ATLANTIC LINERS SUNK BY U-BOATS 190 LOSE LIFE

PARIS, June 13.—The South Atlantic liner Sequana, with 550 passengers on board, has been torpedoed and sunk with a loss of 190 men.

The Sequana was sunk in the Atlantic. Among the passengers was a detachment of the Senegalese Rifles. The Sequana, formerly the City of Corinth, was owned by the South Atlantic Navigation company of Paris. Her gross tonnage was 5557. She was 430 feet long and was built in Belfast in 1889.

BOSTON, June 13.—The Leyland liner Anglian, which left Boston May 30 for Liverpool, has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine, according to cable advices received by agents here today.

The advices stated that the crew had been saved, although officers of the Leyland line said they had no information regarding the attack or where the Anglian was sunk. On her last voyage from Boston she was commanded by Captain Lawrenson and carried a general cargo. Ship and cargo were valued at $2,000,000.

The Anglian, formerly the Mergentice, was a British steamer of 5535 tons gross and was built at Glasgow in 1896.

A cablegram received here later today stated that five men from the Anglian were missing. There were two Americans in the crew.

present are uncertain, it was announced tonight.

Lasts Fifteen Minutes. The official statement says numerous bombs fell rapidly in the east end of London. The raid over the city lasted about fifteen minutes.

Andrew Bonar Law, member of the British war council, stated in the house of commons that 31 persons had been killed and 67 had been injured in the city of London alone. The casualties in the whole metropolitan area, he said, were not yet known.

In his statement to the house of commons, Chancellor Bonar Law said twelve to fifteen airplanes crossed the coast at North Portland and proceeded across Essex to London. Two bombs were dropped on North Foreland and at 11:20 o'clock the bombs began to drop in the east end of London. Thirteen bombs fell in the city. The chancellor said all the anti-aircraft guns defending London were brought into action and that a large number of airplanes went up in pursuit of the raiders.

The following supplemental report of the air raid was given out officially this afternoon.

Story of the Raid. "The first bombs were dropped on the eastern outskirts of London at about 11:20 a. m. Numerous bombs fell in rapid succession in various districts in the east end. One bomb fell in a railway station, hitting an incoming train. Seven persons were killed and 17 injured here. Another bomb fell on a school, killing ten and injuring about 50 children. A number of warehouses were damaged and fires were caused.

"Up to the present time the casualties recorded in the London area are 41 killed and 121 injured. The lists at present are incomplete and the final figures may be greater.

"A few bombs also were dropped near North Foreland and opposite the Banks of the Thames, four persons being injured.

The air raid over London lasted about 15 minutes. The raiders were engaged by guns of the East London defenses and a large number of airplanes of the Royal Flying corps and Royal Naval Air service were sent up as soon as the enemy was reported off the coast. Several engagements took place in the air, but the results at present are uncertain.

CAMPAIGN FOR RED CROSS WEEK WELL UNDER WAY

T. E. Daniels, manager of the Oregon Red Cross campaign for Jackson county, accompanied by his aide-de-camp, Roger Bennett, left Medford early Wednesday morning on a loop-the-loop journey that will carry them before it ends to Jacksonville, Rogue River, Gold Hill, Prospect, Table Rock, Butte Falls and Eagle Point in a campaign to raise Jackson county's portion, which is $15,000, of the $100,000,000 fund which President Wilson has requested for the Red Cross. Team captains and committees at these places will be selected by Daniels by tonight, and Applegate will be visited on Thursday.

Mr. Daniels said Wednesday morning that the Red Cross chapter here was being deluged with offers of funds and service, and while this was appreciated, he reminded the public that, according to regulations, subscriptions cannot be received or receipts issued before next Tuesday, June 19, the day designated by the National Red Cross, on which date an office will be established in each of the local banks entirely for ed Cross subscriptions.

For the Medford district the following team captains have been enlisted for the campaign: George Collins, Corning Kenley, Mrs. C. L. Schieffelin, Vernon Vawter, C. L. Hutchinson and C. L. Schieffelin.
