HUDSON SUPER-SIX WINS $20,000 BET

The metal signs for the guide posts, fifteen in number, together with a number of cross-road, school and danger signs for the Crater Lake road from the R. F. Goodrich Company, have arrived and will be put in place next week. Much credit is due to Dr. E. H. Porter, W. A. Folger and Geo. E. Boos, who have interested themselves in these guide signs and who will superintend the placing of same.

The signs are of special steel one-eighth of an inch in thickness with the wording imprinted in the steel. They will be fastened on 4x4 cedar posts.

Credit is also due to the Jackson county commissioners, who have defrayed the expense of furnishing the posts and paying the freight on the signs.

A sample sign is on display in the good roads office window in the Holland hotel building.

Automobile Notes

Honors as one of the first cars thru from San Francisco to Seattle have been won by the Chevrolet. Driving a "Four-Ninety" equipped with Goodrich Black Safety Tread tires, Z. W. Gore of San Francisco accomplished what many other tourists have been trying to do for some time. A large number of other cars were forced to turn back, but the San Franciscan at the wheel of the California built car riding on Goodrich reached Seattle this week with the machine and tires in perfect condition.

As a reward for winning the recent Corona Motorcycle Endurance run, Calvin R. Webber has received the Kellogg Trophy cup. He made an unusually high record with a medal score of 995 points and a consistency score of 976 points. In regard to the run, Mr. Webber says, "As usual my machine was equipped with United States Motorcycle tires."

As an additional lure for motorcyclists to enter the Gypsy Tours, a handsome medallion will be awarded to each rider participating in that national event on June 16 and 17. Every motorcycle and tire company in the country is co-operating to boost this movement and to demonstrate that there can be no better means of real out-of-doors enjoyment than the motorcycle.

"General Jose Lechuga, millionaire sportsman of Mexico City, ventured an opinion that he had to underwrite $20,000 during the April motor racing carnival at La Condesa track," said H. O. Harrison, local automobile dealer.

"The general bet $20,000 on his Fiat against the Hudson Super-Six independent entry, backed by Philippa Lauria. The Super-Six a week previous had cast a tire in the fourth lap of a 30-lap race and running on the naked rim retained the lead until the last lap, when an accident forced it from the race. The bet resulted. The following Saturday the Super-Six and the Fiat were entered in a race with a Lancia, a Hispano Suiza and two American cars. Amatory Munos drove the Super-Six. He won in 51 minutes 17 3-5 seconds. The Fiat was second in 54 minutes and 29 seconds.

"With the same dip of the pen that General Lechuga used to scribble his check for $20,000, he wrote an order for a Hudson Super-Six."
