

FIRST FOOD BILL PASSES HOUSES WITHOUT PROTEST

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The first of the food administration food bills, carrying appropriations of approximately $14,770,000 for a survey and stimulation of the food supply passed the house today without record vote.

A similar bill is pending in the senate. A bill by Senator Poindexter of Washington to punish malicious storage of foodstuffs and other necessities, under penalty of from six months to three years imprisonment was favorably reported today by the senate judiciary committee. It would penalize persons who "store, acquire, hold, destroy or make away with" food, fuel or other necessities for the purpose of limiting public supply or enhancing market prices.

"Speculators and dealers throughout the country are taking advantage of the present economic situation to exact unreasonable profits from consumers," said the report. "These offenses are particularly heinous in times of war. Speculation and profiteering by the necessities and hunger of the people in such a time cannot be too severely punished."

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The reception by the alumni association of the Ashland high school to the grads of 1917 was given at Odd Fellows' hall last Friday night, being well attended. Gertrude Engle was elected president; Lynn Mowatt, vice president; Ruth Whitney, secretary. The following toasts were presented, Principal F. E. Moore presiding as ceremonial master: "The Class of 1917," Verne Blue; "Our Alma Mater," Mrs. Rose Galey; "Our Normal School," Esther Whited; "Meaning Patriotism," Supt. Briscoe. The hilarious event of the evening was a burlesque graduation of the class of '18—blankety blank Alfalfa Center high school, with Henry Galey wailing the birth as principal instructor and dispenser of Oxford scholarships and diplomas, about a dozen winning honorable mention. Mrs. Lorine Peruzzi and Homer Billings were present in the capacity of school directors and fairly beamed over with the distinction won by their proteges. There were many smart folks to be seen, the genial spring weather lingering in the lap of summer, suggesting one's best sartorial efforts. Principal Galey wore a modish tailor gown of the new putty shade, with a bronze skull cap. He also carried a corsage bouquet of post-tosties. Ed Dunn looked particularly smart in a pleated one-piece frock, his dome being thatched with a marvelous creation of buckwheat straw, roundup style. Verne Blue was arrayed in a broad suede belt that tied in the back and ended in a folded-over sash of the same material as the gown. Ward Hammond looked charming in a ticorn shaped Prince Albert, the dressy effect being heightened by a wonderful arrangement of beige ostrich plumes encircling the crown. Miss Anderson played, Miss Engle sang and Ed Dunn delivered the class oration, supplemented by a wonderful history from Mrs. Harvey Ling. With an exuberating valedictory by Verne Blue, incident to the delivery of which the grads threatened to invoke the cloture rule, the merry-makers graduated from the gay to the sombre, and after light refreshments were served the farewells were spoken to the accompaniment of the "Star Spangled Banner," as a war postlude.

To Avoid Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment for itching scalp when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair.

Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is a pure, reliable, antiseptic liquid, not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use for scalp irritations is zemo, for it is safe and also inexpensive.
