NO ENDLESS CHAIN IN RED CROSS WORK

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The American Red Cross has sent out the following notice:

To All Chapters:
Numerous "endless chain" letters have been brought to the attention of the Red Cross, many of them for causes worthy in themselves, but conducted by unrecognized individuals. Nothing of this sort has ever been authorized by the Red Cross, and this is to inform you that all such methods of raising money are without the countenance or approval of the national headquarters.

ELIOT WADSWORTH,
Acting Chairman.

ADVISORY BOARD FOR RED CROSS

PARIS, June 19.—The American Red Cross commission today appointed a new advisory committee composed of W. G. Sharp, James Stillman and Edward Tuck, who endowed Dartmouth college and founded the Tuck school of administration and finance. The need was felt for men to cooperate with the commission who are intimate with French conditions and Messrs. Sharp, Stillman and Tuck were picked as possessing the qualifications in an unusual degree.

PURPOSE OF FOOD BILL EXPLAINED TO SENATE BY HOOVER

fight and we shall find ourselves alone against Germany.

Famine Breeds Revolution.

"The Russian revolution was a food riot and even yet that ally is temporarily paralyzed. Responsibility rests on our government for failure of democracy thru a shortage of food."

Turning to domestic conditions, Mr. Hoover said this country had been experiencing "unprecedented prices and rampant speculation," citing how middlemen and all other persons in the distribution processes have been purchasing increasing supplies to avert individual shortages.

Mr. Hoover cited the canning trade as an example where the entire output of vegetables and fish for 1917 has been disposed of already before it has even reached the canner. They predicted further high prices. Thousands of men, he said, who heretofore have never owned a dollar's worth of food staff are now speculating in necessities.

American Prices Highest.

"The average prices to the consumer in countries where food administration is now in effect are lower than those now prevailing in the United States," he said. "In England the price of bread is even 25 per cent below the price we pay. I believe that unless some administration of food is taken we will look back at these prices as being moderate."

Mr. Hoover denied that the bill establishes a food dictatorship. He characterized the purposes of food administration as to mobilize the people in order to carry out the advice given them by the government officials and to decentralize the functions of the administration in order to centralize the function into the various states.

A commission to take charge of production and distribution of flour sugar and possibly a few other principal commodities, Mr. Hoover said, is being contemplated.

Am to Stabilize Prices.

"Provisions for the government to buy and sell commodities will be necessary for use only as to a very few prime commodities," he said. "The aim is to stabilize prices and thus eliminate speculation. We need an artificial balance wheat. By setting up a wheat commission we can buy wheat, regulate its storage and transportation and handle it unexported or sold in this country. If we do not do this wheat prices may relapse on account of our not being able to store and carry it, with speculators securing the sole benefit and farmers the loss."

We can contract tomorrow with the allies for a certain return for every bushel of wheat we can sell. By controlling prices at interior terminals we can assure millers their supplies and simplify transportation."

Sugar Situation.

As to sugar, Mr. Hoover said American refiners are competing with the

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE.

Few people realize that over 250,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually in making Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these herbs all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their medicinal properties are at their best.

The watchword in preparing these herbs is cleanliness, the process of porcolation is perfect. All utensils and tanks are sterilized and the medicine is pasteurized, clarified and filtered before it is bottled for the consumer.

It is this wonderful combination of herbs, together with the skill and care used in the preparation, which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.
