

CENTRAL POINT

Miss Cecil Moore of Lake Creek was among relatives and friends here during the week.

Mr. Skyrman of Trail is one of the out-of-town business visitors here this week.

Mrs. Murrow arrived here the first of the week from Hillsboro, Or. Mrs. Murrow is the wife of Assistant Agent Murrow at the Southern Pacific depot here.

Benton Bowers and James Bowers of Ashland were pleasant callers at the home of their relative, Mrs. Fredrick, known to the town people as Auntie Fredrick, recently.

Miss Edythe Creed is assistant postmaster here now. Miss Creed served in that capacity several years at a former time and is thoroughly familiar with the work.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy of Medford and Misses Fern Dewey and Doris Brophy and Leland Brophy of Talent were in Central Point Wednesday evening, visiting relatives and friends.

The past week has been a "dog-killing" time in Central Point. No less than a dozen dogs have been put to death in the cruelest and most brutal way possible within the last few days.

The cause of this wholesale killing of dogs is not known, but it is generally supposed that the self-righteous person or persons who are doing it consider the little dumb creatures nuisances and deem it their duty to rid the community of them.

It is not the duty or work of any private citizen to take it upon himself to kill any living thing, unless they are authorized by the public officials to do so.

If dogs become so numerous that they are obnoxious to the public, it is perfectly right that our city dads should order them put out of the way, but no men, who are men enough to be members of a city council, would order any animal put to death in the shameful way that these dogs have been killed.

A slow poison that makes the dog suffer for several days the most intense agony and pain has been the lot of these faithful creatures. If those people who are doing this thing had given the dog something that would quickly put it out of the way, their work would not have been so bad, but as it is, the least that can be said is that his or their has been a most inhuman act.

Mrs. Frank Weston of Ashland was one of the out-of-town business visitors here this week. Central Point was proud to call Mr. and Mrs. Weston residents for a number of years, and we still love to claim their friendship, and are glad to have them visit the place that was their home.

Mrs. Clarence Pankey, Miss Pearl Pankey and Mrs. Fredrick went to Ashland Saturday and enjoyed a day's outing in the park.

Mrs. Cummings, who lies seriously ill at her home here, is little improved at this writing.

Miss Ben Calloway of Brownsville, Ore., who has been the guest of Mrs. Fredrick for the past few days, left for her home in that city the first of the week.

Mrs. Rose, friend of Mrs. Mattie Parker, who has spent the summer touring the east, stopped off here en route home Tuesday and spent a few happy hours with her friend. Mrs. Rose is famed as a poultry raiser. She is the leading poultry woman of California, being owner and manager of the famous Rosedale Poultry ranch at Sierres, Cal.

In the past five months she has cleared $900 on her chickens and has raised over 5000 of these fowls. Mrs. Rose has fifty-four ribbons and medals that her chickens have won at different fairs. There's no business like the chicken business, so thinks Mrs. Rose.

Miss Gladys Holmes leaves Friday morning for Lake Creek, where she will spend a week in vacation and rest.

Miss Leota McDowell, who has been visiting her sister at Yreka, Cal., for the past two weeks, returned home Wednesday.

"Slim" Norris has returned from a trip to Crater Lake.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Jack True, well known road supervisor, is at the head of a road crew at work in Ashland canyon, overhauling the numerous bridges on the county highway leading up to Log's Lodge.

"Gone but not forgotten" applies to the soldier boys of First company, now stationed at Fort Stevens. A public meeting was held at the library on Thursday night and steps will be taken to forward at intervals a number of personal comforts for troops not included in the regulation equipment as to food and clothing.

Necessities will be the first requisite, but a liberal share of luxuries such as not embraced in the fixed army ration will be forthcoming. At this same meeting the question of forming a home guard for Ashland was also discussed in line with steps taken by other towns to meet existing problems.

Mrs. Emma Mercer and Mrs. Eliza Mears, former residents of Iowa, but now of Pasadena, California, visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, on their way south from a stay with numerous relatives at North Yakima and Walla Walla, Washington. The visitors were charmed with Ashland after an inspection of its parks and scenic drives.

Rev. J. H. Doran of the local post-office force, will preach in the Presbyterian church at Medford on Sunday, August 5. His theme will be "The Unfolding Life."

Recently a full grown porcupine found refuge in the basswood tree in front of All Kinney's residence on Granite street. A well directed shot aimed by Master George Barron brought the animal down in short order.

On Thursday F. D. Wagner and H. L. Whitte, accompanied by their families, left for Crater Lake, the outing to end the first of next week. The tour was made by the Ager gateway. In a third car Mrs. Emil Poll and Miss Lillian Patterson accompanied the party as far as Klamath Falls.

Amos Nlanger has been seriously ill the past few days at his home on South Pioneer avenue.

Beginning on Wednesday, August 8, patrons of the water department will be privileged to irrigate gardens and lawns from 5 to 8 a. m. and from 5 to 8 p. m. Acreage irrigation hours will be from 5 to 10 a. m., and 5 to 10 p. m. Violations of this regulation will incur penalties such as are provided in water ordinance No. 642.

The Dixie Association will meet in annual reunion in the parks on Wednesday, August 15. Both dinner and supper will be served in the park. John H. Dill is president, the vice-president is Mrs. W. M. Barber and secretary, Mrs. F. F. Whittle.

