. Wells. The rooms were attractively decorated in lilacs. At 5 o'clock a most delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Roy Smith. Those present were: Mrs. G. A. Gardner, Mrs. F. L. Touvelle, Mrs. W. Caudill, Mrs. W. W. Godward, Mrs. Herbert Hanna, Mrs. J. P. Wells, and Mrs. Roy Smith of Jacksonville and Mrs. Paul S. Bandy of Central Point.

Friday afternoon was ladies' afternoon at the Elks club. Mrs. John Barneburg was chairman of the committee and was assisted by Mrs. O. C. Boggs, Mrs. John Butler, Mrs. Frank Bellinger and Mrs. Henry Bates.

Mrs. Ralph Bardwell entertained most delightfully with two table of bridge Saturday afternoon and four tables Wednesday afternoon in compliment to Miss Lucile Crane who is spending some weeks here the guest of Mrs. Bardwell.

Mrs. H. Eastman of Ashland visited at the home of Mrs. C. B. Watkins.

On Friday evening, June 1, St. Mary's Academy will do its "bit" to aid the Red Cross society. This "bit" will be in the form of a musical recital at the academy on that evening at 8 p. m.

The Misses M. Lucile Koontz, Neva G. Samuels, and Jean E. Steel, who have completed their junior course in music, will have the leading parts in the program. The senior music class and the St. Mary's choral class will also assist in the musicale.

Admission fee will be 25 cents. The proceeds will be donated to the Medford chapter of the Red Cross. The president has urged the people of our country to render every possible financial assistance to the Red Cross to enable it to do efficient work in its noble and patriotic cause. Partland announces a mighty "drive" to be undertaken soon to raise abundant funds for the Red Cross. Medford, too, will swell the funds for the Red Cross by co-operating generously with all ways and means devised to be of increased financial benefit to the Red Cross. This musicale affords an opportunity to render assistance to the local chapter.

Mayor Gates, the zealous president of the Medford chapter, heartily approves of this musicale as a means to aid the Red Cross and recommends its patronage to the patriotic people of the city.

Remember with your little "two bits" you can do one "big bit" for the country.

Tickets can be purchased from the pupils of the academy or may be procured at Chas. L. Scheffelin's grocery store; M. J. Roddy, the jeweler; West Side pharmacy, Medford book store and St. Mary's academy.

Washington Parent-Teacher circle met in regular session at Washington school Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock with an attendance of 40. Annual reports were read from each standing committee. The social service committee had done good work. Among other things accomplished they had superintended the gathering of old papers by school children, the sale of which brought $83.10. The social committee had served light refreshments at nearly all meetings and at a number of special meetings; held cake sales at market and held neighborhood sewing parties to prepare for bazaar which was held in May with a financial result of $51.50. The telephone committee reported about 300 calls made in behalf of the work for the past year. Altogether the amount of money taken in during the year was $233.10. Twenty-four kindergarten chairs were purchased for the primary room. Two drinking fountains were installed in school building, one on each floor, at a cost of $36. A great many other things were done. At the end of the year the books show a balance of $127.06, with a membership of 60. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Smythe; vice president, Mrs. Debley; secretary, Mrs. Wissing; treasurer, Mrs. Foster. Two songs were beautifully rendered by Miss Cochran's pupils. Mr. Hillis gave a short talk on junior thrift. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the teachers for earnest work of the past year, and especially to Mr. Cramer for splendid influence exerted over the boys both in and out of school. With best wishes to all, the meeting adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gregg on Thursday evening provided a very pleasant evening when they invited a group of friends to their home on Holly street as a surprise to their daughter, Miss Lucy Gregg, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The evening was devoted to music and games after which refreshments were served. The guests present were: Misses Blanche Lomtz, Georgia Williams, Catherine Conser, Ora Brumble, Mabel Earsley, Bessie Jackson, May Lindley, Thelma Elliott and Lucretia Bateman. Messrs. Milburn Harvey, Arthur Hess, Perry Gregg, Roe Fisher, Farley Elliott, Marvin Fisher and Joseph Bateman.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Fielder, 710 E. Main street, Friday, June 1, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. J. C. Rollins will have charge of the program for the afternoon. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. Erna Hostler of Oakland, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. J. Quigley, left Thursday evening for Portland where she will visit.

S. G. Rundlett of Salem has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. M. Gray, the past week.

The Octette club was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. J. Emmens Monday afternoon.

The Roosevelt Parent-Teacher circle and other guests met Friday afternoon to enjoy a program given by the pupils under the direction of their able teachers. Each room gave a dramatization of myth or folk-lore stories, among them "Cinderella," "Snow White," "Our First Flag," "Persephone," "Joan of Arc." All the parts were exceptionally well taken and the costumes added much to the scenes' effectiveness. Prof. Hillis held the attention of old and young in his retelling of "Billy Begs Ball." After the program the teachers served refreshments to the mothers. Miss DeVore and Miss Ferguson presided at the beautifully appointed tea table. Election of officers followed. Mrs. Maddox, Mrs. W. M. Van Scoyoc and Mrs. Geo. Lindley succeeded themselves as president, vice president and treasurer. Mrs. Van R. Pierson was elected secretary.

The senior-junior reception which was given by the high school alumni Friday evening will be numbered among the most pleasing events of the season. The affair was given at the armory which was tastefully decorated with natural greens, interspersed with the senior colors, orange and black, and Medford pennants. Unique programs were given in the color scheme, being staged in orange with black lettering. Mrs. Schumacher was also orange. All it lacked was a black attendant to serve. The music which was snappy was in charge of Herb Launspack. About 35 or 40 couples were present. The following is a list of the patronesses who were in the receiving line: Mesdames Roger S. Bennett, M. L. Alford, Edw. Sautter, H. B. Patterson, T. J. Williamson and L. B. Brown.

A pretty children's party was given by Mrs. E. F. Guthrie Thursday afternoon at her home near Jacksonville for her eldest son, Alexander Peter.

A merry afternoon was spent with games after which supper was served. A large birthday cake with five candles, representing the five years of the host, was an attraction for the little folks. The little guests were Roxana Ruhl, Ruth Bowne, Corning Kenly Jr., Elnore Bingham, Barbara Owen, Farwell Kenly and Bruce Guthrie.

The Lincoln Parent-Teacher circle met Friday afternoon at the school building. During the business session the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, president; Mrs. J. O. Grey, vice president; Mrs. E. E. Wilson, secretary and treasurer. The treasurer reports having on hand $30.00 in the treasury. The society appreciates very much the work done by Mrs. Perl, the president, the past year.

Miss Fern Hutchinson was hostess to the Monday Afternoon club at her home Monday.

The Thursday club met with Miss Fern Hutchinson Thursday afternoon.
