GERMANS STILL PRESS SLAVS (Continued from Page One.)

COPENHAGEN, July 31.—The Berlin Tageblatt's correspondent at Austrian army headquarters gives the number of cannon captured by the Germans in the Russian retreat as seventy, those taken by the Austrians numbering nearly 200.

General Korniloff, according to the correspondent, apparently is attempting to organize a new resistance along the rocky Galician frontier.

Situation Hopeful.

LONDON, July 31.—A dispatch to the Times from the headquarters of the Russian Seventh army says the situation is more hopeful. Panics among the retreaters are suppressed ruthlessly. Three divisions of cavalry have taken positions across the whole front of retreat. Deserters are shot and attempts to spread panic are suppressed by prompt executions. Deserters, spies, and agitators who enjoyed complete immunity under the committee system lie dead on the highways. A paper pinned on the corpses reads: "Here lies a traitor to his country." Red badges and other symbols which accompanied the demoralization have almost disappeared.

Army in Danger.

LONDON, July 31.—A dispatch to the Post from Petrograd referring to the Russian retreat in Galicia says it is conservatively estimated that more than two million Russian troops are steadily marching rearward. These constitute the eleventh and seventh armies with their reserves. The eighth army, which is largely cavalry and not included in the foregoing figures, also is retreating and its position, says the correspondent, is extremely critical. The Germans are straining every effort to capture it while following up the eleventh and seventh armies and it looks as if the eighth army might be caught in a bag.

Rumanians Successful.

LONDON, July 31.—"In the mountainous region between the Casin valley and the Putna the enemy tried to attack us at different points but was everywhere repulsed," says a Rumanian statement of July 28. "Fighting is in progress for the possession of the Magura Casilunja height," the statement adds.

COPENHAGEN, July 31.—A dispatch from Berlin says Emperor William left Mitau, 25 miles southwest of Riga, Russian, and went down the river to the Riga front where he complimented the troops.

Gibson of the state council of defense succeeded in saving many tons of perishable fruit sent to the plant of the California Fruit Cannery association here from San Francisco, where work was disrupted by strikers, it became known today. Reinforced by the volunteers and police protection, work was proceeding normally here today.

POOR WHEAT CROP FOR SASKATCHEWAN

REGINA, Sask., July 31.—Reports received by the provincial department of agriculture from the crop correspondents thruout the province, made public today, indicate that the wheat yield of the province will average between 10 and 15 bushels to the acre. Rain is needed but in some sections the crops are so badly burned that rain would do no good now. Wheat in the south country district will average about 12 bushels, with oats a failure in some sections. All grains are maturing too fast and it is feared that the conditions of 1914 will be repeated.

AMERICANS ENGAGE GERMAN U-BOATS

WOMAN IN KHAKI SMUGGLED BOOZE ACROSS BORDER

Justice of the Peace Taylor this forenoon, on recommendation of County Prosecutor Roberts, and after they had changed their plea of not guilty to guilty, sentenced H. McKee and Frank Parker, two young men, to twenty days in jail, and then suspended sentence during good behavior and on condition that they go to work at once.

They, with Maud Sturgis and two others, were arrested for creating a disturbance last Friday afternoon and evening in a house at the corner of South Newtown and Eighth streets. The ringleaders of the party escaped at the time and the police and county authorities have been unable to gain any trace of them since.

Maud Sturgis, 19 years old, was given into the custody of her father, an Applegate rancher, today, after a consultation between the father, Prosecutor Roberts and Justice Taylor. She was taken back home by the parent. Her's was the case of a country girl coming to the city and getting into bad company. First she came to Medford to attend high school, and after that she was employed at several places in the city.

Prosecutor Roberts and the police are extremely anxious to get hold of the woman, known as Maud Deeters, who escaped from the house during the raid Friday night. They claim she was the source of much crime and trouble in Medford and Ashland the past few weeks. She is 24 years old and came here from Seattle recently.

It is claimed that she had a specialty of drinking with men and of slipping "snow," or knockout drops, into their glasses and robbing them later when they became unconscious from the drug. It is also claimed that she smuggled large quantities of beer and whisky into this city from California, and that to help her out in so doing she wore khaki

A GREAT MEDICINE.

That most successful of all remedies for woman's ailments, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, owes its origin to a botanic recipe which came into the possession of Lydia E. Pinkham about fifty years ago.

This recipe has proved so effective in the practice of a skilled physician that Mrs. Pinkham procured the herbs and steeped and prepared them in the old-time fashion on her kitchen stove for her friends and neighbors who suffered from woman's ailments. The fame of the virtues of this wonderful medicine spread, until it is today recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills.—Adv.