Mrs. Dr. Bostough is visiting familiar surroundings amid the scenes of a former residence in Minnesota and North Dakota.

The commercial club meets in regular session on Monday evening, August 6, preliminary to instituting an active publicity campaign for the fall and winter months. The organization, thanks to careful and efficient management, has nearly $300 in its treasury.

Jack Hughes is a new employe in Schwein's North Main Street market, replacing Carl Cunningham.

George E. Bradnaek, editor and proprietor of the Dorris Times and Merrill Times, also deputy sheriff, forest ranger and game warden, was in Ashland on Tuesday, accompanied by Ed Bushnell, a printer friend from San Francisco, they being on an auto trip through Oregon and Washington territory.

Mrs. Dr. Bostough is visiting familiar surroundings amid the scenes of a former residence in Minnesota and North Dakota.

Messrs. Johnson and Young of Etna Mills, California were in Ashland Thursday, business matters having called them hither. Mr. Young is identified with the Scott valley bank.

J. A. Lemery, who conducted law and real estate offices both in Ashland and Dorris, California, is here this week.

Ashland creek is reaching the low ebb stage incident to the August season of the year, hence customary irrigation restrictions.

In corresponding with members of First company of Ashland, now stationed at the mouth of the Columbia river, the correct address is "First Company, O. C. A. N. G., Fort Stevens, Oregon."

Beginning with beans and tomatoes the Ashland cannery will open for the season just as soon as the furnishing of products will justify it. M. C. Linsinger will be manager.

Dave Good of the Highgrade Mine seven miles from Hill, is home for a brief visit.

Early in September the Grants Pass chamber of commerce plan to pay a return visit to Ashland, that organization having entertained the local commercial club some time ago.

ROGUE RIVER

A large company of her old friends and neighbors attended the funeral of Mrs. J. L. Scott on July 24 in the cemetery here. The impressive services at the church were conducted by J. Martin, at the family's request, in the absence of the pastor at synod. During her residence on Evans creek Mrs. Scott was much loved and respected for her many deeds of christian kindness. She was one of the first members of the Presbyterian church in Rogue River, her late husband being at one time an elder.

Mary Agnes Bennett was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Bennett. She was born in Sullivan county, Missouri, June 28, 1841, where she lived, until 1853, when she moved with her parents to Pike county, Missouri. She was married to J. L. Scott of Bowling Green, Mo., in 1861, and in 1865 moved by team to California and to Jackson county, Oregon, in 1877. Mrs. Scott was the mother of seven sons, but had the misfortune to lose four of them soon after coming to Oregon. She is survived by three loving sons, M. Scott of Prosper, Or.; S. T. Scott of Albany, Or., and G. W. Scott of Mill City, Or. She also left four brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Lucy P. Allen and James Bennett of Portland, E. P. and S. L. Bennett of Medford, Mrs. Wm. Treger of Modesto, Cal., and J. W. Bennett of Visalia, Cal. At the age of 23 Mrs. Scott became a member of the Baptist church, but transferred to the Presbyterian church of Rogue River, while residing here, and has always lived an active christian life. Her husband, J. L. Scott, died in Medford in 1909, and since then Mrs. Scott had made her home with her son, S. L. Scott, at Albany, until death suddenly and peacefully claimed her, July 21, 1917. She was of the sturdy stock of 1776, and both her grandfathers served through the war of 1812 in Virginia and the Carolinas. Mrs. W. P. Wetherell of this city is one of several grandchildren, and to her and the other relatives the sympathy of the whole community goes out in their grief.

Very sincere regret was also felt here over the sad death of Mrs. E. L. Briscoe, wife of Dr. Briscoe, at Roseburg, after the birth of a fourteen-pound daughter, who survives. She was buried at Roseburg, July 25. Dr. Briscoe, who volunteered for service, has been called to the navy yard at Bremerton, while our other soldier boys have left, Lester Wilcox and Harry Carr to join the Seventh company at Medford and David Martin for his company at Albany.

A good deal of moving has been going on here. The Terrett family moved into the Briscoe house, while Don Wilson now occupies the one vacated by them. Mr. Pierson, in the employ of the telephone company, has brought his family into the house lately occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, while the Blaylock family have rented the old Whipple house, while the new barber and jeweler is located in the old Argus office. Mr. Alexander has also moved his family from Evans creek to the S. F. Hall property on Pine street.

Mr. Martin and Rev. J. W. Hoyt attended the Presbyterian synod at Eugene last week. Mr. Martin returned on Friday, but Mr. Hoyt is now enjoying summer school at Eugene, but will occupy his pulpit as usual on Sunday next.

A musical service was held under the auspices of the Christian endeavor on Sunday evening. The various hymns were accompanied with violin music by Masters Chester and Harvey Woods of Ashland and John Hoyt. The Woods boys also played a violin duet, "Santa Lucia," while talks were given by Miss Brown of Corning, Cal., on "The Educational Side of Foreign Missions," and Miss M. Martin on "The Industrial Work in the Mission Field." A paper was read by Mrs. Fowler on "Hymns and Their Authors," while Mrs. Hoyt conducted the service.

Chester and Harvey Woods of Ashland are visiting Mrs. Fowler this week and having a good time with old-time boy friends.

Mrs. Potter of San Demas, Cal., has been visiting her many friends on Evans creek.

Fields and gardens here are getting dried up, and a shower would be very welcome, but is rather unlikely in August.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called frezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of frezone, obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.
