The first shipment of canned fruit donations for the Seventh company was sent to Fort Columbia last night.

The express charges were $5.78. "I wish to express my sincere thanks to the ladies of Medford and the valley for their liberal donations of canned goods," said L. B. Warner, who originated the plan of sending canned fruits to the Seventh company, today. "Those who have not had the privilege of donating fruit may send in what they have to spare next week when another shipment will be made."

Jens Jensen, proprietor of a pool and billiard hall, was fined $10 and costs by Acting Police Judge Gates today on the charge of permitting a boy under 16 years old, to loiter in his place. The fine was then suspended as Jensen himself, also responsible, was away at home when the offense was committed, and as, according to the boy himself, Jensen and his clerk had repeatedly ordered him out of the place and told him not to come in. Mayor Gates, however, made it plain to Jensen that if there was a repetition of the offense by himself or felek his pool and billiard hall license would be revoked.

A two-dollar per capita tax will be soon levied upon every Elk in the United States for the purpose of building a base hospital for wounded soldiers in France. As the Elks order has 500,000 members, one million dollars will be available for the hospital and its maintenance. The Medford Elks lodge share toward this fund will be $1200, as the lodge has over 600 members.

Changes have been made in the offices in the city building. Treasurer Samuels and Recorder Alford have traded offices as the heavy work of the past few months in the recorder's office is now over, and the treasurer's work is the heaviest and requires the most space. The four extra clerks employed in the recorder's office for some time past were dispensed with the first of August, and Miss Mary Haswell is now the only employe of the office outside of Recorder Alford.

ICE CREAM FOR THE CHILDREN

Children can not eat too much Velvet Ice Cream. It's the best thing for them. Doctors and Food Experts tell us it has more Real Food Qualities and can build more actual strength than most of the food we are now eating, and furthermore it's a real tissue builder. That's why you should give plenty of it to the children—they need anything that will give them more strength or act as a tissue builder.
