BISBEE RULED UNLAWFULLY BY VIGILANTEES

Government in Hands of Executive Committee, Enforced by Marshal and No Appeal Permitted—Governor Considering Applying for Federal Troops.

TUCSON, Ariz., Aug. 10.—Telephone messages from Bisbee today say it was reported there last night that Governor Campbell had asked that federal troops be sent to the Warren district, but the report was denied today by Governor Campbell. The governor said he had not yet called for troops, that he would have a full discussion with the sheriff of the county and the mayor before taking action.

The following account of conditions in Bisbee and the surrounding district, is taken from reports and statements of Arizona officials:

The business men and other citizens of Bisbee are standing behind the Loyalty league and the vigilance committee, which is deporting all persons believed connected with the I. W. W. from the Warren district.

Mode of Operation. The vigilance committee meets daily and takes up the cases of men charged with being sympathizers with the I. W. W. The committee is composed of about twenty members, chosen by the Loyalty league, and has a chairman, and a secretary who keeps a record of the proceedings.

There also is a marshal who executes the judgments of the committee, from which there is no appeal. The marshal is a deputy sheriff and has a large posse at his command to enforce the decrees of the committee. Sheriff Wheeler sometimes sits with the committee.

When a man is ordered deported, he is informed of the judgment of the committee by two deputy sheriffs and told that he is to leave the district within a stated time. During that period he is continually under surveillance, the deputies assigned to see that he leaves the district accompanying him, assisting him in getting his effects together and finally seeing that he is put on a train at Osborne, a junction near Bisbee.

No Warrant of Law. When they learned that the State Federation of Labor was about to send a committee to Bisbee to investigate industrial conditions, the vigilance committee met and took up the question of whether they should be admitted or turned back. The decision was practically unanimous to turn back the committee, and the marshal was ordered to see that they did not enter the district. The judgment of the committee was carried out.

Attorney General Jones pointed out to the members that there was no warrant of law for the existence of the committee or its course in deporting citizens from the community, but the committeeman flatly told Mr. Jones that they intended continuing their sittings and ordering and executing deportations as long as the I. W. W. activity continued, as to do otherwise would cut off copper production there.

HOPKINS OF CHEYENNE ASSISTANT TO LANE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Selden G. Hopkins of Cheyenne, Wyo., was nominated today by President Wilson to be assistant secretary of the interior, succeeding the late B. Sweeney.

INSURANCE FOR SOLDIERS

the methods to be pursued in re-educating and rehabilitating injured men. Two principles, however, are recognized: The man's obligation to avail himself of such opportunities as the government may provide under penalty of loss of compensation during "any period of unreasonable refusal," and a man's right to disability compensation regardless of his individual economic recuperation.

When disability results in death, dependents would receive from $45 to $60 a month, the sum again being rated according to the circumstances of the dependents. All insurance of this character, the bill provides, would be "non-assignable and free from the claims either of the insured or of the beneficiary." It would be limited to wife, children and other specified kindred.

PRESIDENT TAFT BETTER, NOT YET OUT OF DANGER

CLAY CENTER, Kan., Aug. 10.—Physicians attending Former President William H. Taft, who is ill at a local hotel, determined this morning to give him the first food he had eaten since the attack of intestinal trouble early Tuesday morning.

"Mr. Taft is somewhat better this morning," Dr. B. F. Morgan said. "He has no temperature above normal, and, although weak, is most cheerful and more like himself than at any time since he became ill."

The decision to give nourishment to the former president was made after he himself had asked for food. He will be given an egg and toast, Dr. Morgan said, that being his patient's wish.

"I don't want to say the danger mark has passed," Dr. Morgan declared, after having visited Mr. Taft for the first time since last night, when he was sleeping easily. "That would not be entirely correct. However, I do not think at any time there has been any immediate danger. I was a little afraid of conditions that might develop. Mr. Taft passed a very good night, and I should say that he is somewhat better. He conversed this morning in a way he did not do yesterday, when he talked very little. He is more like himself today than he has been."

Dr. Morgan gave out a statement last night, saying that Mr. Taft's illness was due to intestinal trouble, and that it might clear up suddenly or might continue for several days. At any event, he declared, the former president should not resume his speaking tour until Monday.

Mr. Taft, Dr. Morgan said, had taken no nourishment since Tuesday. Because of this, it was difficult to prophesy the exact course of the illness.

