

BALFOUR SUMS UP RESULT OF VISIT TO UNITED STATES

LONDON, June 21.—Arthur J. Balfour, secretary of state for foreign affairs, gave an accounting of his stewardship, in connection with his mission to the United States, to the members of the house of commons yesterday, in a luncheon arranged in his honor by the Empire Parliamentary association.

No Harm and Much Good "I undertook the headship of the American mission with some diffidence. I felt it so easy to do harm and perhaps not so easy to do good.

The success of the mission was not due to the personal qualifications of your representatives, but to far deeper and more permanent causes, which must give us all great cause for gratification.

Deep Feeling of Sympathy "What moves me, and all of Britain, and France, too, is something deeper, namely the tremendous and spontaneous enthusiasm of America for what is now our common cause and the deep feeling of sympathy which manifests itself in the entire American community, north, south, east and west.

Permanent Agreement "Thus the mission has been the occasion for the most beneficent development of international relations in the history of the world.

Civilization's Future "Our alliance is based on a great moral consideration. We alike do not wish to use war as an instrument of expansion, and so we here may be certain that the United States will not leave us until our great ends are accomplished.

"NO HOHENZOLLERNS"—SO PRINCE MUST TAKE ENGLISH WIFE

The prince of Wales and four daughters of royalty mentioned as candidates to marry him. Left to right, Princess Elizabeth of Rumania, Princess Helena of Greece, Princess Maud of Fife and former Grand Duchess Olga of Russia.

The cry of the English people against anything Hohenzollern has reached the ears of the prince of Wales and, if he heeds their protests, he will not marry anyone outside the British Isles, even if he has to choose a non-royal countrywoman.

It has been the custom for years for British royalty to wed Teutons. Queen Victoria spoke German better than she spoke English.

Out of some half a dozen possibilities only one remains. That is marriage to Princess Maud, younger daughter of the late duke of Fife and of the Princess Royal. But even here is a difficulty, for Princess Maud is a cousin of the heir apparent, and marriages of first cousins are not favored.

One daughter of royalty looked upon with favor for the prince was Princess Elizabeth of Rumania. She is considered one of the most beautiful noblewomen of Europe.

Another princess was the 21-year-old Helen of Greece. But her mother Queen Sophia, is a sister of the kaiser.

daughter of the kaiser, was discussed throughout the world as the young prince's future bride until her marriage in 1913 to Prince Ernst August of Cumberland, duke of Brunswick.

The war left one other possible candidate for Prince Albert, Grand Duchess Olga of Russia, eldest daughter of the czar.

That leaves Princess Maud as the only remaining candidate within the royal castle who would be looked upon with favor by the British people.

towns nearby, like Brownsboro, Butte Falls, Lake Creek, etc.

On Sunday, the 24th inst., Wm. Von der Hellen and Frank Brown motored out on the Crater Lake road to a point one mile beyond Union creek, but found so much snow that they could go no farther and last Sunday 17 went up to the natural bridge, but found the snow was too deep to go on.

Friday was the last day of school at Willow Springs. A number of parents and visitors brought lunch with them and the day was spent in picnicking in the school grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tompkins were business visitors in Medford Thursday.

Quite a few Willow Springs folks attended the patriotic meeting in Central Point Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sisty has not been very well for the last week.

S. W. Nelson of Portland spent Tuesday with Herbert Clark.

Mrs. M. F. Young went to Ashland on Tuesday to meet her mother, Mrs. J. W. Hicks, who has been spending the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tompkins spent a few hours with the Birkholz family on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Fred Straube was elected to take the place of the retiring director, W. K. Parker. Herbert H. Clark was elected clerk in place of A. V. Carlson.

Mrs. C. E. Bellows, who, with her husband, have a farm and dairy on Rogue river, above here, came in Tuesday to bring in her cream.

Sergeant Bowers of Company Seven, Coast Artillery, came out Tuesday and went up to L. C. with Robert Harnish and a young man, son of John McAllister, came out with them and some reported that he was a slacker, but it appears that he is only about 19 years old and of course is too young to be subject to the selective draft.

I understand that another of our boys has entered the service in Co. 7, Graden, son of our blacksmith, L. L. Childreth.

It surely pays to advertise in a live paper like the Medford Mail Tribune, for last week I put in, for Fred Pettergus a class add offering sow and pigs for sale and he told me Tuesday that he had sold them before he saw the add in the paper, because the D. M. T. did not reach this P. O. Saturday eve as usual, so he did not receive his D. M. T. until Tuesday, he living on the rural route and others saw the add.

Ed. Dutton, our efficient road supervisor has commenced to haul lumber from the Stiles mill on Indian creek to build a large barn on his place.

Miss Beatrice Thurston, who is traveling in the interest of a Chautauqua company, is stopping at the S. S. She is canvassing the town and surrounding country trying to secure enough season tickets to justify their coming here for a three days' run.

BUNCOM BREVETIES

Arthur Kleinhammer was in town recently attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnum and baby spent a few days with Mr. Purcell's the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles Buck and daughter, Letha, passed Buncom on their way up Applegate Sunday.

The stockmen are busy gathering and driving their cattle to the high hills.

The liberal, patriotic and continued support of the Red Cross work is being enforced and received greatly in the financial way along the Applegate valley.

A big dance will take place at Goldsby's hall, near Buncom, next Saturday night, June 23. Everybody come and have a good time.

Charles Mee motored up Little Applegate Sunday.

Mr. Harris from Oregon City is visiting Otto Cantrall at present.

Lester Wirts of Ruch is on the sick list at the hospital.

Several of the Applegate farmers are busy putting away their hay.

Died.—June 20, 1917, Lloyd Cameron, son of Dr. W. L. Cameron of Medford.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Last Sunday, June 17, Rev. M. C. Davis, wife and two children, Bertie and Esther, motored from Wolf Creek Douglas county, to pay us a short visit and after visiting with us a few hours, returned home the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rector, formerly of Medford, but since he married one of our townsman's daughter, Margaretta Florey, has been living at Weed, California, came over Saturday afternoon to visit her parents, A. J. Florey and wife.

Irving Frey and Russ Moore of L. C. were among the callers Monday noon. Mr. Moore called to take a load of salt out to the stock range belonging to the stockmen's association.

Our school meeting passed off very pleasantly last Monday afternoon. There was a good turnout, but the most of them were ladies and the result was Dr. W. P. Holt was elected director for three year and Walter C. Clements our postmaster, was elected clerk. There was no contention this year and there was only one nomination for director and one for clerk, and by a vote of the people the acting clerk, Mr. Carl Narrigan, was instructed to cast the vote for each.

Ed. Dutton, our efficient road supervisor has commenced to haul lumber from the Stiles mill on Indian creek to build a large barn on his place.

Miss Beatrice Thurston, who is traveling in the interest of a Chautauqua company, is stopping at the S. S. She is canvassing the town and surrounding country trying to secure enough season tickets to justify their coming here for a three days' run.
