

PERSHING MOVES FROM HOTEL TO FINE RESIDENCE

PARIS, June 29. — Major-General Pershing, the American commander, has left the hotel in which he has been staying since his arrival in Paris, to make his home in a fine old residence in the Rue de Varenne, so as to be near his headquarters. The house, which has a magnificent garden, formerly belonged to Prince Gortchokoff. It was leased before the war by Ogden Mills of New York, who placed it at the disposal of General Pershing. The American commander was asked today to comment on the article entitled "Why We Are Fighting," published yesterday in the Army Bulletin, in which General Petain, the French commander in chief explained the objects of the war and why a premature peace must not be concluded. General Pershing said: "I have read General Petain's article with deepest interest. His answer to the question is complete and logical. The facts set forth should convince the world of the justice of our great cause. I cannot think it possible that any one should hold a different view of why we are in this war. It is quite beyond reason that any one knowing the truth should fall to condemn the course pursued by the German government and the truth has been clearly pointed out by the distinguished commander in chief of the French army."

$100,000 LOSS BAKER FLOOD

BAKER, Or., June 29.—Residents of Rock Creek and the neighboring sections of eastern Oregon today were clearing away the debris from their homes and farms made desolate yesterday when approximately 12,000,000 gallons of water poured thru a broken concrete dam at Killmaeene, high up in the Elk Horn mountains, and swept everything before it for miles around. The little town of Rock Creek was practically swept away, houses were inundated and farm buildings and crops along Muddy creek were carried down the canyon by the waters. There were no deaths. Officials estimate the loss will run close to $100,000. Refugees whose homes were lost were being taken into the residences of their neighbors who escaped the waters. Nearby cities are planning to send aid to the stricken district.

