

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ernest C. Carpenter is registered in Hood Parkland, Portland, Oregon.

Johnson for high class watch repairing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson have returned from a several days visit in Eugene.

Buttermilk, 16c gal. DeVoe's.

Miss Florence Cannon is home from a visit with friends in Roseburg.

Bakery goods at DeVoe's.

H. G. Workman returned today from The Dalles, where he attended the funeral of the late Julia Bradley, who died suddenly in Portland last Wednesday.

See Duke Wood about that fire insurance policy. Office, Room 494, N. F. & R. Bldg.

F. H. Cowles is in Los Angeles on a business mission for several days.

Big 1c milk shakes at DeVoe's.

W. J. Bowen, who has been here for some time looking into the mining situation of this section, left this morning for Boise, Idaho.

Dr. Helms fits glasses recently.

Jay Andrews is home from a six weeks business trip in the east.

Fresh Chocolates at DeVoe's.

Mr. R. C. Brown and Miss Ruth Brown of Roseburg are visiting in the city for several days.

For the best insurance see Holmes, the Insurance Man.

Because of the melting snow in the mountain districts Rogue river has been unusually high all the past week for this time of the year, and consequently the fishermen are anxiously waiting for the stream to clear up and get lower. Last Sunday at Prospect and Trail the river raised a foot and remained high in that section all week.

Dr. Frank Roberts, dentist, R. Marks building, Phone 113-F.

The officers commanding the various coast artillery companies have been ordered to report at Portland on Monday, June 25, to attend commanding officers' school. Captain Wamble will leave for Portland on Sunday evening.

Baths, 15c. Hotel Holland.

Rev. Harry E. Tucker is here for a visit with his family and friends. He has been engaged for the past five weeks in evangelistic work in Portland and vicinity. He will resume his evangelistic work in eastern Oregon next week.

Phone 154—Heath's Drug Store.

The wave of patriotism that has swept over the United States for some time is evidenced by the auto tourists passing thru Medford from various parts of the country. On nearly every car is at least one flag or other patriotic emblem.

Gasoline and oil at DeVoe's.

Lieutenant John Reno of Jacksonville will act as colonel of the South Oregon G. A. R. association, vice the late Colonel James Mattingly of Ashland, until the association's annual encampment is held at Ashland in September.

Dr. Helms, eye, ear, nose, throat.

Not only is there a short crop of cherries in southern Oregon, but in the Willamette valley as well as in California.

Dr. Henry Hart, Jackson County Bank building, Office hours, 2 to 4 p. m.

J. A. Whetzel, who for two years past has been in the barber business in this city, has sold out his interest in the shop to his partner, C. A. Rowman, and with his family plans to return to his former home in Oklahoma.

Metz cars at Riverside Garage.

Lester H. Jacobs, who enlisted in the marine corps at the local recruiting office, left last night for Portland to take the physical examination. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs.

In a hurry call us.

The mayor and members of the city council returned late Friday from their visit to the city water intake and city ranch.

Metz cars at Riverside Garage.

Lewis Jenkins has returned from Tucson, Arizona, where he spent the past five weeks, and will remain here during the summer.

C. F. Jenney and family of Medford, who have been visiting their friends, R. J. Fouts and family, left Friday for Eugene to visit friends there.

For sale, 20 acres timber and farming land within five miles of Medford, $10 per acre, long time, easy payments, worth double for wood. Gold Ray Realty Co.

Mrs. E. E. Wasi and Mrs. C. H. Watkins are spending the week at Shasta Springs.

Information regarding rates and coverage of compensation insured upon ranch and orchard employes furnished by the McCurdy Agency, Telephone Number One, Two Three, 113.

Mr. Ralph Koozer of Talent has been at the home of Mrs. Marie Ottendal for a week, under the care of Dr. Beely. Mrs. Koozer returned to her home Thursday much improved in health.

For rent, garden lands, farming land, stock ranches. Gold Ray Realty Co.

Mrs. Ida M. French, Mrs. Ed. Perry and Mrs. Mary O. Carey returned Thursday from Roseburg, where they attended the district convention of the Women of Woodcraft order. Mrs. French and Mrs. Perry were delegates from Oak Creek No. 282, of Phenix, and Mrs. Carey was past district guardian, which chair she filled during the session. She was elected grand alternate to the grand convention which will be held in Portland September 14.

