

SOCIETY

Mr. Lawrence Mehaffey and Miss Maude R. Newbury, two well known young people in local society and musical circles, were married yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones, of Conger avenue, at 7 o'clock.

After the ceremony, which was attended only by the parents, relatives and a few close friends of the couple, a wedding breakfast was served, and they left by automobile for a two week's honeymoon at Medford, Eugene, Portland and return by the central Oregon route.

The wedding ceremony was conducted by Rev. George T. Bennett, pastor of the Methodist church of this city, and of which church choir Mrs. Mehaffey is a member. Mrs. Mehaffey is an ex-student of the University of Oregon, which she attended two years, and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She was one of the most popular coeds at the university during her two years of undergraduate work, being engaged in athletics and musical circles.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mehaffey of this city, and is assistant cashier of the First State and Savings bank, with which institution he has been connected for several years. He is a prominent member of the local Elks club, and prominent in local musical circles as well as in Mrs. Mehaffey.

The couple became acquainted when Mrs. Mehaffey came to Klamath Falls to spend the summer in 1915, after her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones, moved here to reside from Medford, where they formerly lived. The newlyweds have been the recipients of a large number of showers, and of many beautiful presents from a host of friends for several weeks past, among the prominent being a handsome library table, lamp and card table given by the employees of the First State and Savings bank.

Two brothers of the bride, Don and Carl Newbury, who are both members of the coast artillery at Medford, were here for the wedding, and will remain several days.—Evening Herald, Klamath Falls, Ore.

Within a short time the department of music notes will be conducted in the Mail Tribune. The purpose of this will be to stimulate interest in all things musical as an aid to the annual music festival, the first to occur next spring, as well as the pleasure of the readers interested along those lines. The department will include local happenings, news of Medford people who are studying or working elsewhere, and frequent notices of important events, national or foreign. It is not too soon to begin preparation for the festival, which is to be one of Medford's principal attractions.

On Wednesday evening the Golden Link Bible class of the First Baptist Sunday school, their husbands and a few invited guests motored out to the beautiful orchard home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lathrop for their annual picnic supper. The supper, consisting of all sorts of good things to eat, was served on the large porch and lawn. Games and music passed the evening most pleasantly and at a late hour the merry crowd returned home, voting it a most enjoyable evening. About forty were present.

Mrs. Rachel Kinyon, president of the W. R. C.; Mrs. Sarah Andrus, first delegate, and Mrs. Namie Woolf, past president of the W. R. C., returned Friday from Forest Grove, Ore., where they attended the G. A. R. and W. R. C. convention. They report a large attendance—488 men and 482 women registered. This did not include all who attended, for many did not register. Forest Grove entertained her visitors royally and kept them busy from start to finish.

Mrs. B. F. DeLoach and daughter, Joan Maxine, left Thursday evening for their home in Aberdeen, Wash., after several weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Owen and daughter, Barbara, have returned from a visit with Mr. Owen's parents at Eau Claire, Wis.

Mrs. John Banks of Portland, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. L. Holloway, returned to her home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cowles leave Sunday for New York, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kidd and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thayer returned Wednesday from a trip to Portland.

Mrs. J. J. Emmens entertained with a few tables of bridge Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Thompson of Roseburg is the guest of Mrs. W. Y. Crowson.

The regular homecoming of the Ladies' Aid of the First M. E. church was held in the church Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance. During the absence of the president, Mrs. Minear, and Mrs. Lindley, secretary, Mrs. Baleom and Mrs. McNary will preside. After a short business session the Priscilla circle took charge of the entertainment. Mildred Jenkins gave several pleasing recitations which delighted her hearers. Mildred is fast becoming an excellent reader. Lillian Casten also gave several selections. This little lady possesses rare talent for one so young. Her numbers were highly appreciated. Albert Bliton sang a dainty song in his usual pleasing way. This little man can boast of a sweet musical voice. Miss Helen Philbrook favored the ladies with two classical instrumental solos. The skill in which she exhibits technique and plays from memory is praiseworthy. Mrs. H. D. Manning, by request, read an original poem about the "Priscillas and Roses." Each member's name was mentioned. A flower guessing contest followed, Mrs. Campbell receiving the prize. Refreshments were then served. The Queen Esther circle will take charge during the month of July.

Mrs. George Parucker leaves next Thursday for a three months' visit with relatives in eastern states. En route she will stop at North Yakima, Wash., and visit a few days with her son, Herman Parucker, who is located in that city. From North Yakima Mrs. Parucker will be accompanied by her daughter, Anna, who, after a few weeks among relatives, will take up hospital training and remain in the east. They will spend several days in Chicago and then go to Pittsburgh, Pa., where they will remain for some time with Mrs. Reinecke, who is a daughter of Mrs. Parucker and formerly lived in Medford. From Pittsburgh they will go to Cochran Mills, Pa., and visit with Mrs. Parucker's mother, brothers and sisters and numerous friends.