MOBILIZE BOYS FOR WAR RESERVE

WASHINGTON, June 29.—War time mobilization of the boy labor of the nation is the purpose of a two-day convention of the United States Boys' Working Reserve, which opened in the offices of the Council of National Defense here today. The vast labor shortage, which is believed, will ensue when the draft goes into effect, is hoped to be partially offset by the utilization of America's youth in agriculture and the industries.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The fixed rate for jitney service to the Roundup grounds has been officially placed at 15 cents. Beware of those who cut the price as well as others who may seek to increase it. At the celebration parades on July 3 and 5 a real genuine torpedo will be among the displays under government auspices. Exhibits of the submarine missile will also be given on the side. In assets and liabilities respectively the First National bank of this city makes the largest showing, in its report of June 20, of any bank in Jackson county. The figures are $880,833.93. A meeting of directors of the local Red Cross society will be held at official headquarters on Friday evening of this week. C. F. Kimball and bride, of Redding, have been in town this week on a wedding tour, they having been married June 27. Kimball is an attorney of the Shasta county metropolis. The Southern Pacific will run a special train of twelve coaches from Grants Pass on July 4, also one on July 5 of ten coaches. Trains leave here on the return trip at 11:15 p. m. The specials are put on in behalf of the Roundup celebration events. J. H. McGee, local dry goods merchant, has presented the Chautauqua association with a fine flag for the new building. Raymond Loosley of Fort Klamath, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Loosley of this city, was married on Wednesday at Medford to Miss Willeska Roberts of Eagle Point. While on a trip to Jacksonville Loosley's car ran into a buggy occupied by two women, the auto tearing off a hind wheel of the vehicle. Nobody was injured. Funeral services of Mrs. Amanda Creighton, who died June 27, were held on Thursday afternoon at the Free Methodist church. Interment was in Ashland cemetery. The deceased was the wife of George Creighton. She was a native of Oregon, 56 years of age. In the case of F. H. Maxson, appellant, vs. the Ashland Iron Works, Judge Calkins has been reversed in an appeal from the Jackson circuit to the supreme court of the state. The case involved an action to recover possession of a planer. H. C. Stock has built a substantial boat which will be available on his numerous fishing trips. It is fourteen feet long and is readily transported overland on a trailer behind Stock's motor car. This is why the owner has named it the "Overland." It has bait light compartments and can easily make ten knots over Ray dam. Charles Brown has been elected director in the Bellevue school district, and Mrs. Mary Tucker has been appointed clerk. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rose of Riverside, Cal., are in Ashland for a vacation visit with a host of relatives and friends. W. O. Dickerson exhibits an old picture of a section of the residence district, as it appeared in former days, of Hareourt in Alsace-Lorraine. In it the home of the Perdrizets is outlined, a Huguenot family of France of which Mrs. Dickerson is a direct descendant. The town is noted in later days as being in the center of the war district and is practically in ruins. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Westmore and son Howard, of Spokane, are visiting at Mayor Lamkin's. Mr. Westmore is instructor of English in the Spokane high school, and his wife is a niece of Mr. Lamkin. Sunday, July 1, has been designated by President Wilson as Patriotic day, and will be universally observed. Mrs. John C. Miller is rapidly convalescing from an operation at the Sanitarium, and for the present has been removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Gowdy, on Union street. The Wednesday Afternoon club at its picnic on Thursday, an event which marked the close of its activities for the summer season, did a lot of sewing for the soldier boys of First company. Freewill offerings assumed various innovations, some being a direct surtax on the waist measure of the ladies, while a revised tariff was levied upon the men, graduated on a sliding scale according to dimensions of socks worn. The picnic closed with a substantial dinner served at 6 o'clock. H. C. Stock, cabinet maker and undertaker, is making extensive changes in the interior of his establishment. Eric Weren and Miss Minta Cherry were married on Tuesday at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. W. J. Douglass performing the ceremony. The newlyweds tied themselves to the woods for a honeymoon outing near forest and stream. F. H. Fitch, local contractor, is superintending repairs being made under state authority on the Normal school buildings. Mrs. Ella Parker of Oberlin, Kan., and Mrs. F. S. Hazelton of Newton, in the same state, are visiting relatives in the Clark Bush family. They will be here during Chautauqua and will participate in the observance of Kansas day, July 13. Deputy Assessor H. C. Galey occupied offices in the city hall on Thursday and Friday of this week, attending to business matters preliminary to winding up the 1917 assessment schedules for this district. The Elks of Medford have been invited to join with the Ashland lodge in the big parade here on July 4. California car No. 164,802 collided with Leo Trefren on the Plaza Wednesday forenoon. Leo was crossing the street and was knocked down and dragged a short distance. His injuries fortunately were minor ones. The car was loaded with women and children, the occupants being Hornbrook parties. Mrs. J. E. Hosmer and son are here from Modesto, Cal., for a vacation visit with relatives in the H. G. Eastman family. Dr. Hosmer will come later. The family formerly resided here. Fire on Tuesday overran several acres on George Van Natta's wood lots west of town on the mountain heights. Tobacco ashes dropped by an employe started the blaze. This is no pipe dream. Soda water through the mineral springs pipe line is promised to reinforce the lithia supply throughout roundup and celebration week. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Malt and Miss Frances Malt of Portland are here for the celebration and Chautauqua periods. During the summer vacation they will also camp in the Dead Indian section. Miss Etta Miller, trained nurse connected with the Sanitarium at Placerville, Cal., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller, and other relatives. T. H. Simpson, who recently bought the Warner hardware store on East Main street, is consolidating it with the main stock at his old reliable headquarters on the Plaza. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Elhart are "at home" from their wedding tour to northern cities and points in Idaho.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett Last Saturday afternoon Rolfe Matthews brought in a fresh beef hide for Roy Ashpole and realized a good round price. There is no wonder that shoes are high. Mrs. John Rader and her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stanley were among the business callers Saturday p. m. Mr. Henry Meyer of Lake Creek and one of his sons were business callers Saturday, and so was Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller now own the orchard formerly known as the Herrine orchard about two miles up the creek from our town. And they have one of the nicest orchards in this section. I visited them this week on business connected with the church affairs and found them to be of the progressive class of citizens. He is planning to make some decisive improvements on his place. He has a prospect for a bountiful crop of fruit this season. Harris Gippert motored on Saturday evening from his home near Butte Falls, bringing his mother, two brothers and two nieces, the Misses Coran. They attended the dance here, returning to their home after the dance. The dance was given for the credit of the Red Cross society here, but I did not learn the amount received, but those who were there report that there was a good crowd, but I am sorry to say that there was quite a number reported as violators of the dry law. John Foster, who is staying on the J. E. Edsall ranch and is interested with Mr. Edsall in the sheep business, came out Saturday p. m., returning to the ranch Monday morning. Sunday morning after Sunday school Rev. Carstens, the pastor of the Baptist church of Medford, and Rev. Smith, formerly S. S. evangelist for the A. U. S. S. Society, came out and Mr. Carstens preached a very interesting sermon on the subject of "Does It Pay to Live Religiously." His text was 1st Timothy, 4 ch. 8 v. and I think that the most of his hearers were convinced that it pay to live a religious life. At night Rev. Paul S. Bandy, the pastor of the Presbyterian church in Central Point, preached from "Behold the Man," John 19, chap. 5 verse. At the close of the sermon Mr. J. W. Grover stepped forward and announced that the preliminary steps had been taken to secure the services of Mr. Bandy to preach for us every Sunday evening for a year, unless he was providentially called away, and asked for an expression of the people as to whether his services were desired by rising to their feet and almost every one in the house arose. The next step was to secure the funds to pay the sum agreed on to pay for his services, and by Tuesday p. m. the most of the funds were subscribed, so we have at last secured the services of a man who can and does draw and interest an audience. Mr. Fred L. Heath and family of Medford came out Sunday evening and visited Dr. W. P. Holt and family and Mrs. Holt's sister, Mrs. A. T. Hatch of Berkeley, California. On Sunday Henry Trusty, Miss Clara Zimmerman, Carl Ringer and Miss Gertrude Thomson, went to the Von der Hellen farm and took lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Von der Hellen and later in the day were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Clements, Mr. and Mrs. William Von der Hellen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pelouse, T. McPherson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson visited the Holman Springs in Ashland enjoying the fine scenery and waters of that helpful resort in Ashland. Tuesday morning Misses Durtly and Pearl Borrell of Medford called on us on their way home. They had been out to Mr. R. A. Wideman's to attend a meeting of the school board of the Antelope district, and while there Miss Pearl Borrell signed a contract to teach in that district this fall, beginning the first Monday in September. Perry Foster and Henry French came in Tuesday, Henry came in to bring his cream and Perry, his father-in-law, came in on general business like any ordinary farmer. J. T. Talent formerly of this county but more recently of Salem, Oregon, came out on the Lewis jitney and took the stage for L. C. Mrs. Mary Martin and Miss Tressie Pierce of Trall came out Tuesday on the stage and Miss Tressie went on to Jacksonville to take the examination to become a teacher in our