Also Paul Phone 11.

Bert Orr and Clarence Berk, the well known jointed wheel men who are serving in the navy reserves, and who have been visiting relatives and friends in the city for two days past, left this morning for the Bremerton navy yard but will stop in Portland a day en route. Messrs. Orr and Berk have just completed three months in service at the Navy Island training station at San Francisco and have been transferred to duty at the Bremerton navy yard.

Johnson for high class watch repairing.

Charles Terrell of Newburg and Jacob Jones of Eagle Point have returned home from a visit to the city.

Miss Myrtle Denton, who has just graduated from the San Jose, California, normal school, arrived home this morning to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wrixton and daughter, Melba, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Miller at the 441 ranch, left this morning for their home, Fresno, California.

Ashland Chautauque, July 11 to 24. Take a vacation and rest in the park. Splendid program and a great new auditorium. Something doing all the time.

The Girls National Honor Guard booth at the public market today was empty, for nearly all the members of the local chapter are at work in the orchards. As soon as the fruit picking season is over the girls will resume their weekly sales of foods at the public market.

P. F. Swarpe the well known Appleton rancher and stockman, arrived in the city today from a trip thru Josephine county.

Miss Elizabeth Rogers of Healthbury, California, accompanied by Leslie, Evelyn, and Ray, the children of her brother, H. P. Rogers, stopped over night with her sister, Mrs. Geo. D. Saltzman, and left this morning for a month's visit in Roseburg. They will return to Medford after that for a visit.

Mrs. A. Trus Lundy will leave about June 25th for Portland, where she will reside.

Edward W. Roberts, well known mining man of Washington, is a visitor in the city today.

Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Terrell, returned to her home at Roseburg today.

The baseball teams of the Seventh and I companies will play a practice game at the baseball park tomorrow afternoon. It is planned to take the best players from both teams to form a side to play some other club during the round up celebration in Ashland.

Miss Mary Walker of Medford, known to a visitor in the city.

J. P. Shaker, newspaper, and A. D. Miller, lumberman, of Bruna Falls, spent Friday in the city on business.

Ralph G. Barwood left late Friday for Seattle to complete negotiations with R. H. Parsons for the leasing of the Stewart Fruit company of the new storage warehouse which will be built in Medford by Mr. Parsons.

W. V. R. Campbell returned Friday from a fortnight's visit to San Francisco. He made about the same running time on his return trip as on his previous vacation which will be built at Medford.

Mrs. C. A. Baumgartner, Mrs. J. C. Ferry and Miss Grandstand of Hill, California, returned to the city this morning and spent the day in shopping.

Ray R. Carey of Baker, Oregon, is spending the week end in the city, having arrived Saturday morning.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

John Orison, of Prospect, and wife spent the week end in Medford. He reports that Tuesday it was possible to go to the Grand National park line by auto. There, however, the snow stopped further progress. At White Horse creek, four feet of snow was reported and on the summit of Corcoran hill six feet. The snow is melting rapidly, but it will be a couple of weeks probably before the lake can be reached.

Big Cross contributions this morning and was just walking down the driveway at the home of W. G. Steel on Summit ave., when her auto suddenly turned over and broke. She was injured in her fall on South Oakdale street where an attempt was made to get the horse's stable.

But the break was so bad that it was deemed advisable to remove the patient to the Sacred Heart hospital for the completion of the operation. Drs. Snow and Stearns were the attending physicians.

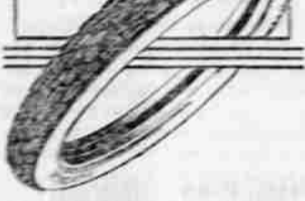

REPUBLIC Premium Process Tires wear down as evenly and smoothly as a piece of steel. They show great wear resistance and are practically immune to road cutting and chipping. The Premium Process does prolong the life of the tire.

Black-Line Rad Inner Tubes have a record for freedom from trouble.

The Republic Rubber Co., Vancouver, Ohio.

W. R. DeLay, Agent, Medford.

REPUBLIC TIRES

NOCE, France, June 21. — Fifty American aviators arrived here today to undergo a course of instruction at the aviation depot. They were given the heartiest of welcomes by their French comrades.

