GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Milton Steinmetz came in Thursday morning from his home at San Juan, Cal., to greet friends and also bid them good-bye, as he is called to the colors, and has many friends in this city, which was his former home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Walker of Eagle Point are moving to Gold Hill, having arrived Thursday afternoon.

J. C. Herring of Central Point is visiting his friend, J. W. Merritt, in this city.

Professor and Mrs. B. A. Adams and daughter Enid came in Wednesday evening and are resting at the Home dining hall. Mr. Adams was former school superintendent of the local schools and the family have lots of friends in this vicinity. They have been in attendance at the National Educational association, and also stopped over for a few days with Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Richards at Salem. They toured from their home in Lakeview to The Dalles, then to Portland, Salem, Eugene and finally Gold Hill, in their new Maxwell, and only were stopped once and that with a blowout.

Quite an excitement was caused Thursday noon by a large grass fire in the vicinity of the high school building. Bungalows in the neighborhood were in jeopardy until the fight was over.

Regular meeting of the Red Cross Wednesday afternoon was well attended and much work accomplished. The initial box which was completed last week and placed in Bowers' drug store window for a few days was sent to headquarters Tuesday. Reports showed $25 netted from Red Cross dolls and a total fund on hand of $70.24.

Tobie Newton and wife accompanied Mrs. Homer Elhart Thursday night on her return to her home in Ashland. They will remain there until Saturday evening.

Mrs. Homer Elhart of Ashland came down Thursday to spend the day with relatives at this place. Tobie Newton of San Francisco, who is also here, is a brother of Mrs. Elhart.

Crowds of relatives and friends were at the station Tuesday afternoon to see the local members of Company 7 off to Medford for mobilization.

Del Rio orchard has just finished installing a new irrigating system.

Mrs. C. W. Gregory and children, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stone, the past week, left Thursday morning for their home in North Bend. She was accompanied by Mrs. Stone, who will visit on the coast for one week. Going as far as Roseburg by train, they will be met there by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Beal, with their car, and all will make the trip to coast by auto.

Mrs. F. Zana of Ashland came in Friday to attend to business matters in Gold Hill.

The Ladies' Aid met in regular session Thursday afternoon at the parsonage. A large attendance enjoyed the afternoon on the lawn. As the gathering had taken the form of a join shower for the hostess, it was quite a surprise to her, as she had not caught a word to that effect. Before dispersing, dainty cake and punch were served.

Miss Ruth Kimball came Friday morning to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Engle in Riverside colony.

SAMS VALLEY

Mrs. Mark Carl, former resident here, but now of Santa Anna, California, visited and attended to business here this week.

Mrs. G. W. McMorris, daughter of Grandma Edington, is visiting at the Edington home, called by the illness of her mother. Mrs. McMorris resides in Seattle.

Cora B. Finley, who was inquiring the whereabouts of Frank Chitwood here recently, was thru our precinct again soliciting donations to be used in establishing an orphans' vocational institution about seven miles southwest of Grants Pass.

H. I. Pelton and family are being visited by Portland friends.

The infant daughtetr of M. A. Schultz, who has been quite ill, is much improved.

Miss Loleta Hougham visited and attended to shopping in Medford Thursday.

Grandma Edington's condition is still unimproved.

The Pelton header started into operation Tuesday.

Some of the grain in our precinct is turning out better than had lately been expected.

W. C. Kenney and family accompanied by Jesse Tresam, were shopping in Medford Thursday. While there Jesse made purchase of a motorcycle which proved inefficient, as Jesse had to jump a car to get home.

Don Hougham and wife of Klamath Falls visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cook are making good use of their Ford by visiting at different points along the northern coast where they have relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Simpkins and wife of Chico, California, visited W. W. Edington and family last week.

Mrs. L. B. Fisher returned from Medford Tuesday with her son, Willis, who underwent an operation at the hospital, and seems much improved.

John Cameron and daughter, accompanied by the Misses Nealons, visited here Thursday evening.