BUTTE FALLS

Everything is moving like clock-work preparatory to getting in shape for lumbering operations. A force of men are at work grading and laying track from the P. & E. railroad yards to the mill, a distance of about half a mile. From present indication our laboring men will find plenty of employment at home. Several of our men who have formerly been employed in the government forestry service have resigned and are working for the Butte Falls Lumber Co. W. B. Hildreth and Joseph Geppert, patrolmen for the Jackson county fire patrol association are working like beavers in their respective districts, opening up trails and getting ready for the big drive (which will surely come) if the dry weather continues. George Richardson and Elmer Hoefs heard the good news and came home. They were working at Pelican.

Butte Falls' contribution to the Red Cross relief fund was $116.50, and the contributors were: Riram Doubleday, E. A. Hildreth, Sr., Mrs. E. A. Hildreth, Master Bill Berrian, W. S. Crowell, Joseph Geppert, M. J. Brainard, Laura E. Brainard, Chas. Edmondson, Lola M. Hildreth, N. B. Hildreth, Geo. W. Barker, J. W. Berrian, Horace Geppert, Mrs. W. W. Parker, W. Ray Parker, W. W. Parker, Ira Tungate, Mrs. J. I. Patton, J. I. Patton, Etta E. Stewart, Ella H. Smith, Mañey E. Parker, John Cadzow, Mrs. Mary Cadzow, Miss Elsie W. Wright, John Cobleigh, Amos J. Cobleigh, Alice Smith, Alice Smith Tungate, A. M. Ford, E. A. Hildreth, Jr., J. P. Hughes, B. Stoddard, M. P. Baker, Mrs. M. P. Baker, Mrs. Emma James, Mrs. Ala Mills, Harry D. Hills, B. F. C. Edmondson, W. L. Jones, Mrs. W. L. Jones, Gertrude Hoefs, Jasper Tungate and Blanche Tungate. Conspicuous for the absence of their names to this list are some who were best able to pay. Straws show which way the wind blows. H. D. Mills autoed to Medford Sunday to get his face fixed, returning Monday. He came back smiling. Every day adds to the beauty and permanency of the fish hatchery. State officials evidently knew what they were doing when they placed W. J. Berrian on the job. Judge Crowell of Medford is stopping with Mr. Berrian at the hatchery. Mrs. Carrie Obenehain has reopened her house to the public and any one coming to Butte Falls, inquire of or follow the train crew to dinner. Dad Hildreth beat his crew in catching the big eastern brook trout by one-fourth pound. Whoever starts the big boarding house and lodging rooms better get a-coming. The first on the ground gets the best location. Some of you people who thought you had learned the skin game, and got skinned, come to Butte Falls and settle down with honest folks. Real estate boomers not invited. They eventually kill any town.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Miss Mae Glover of Ashland, who has been visiting in our midst for a couple of weeks, left Wednesday evening to visit in Grants Pass at the Northland home. Charles Hay, accompanied by his mother and sister, motored to Gold Hill Wednesday. Mr. Findley of Ashland, accompanied by Rev. Hoeg of Medford, and others interested, stopped in Gold Hill for a short time and visited with Rev.

