OBITUARY

FREDEBURG.—James Isaac Fredeburg died at the home of his nephew, James Yonke, Jacksonville road, Saturday, June 9. He was born in Missouri, January 8, 1858. Came to Oregon, 1864. Resided in the Willamette valley many years, coming to Jackson county 1881. Since that time he has made his home in Jackson county, except about five years in eastern Oregon.

He leaves to mourn his loss, three brothers, four sisters and seven children, John L. and R. M. Fredeburg of Sams Valley, Oregon; Mrs. Mamie Moore of Central Point; Mrs. Nellie Engle of Fort Klamath; Bertha, Jessie, and Bessie Fredeburg of Sams Valley, Oregon. The funeral services were held at the grave at Sams Valley cemetery at 2 p. m. Monday. Rev. F. W. Carstens officiating.

WEDDING BELLS

A wedding or two every week seems to be the order of the day at the home of Rev. Frederick W. Carstens. Saturday night, at 8 o'clock, William Leon Lewis, and Miss Violet Adeline Roberts, of Central Point, were married by Rev. Carstens. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis were accompanied to the Carstens home by Wm. Force and Miss Josie Stevens, who witnessed the happy event. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are well and favorably known about Central Point. A wide circle of friends doubtless joins with the Sun in wishing them a long and happy life.

sheriff apparently made no resistance to having his prisoners taken from him when the Springfield men promised him "on their word of honor" no harm would be done the suspects unless they confessed to complicity in the baby's death.

A rope was placed around Piersol's neck and the end thrown over a tree limb. He was assured that he was about to die "whether guilty or not," but only replied that he hoped "you will tell my parents I had nothing to do with the abduction or death of the Keet baby."

After their return to the sheriff's custody, the two prisoners were taken to Kansas City.

More Arrests Expected. There were reports today that additional arrests were expected shortly in the alleged abduction plots that had to do with the kidnaping of C. A. Clement, Springfield Jeweler; a Springfield baby and a St. Louis munitions manufacturer, but they lacked confirmation.

The condition of Mrs. Keet, who was prostrated by the news of her son's murder, was reported to have improved today. Mrs. Keet, Sr., the child's grandmother, reported to be one of southern Missouri's wealthiest residents, was said to be still suffering from shock as a result of the tragedy.

After 9 o'clock tonight those between the ages of 21 and 20, inclusive, who failed to register June 5, will be subject to arrest, according to advices received by the Mail Tribune from Provost Marshal-General Crowder at Washington.

It's toasted

YES, just the same as your delicious, brown, buttered-hot morning toast. The tobacco—it's toasted.

This toasting has given you the real Burley cigarette at last. Until now it couldn't be made; now the toasting holds the flavor and keeps the cigarette fresh.

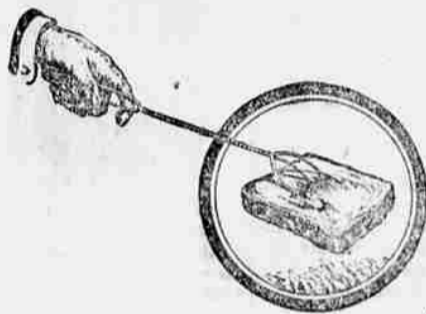

Of course you'll want to smoke the real Burley cigarette—because it's Burley, toasted. Burley is "blame good" tobacco; and you smokers are for it.

Begin trying it today: Lucky Strike, the real Burley cigarette—it's toasted.