ELIMINATE LABOR TROUBLES IN CONTRACTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Possibility of important government contracts being impeded seriously by labor disputes virtually is eliminated by the creation of a special commission with extraordinary powers to settle industrial troubles. The Council of National Defense, which reorganized the board, will award contracts only to those who will abide by the decisions of the board and require their employees to do so. There are to be nine members of the board—three representing employers, labor, three the employers and three the government.

of the several nations, particularly socialist labor comrades of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey, whether it is not possible for the united action of the working class of the world to bring this monstrous conflict to a summary conclusion conformable to the principles of the international.

After welcoming the formula of no annexations and no indemnities of the Council of Workmen and Soldiers' delegates, the memorandum declares:

No More Warfare.

"Of all war aims, none is so important as that there should henceforth on earth be no more war. Whoever triumphs, the world will have lost unless some effective method of preventing war can be found."

For this reliance is largely placed upon the "complete democratization of Germany and Austria-Hungary, which now cannot fail to place themselves in line with other civilized nations, an frank abandonment of every form of imperialism, on the suppression of secret diplomacy, on the placing of the foreign policy under control of elected legislators, on the absolute responsibility of the foreign minister of each country to the legislature, on concerted action for the limitation of armaments and the abolition of profit-making of armament firms."

It is further declared that the essential condition of a treaty of peace will be the establishment of a "supranational authority or league of nations, adhered to by all present belligerents, while every other independent state in the world should be pressed to join."

JOY AND SORROW MINGLE IN CAMP OF COMPANY C

There was a mixture of joy and sadness in the camp of C company yesterday and today, the sadness being due to the probable fatal injury of Von Hindenburg, the company mascot, and the joy to a letter from Colonel Barr, commander of the Vancouver barracks post, praising the heroic conduct of two members of the company.

Von Hindenburg was injured near Central Point yesterday while marching with the company. The dog's condition today was still serious and no hopes are held out for his recovery.

Struck by Automobile.

The much-loved mascot and pet, who has been with the company for the past four months, always accompanied the command on its hikes, and when the company started to march to Central Point yesterday morning, as usual he took up his place in the rear.

Near Central Point the dog ran out from behind the company just in time to be run over by a swift passing automobile which had neglected to blow its horn. Von was badly injured internally, but so far as can be ascertained no bones were broken. On the return march from Central Point Von was tenderly carried back to camp, where everything possible was done to alleviate his suffering. Nicotine, the company cat, even coming up and rubbing her nose against him in sympathy. Doc Helms, the veterinary surgeon, has the patient in charge.

Corporal Hugh McDonald and Private Depp are the two heroes commended by Colonel Barr in his letter to Captain Crossley for their brave action in stopping a runaway and thereby saving two children from death.

Bravely Stopped Runaway.

A few days before the company left Portland for Medford, Corporal McDonald and Private Depp, who were guarding the interstate bridge over the Columbia, saw a runaway team of horses attached to a wagon coming toward them on the bridge at breakneck speed. McDonald seized the horses by the bridles and at the same time Depp leaped into the wagon and seized the reins, and between them they brought the horses to a standstill. In the wagon were the two children of Captain Allan Smith of the Vancouver barracks, aged 7 and 5 years.

It seems that the children were playing in the wagon at the army post during the absence of the driver, when the horses frightened at something and dashed away. Mounted troops from the post started in pursuit of the runaway, but were unable to stop the horses, and this failure made the brave and athletic feat of the Company C soldiers all the more conspicuous.

Colonel Barr's letter, which was also commendatory of the company as a whole, was read to the command by Captain Crossley yesterday.

Instead of having a practice march to some point today, C company is having bayonet practice in camp and other violent exercises.

Lemons Beautify! Make Quarter Pint of Lotion Cheap

Here is told how to prepare an inexpensive lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness, softness, whiteness and beauty.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice thru a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothenor and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself.

SPOTTED SEASON FOR ALASKA FISHERIES

County Commissioner Frank H. Madden has returned from a summer spent at the three salmon canneries operated by Madden and Hanley in Alaska. Speaking of the salmon outlook, Mr. Madden said:

"The season has been 'spotted,' good in some locations; poor in others. The run was generally late and has been uneven. Many canneries will have but a fraction of the catch they prepared for, others will have a fair pack. Speaking as a whole, however, the pack will not be a large one. Our new cannery on Prince Rupert Sound promises a good pack, with six weeks season remaining, but the pack at our Copper River plant will be very small, due to overflowing the stream. When we built the cannery, we were pioneers and had that field, now, however, there are five canneries, none of them probably profitable. Between our own three different canneries, however, we will average a fair pack."

"It now looks as if the Puget Sound season would be a comparative failure. But a short time remains and there is no considerable pack."

Mr. Madden will remain over for the county court meeting next Monday to pass upon the application for the creation of an irrigation district.