Hutchinson and family. They were doing the valley in the interest of the coming Chautauqua. Capers crew of the Southern Pacific construction is here putting a new deck on the railroad bridge over Rogue River at this point. A generous coat of paint on the depot building, roofs and all sign boards, greatly improves its appearance. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker of Rose Lawn, California, came up Wednesday to visit relatives at this place. Richard Morelock returned Wednesday evening from his visit in northern California. Mrs. A. E. Stacey of Ashland visited the first part of the present week at the home of Herbert E. Darling. Dr. Cobb and family of San Francisco, motored thru Gold Hill recently and stopped for a short time to visit friends in this city. A. T. Cooksie transacted business in Medford Monday. Mr. Hillburn of southern California came in on Wednesday morning to make his annual vacation fishing trip at Gold Hill again. J. C. Burch and Fletcher Lynn, officers of the Beaver Cement company came in on 14 Thursday to transact business pertaining to the plant at this place. Mrs. Zimmerman and daughter arrived Thursday morning. Mrs. H. D. Reed, who has been visiting in Portland the past two weeks, returned to her home in this city Tuesday morning. Frank Avery, accompanied by Mrs. Eva and Miss Nora Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Elhart motored to Sams Valley Tuesday afternoon to visit with the family of Curtis E. Miller.

schools. Miss Tressie has been attending the normal school at Mouth and has taken the teachers' course. She expects to teach in her home district. Oscar Helitz of Portland, representing Todd Protograph Co., was among the callers Tuesday and so was Mr. Root, who is associated with the R. R. P. Association. Wm. Whitman, who traded for the old Eagle hotel, now the Farmers' hotel property a few months ago, has given up the undertaking of keeping hotel in Eagle Point, and surrendered the property to the party again and zone to Montana with his family in his automobile. He also leased the old barber shop, but had to give that up also as Mr. Slessor, the old barber, who was occupying the old shop at the time he leased the shop has built a new shop and was doing about all the business. H. E. McQuown of Porterville, California, who is engaged in the lumber business and has been stopping in Medford, came out Wednesday to see the town, enjoy the cool breeze along the bank of Little Butte and take dinner at the Sunnyside. He seems to be buying up a certain grade of lumber to be shipped to California. Since my last report Amos Tyres has renewed his sub to the Daily Mail Tribune, and so has Mrs. Rosetta Potter, our milliner renewed her sub to the D. M. T.

SAMS VALLEY

The sheep men have just completed a fine cement dipping vat. W. A. Tresham and family visited friends in Ashland last week. D. C. Wilson attended to business in Medford Monday and Tuesday. Jesse Gilchrist has added another car to the growing number of this community. Quite a severe wind storm passed thru the valley Saturday, but did little damage to fruit. The orchardists are all very busy thinning fruit. All fruit trees are heavily loaded this year, with the exception of pears, where much of the fruit has fallen from the trees. George Lyman and family visited in Medford Thursday. E. K. Deuel and W. C. Kenney were inspecting dairy equipments in Grants Pass this week. For two or three days there has been strong indication of rain, but a strong wind generally drives the clouds away, much to the disappointment of the farmers. H. I. Pelton and E. B. Dny have been canvassing districts soliciting subscriptions for the Red Cross. W. C. Kenney and family and Miss Agnes Flippen spent Thursday shopping in Medford. Mrs. Olsson and Mrs. George Haft of Gold Hill visited friends here this week. Miss Loleta Hougham is spending examination week in Jacksonville. J. R. Cook visited relatives at Rogue River Sunday. Richard Straus and family were shopping in Central Point last week. At the annual school meeting, O. T. Wilson was re-elected director. Miss Daniels has been re-elected teacher for the ensuing year.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet

Try this yourself then pass it along to others. It works! Ouch! ? ! ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain. He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.