Mrs. George Collins entertained with a delightful luncheon and bridge party Thursday. A color scheme of pink and white had been chosen for the luncheon table. Quantities of pink Dorothy Perkins roses beautified the attractive home of the hostess, being used in graceful arrangement about the rooms, and a bowl of the same centered the table. Cards were enjoyed during the afternoon. The guests included Mrs. Edward Soultor, Mrs. M. Purdin, Mrs. E. H. Porter, Mrs. Gus Newbury, Mrs. R. J. Conroy, Mrs. Cornwall, Mrs. J. J. Emmens, Mrs. C. M. Thomas, Miss Edna Warner, Mrs. Ralph Terrill, Mrs. R. H. McCurdy, Mrs. O. C. Boggs, Mrs. Roger Bennett, Mrs. C. M. Kidd, Mrs. F. G. Thayer.

At the home of Attorney and Mrs. H. A. Canada, the Live Wire orchestra on Monday evening, regular practice night, a social evening was spent in honor of Dean Carder, who leaves Saturday for Washington to be absent indefinitely. The boys enjoyed themselves with music and games. After refreshments were served songs were sung. Those present were: Messrs. Carder, Roberts, Heine, Fisher, Stringfellow, Seely, Lindley, Slowing, Lawton, Fifer, Williams and Canada.

Mrs. W. L. Holloway was hostess Wednesday with a bridge tea in honor of Mrs. Preston, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Drown of San Francisco. The other guests present were: Mrs. Lincoln McCormick, Mrs. Robert Ruhl, Mrs. John Banks and the hostess.

Mrs. John Wilkinson was hostess to the Thursday Evening Bridge club at her home on North Quincy street this week. Mrs. Jack Stewart, Mrs. Thompson of Roseburg and Miss Helen Dahl were guests of the club. Mrs. Stewart won highest honors for the game.

A most enjoyable affair of Thursday evening was the picnic party given by Mrs. Piero and Mrs. Patterson. About fifty friends motored to Wagner canyon, where a picnic supper was served and a merry evening enjoyed.

Mrs. Goffe and Mrs. Root entertained several friends for Mrs. Cummings of Chicago with a Nazimova matinee party Thursday afternoon, followed by afternoon tea at their home on West Main street.

Mrs. W. L. Holloway entertained at dinner Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl and Mr. and Mrs. Corning Kenley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson and son Robert and guest, Mrs. Cummings, of Chicago, returned Monday from two days' trip to Prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hopkins entertained last Saturday evening with an informal dancing party in honor of their son Frederick's 18th birthday.

Mrs. C. I. Hutchinson was hostess to the Nullo Bridge club Thursday afternoon.

The Thursday club was entertained by Mrs. W. F. Biddle Thursday afternoon.

First Methodist Episcopal

Dr. J. C. Rollins, pastor.
Complying with the president's request special patriotic services will be held at the morning service at 11 o'clock.

The G. A. R., the W. R. C., Seventh company of the Coast Artillery together with Company 1, Third Oregon Infantry have been invited to attend. The music will be in keeping with the occasion and Dr. Rollins will speak on "The Real Patriot Today."

At the Sunday school hour a special program for Patriotic Sunday has been arranged. A full attendance is desired.

The Epworth League chapters meet at 6:45 in a rousing Patriotic devotional service. All young people are cordially invited to attend.

At the hour of evening service Dr. Rollins will speak on "The Wasteful Citizen."

This day so near to the birthday of our great country is momentous in history. The clarion call of our chief executive should be heeded by every truly patriotic citizen. The public is cordially invited to all the services of the day. Strangers are always made welcome. The usual excellent music by a well trained choir will be furnished.

First Baptist Church

A live church with a cordial welcome. If the government's suggestion is respected and acted upon, Sunday will be "Patriotic Sunday" in all the churches throughout the nation. Pastors are asked to devote one of their Sunday services to the interests of the nation. They are also asked to urge upon their church members and tendants the patriotic duty and privilege of attending that service. The pastor of the Baptist church is glad to comply with the president's request, and announces Sunday morning as the time for that service. The subject will be: "America, the Hope of the World." There will be special and appropriate music for this service. Miss Grace Bratney will sing as a solo the Star Spangled Banner.

The evening theme, "The Message of Jesus Concerning Marriage and Divorce," will deal with one of the great perils of the nation. Whatever you may think about divorced people remarrying, or about folks being divorced, you will want to hear the sermon of Sunday night.

The Bible school, which meets at 9:45 a. m., continues to have a large and interested attendance. Still, there is room for others.

The Young people hold their devotional service at 7 p. m. in the upper room of the church. The topic for Sunday night will be: "Little Things Make or Mar." Leader, Miss Olive Johnson. Miss Johnson is an exceptionally good leader.

Frederick W. Carstens, pastor.

AUSTRIAN EFFORT FOR SEPARATE PEACE

COPENHAGEN, June 29.—The east German Rundschau of Vienna, the organ of the German nationalists, complains in a recent issue of machinations in certain circles within the empire in favor of an Austrian endeavor for a separate peace with the entente and tending to destroy good relations with Germany. The report is prevalent in these circles, particularly in the industrial districts, the Rundschau asserts, that Austria-Hungary could long before this have had peace with her enemies if she had not been bound by the German alliance, and that Prussia alone is responsible for the continuance of the war.

Tales of differences between Germany and Austria-Hungary are also in circulation and a semi-panic recently occurred in certain districts over the wild rumor that the trouble had come to a crisis and that Germany was about to attack her neighbor and ally.
