

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Mrs. J. W. Hays, Jr., of Snohomesh, Wash., accompanied by her two sons, came Monday morning to visit at the home of J. W. Hays, Sr. Mrs. R. M. Nicholson returned to her home near Weed, Sunday evening after spending a couple of days with friends in this city. Mrs. Gwendolyn Marvin of Medford came Saturday evening to spend Sunday at the home of her parents in this city. Bobbie Turner went thru Gold Hill Sunday night, to his folks at Klamath Falls on a short furlough, expecting to return next Sunday. T. J. West spent Sunday at his home in this city. Quite a number of friends called informally on Mrs. Haight and daughter Laura, Tuesday evening, prior to their leaving for a visit in Portland and their old home, Nebraska. James Burns of Galls Creek was in Gold Hill Wednesday. Mrs. Ullman of Portland who has been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Enoch Smith, the past month, returned Saturday evening to her home. Mr. and Mrs. John Cook of Sams Valley were in town Tuesday. Clarence Cook spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Gold Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weston of Dorris, Calif., motored to Gold Hill Sunday morning to visit with Mrs. Elmira Miller; they made the trip to Medford Saturday in eight hours, having left Dorris at 2:00 p. m., arriving in Medford at 10:00 p. m. Mrs. Laura Hammersley and son, Vernie, returned to this city Sunday afternoon after spending the week with relatives in Rogue River. It seems impossible to keep our boys home yet, for as soon as they return, having completed one job near Medford, they telephone until they locate another, and then off again. Surely patriotism is displayed by these, a few years too young to enlist. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Meritt had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Victor Burcell of Central Point. In the afternoon an extensive auto trip was taken into Sams Valley and Ramsey canyon route to Rogue River and return by the Pacific Highway from that city. The Central Point visitors returned late the same evening. Mrs. F. Zana of Ashland came Monday to attend to business matters in connection with some of their properties in this city. J. W. Heeron and wife have moved into their property on Fifth avenue known as the Meyers home. Mrs. Charles Lyman and daughter Grace, who have been visiting the past two months at the ranch home of George Lyman, three miles north of Gold Hill, returned to their home in Los Angeles Tuesday morning. Considerable interest is aroused by the report of the presence of some "Standard Oil" men in the Sams Valley district. Here's hoping it's for "good." H. A. Vogel, Ph. D., is here from the east inspecting his ranch property in Sams Valley. Miss Agnes Flippen went Wednesday morning to spend the day in Medford. Her sister Marie is with Mrs. Kiney in her absence.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

The stacking of grain is nearing completion in this district. A. L. Vipont lost a valuable work horse one day last week. Mrs. J. H. Lydiard has returned from a visit with relatives in California. Miss Myrtle Byrum, who has been spending several days with relatives in the Applegate district, is again at home. E. W. Carlton and his sisters are spending a few days camping in northern California. Clark and Joe Collins have gone to eastern Oregon, where they are helping with the grain harvest. Grandpa Vincent, in a fierce combat with a huge rattlesnake, proves himself master of the situation, although this only weapon was an air gun, and that not loaded. The Pendleton family and E. T. May and family were fishing in Evans creek last Sunday and report a bountiful catch. R. E. Nealon, accompanied by C. A. Dickson and Mr. Calkins of Sherwood, were taking in the sights on the road to Crater lake last Tuesday. Calkins' first visit to the lake, and he could hardly find words to express his appreciation of this wonderful sight. One feature of the trip to the lake which should not be overlooked is the excellent service and beautiful meals to be had at the Prospect hotel. Miss Grace Lydiard has arrived from Los Angeles and is spending a much-needed vacation with home folks. Miss Mildred Persons left last week for Petaluma, Cal., where she will stay with her aunt and attend high school. Miss Mildred intends to prepare herself for the duties of a school teacher and her many friends in this district believe she will win out. The picking of pears was begun in the Finley orchard last Wednesday, the work being done by the Table Rock Honor Guard. Stanley Lydiard is erecting an eighty-ton silo, which he purchased from the Big Pines Lumber Co. R. C. Washburn and wife have returned from an extended trip thru the middle west. Sanford Richardson and family of Ross Lane visited relatives here last Sunday. J. Percy Wells and wife were visitors at the Pendleton home Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wells are leaving for Hyaburg, Alaska, where Mr. Wells will combine the duties of storekeeper, postmaster and school-teacher for the United States government. Robert Smith, who has been employed at the Table Rock orchard for several years, left for his old home in Georgia. During Mr. Smith's long stay in this community he has made many friends, who regret his departure. A crew of men with the big tractor from the Riverside ranch have been engaged in plowing at the Modoc orchard for the last few days. Many inquiries for oats are being received by our farmers, one man representing the Twoby Bros. wanted 100 tons. No less than five life insurance agents have visited this section during the last month, their largest stock in trade seeming to be the telling of how the agent preceding them misrepresented things. The country would probably be better off if the whole bunch were drafted into the harvest fields. The Jackson County cream car will pass thru here on Wednesday hereafter instead of Sunday. Miss Florence Kincaid and Roland Flaherty of Agate, who were married last Tuesday, are both well known in this district, where a host of friends wish them success and happiness. Thomas Perdue of the Weed Lumber Co. was over this way the first of the week in search of laborers for the lumber camps. Mr. Perdue claims that he made the trip in a Ford car from Weed to this place, which is more than 100 miles, with just two and one-half gallons of gasoline, which is a marvelous record. C. A. Dickson of Sherwood, Or., acted as host to a party of some fifty friends who met on the river bank south of the Nealon ranch, Monday night, August 13. The woods were lighted up by Japanese lanterns and huge bonfires, making it possible for the young folks to play many games. About midnight a large packer of ice cream and many fine cakes were served as refreshments, and all went away claiming this to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

SAMS VALLEY

Mr. Griffin, union Sunday school agent from Medford, interviewed some of our people Saturday evening in the interest of organizing a Sunday school here. Thru his efforts a Sunday school was organized Sunday with the following officers, subject to change: Superintendent, W. W. Edgington; assistant, Mrs. S. B. Stoner; secretary, Miss Lorraine Lyman; treasurer, William Straus; librarian, Glenn Koger. As we have needed a Sunday school for many years in our district, we hope everyone will co-operate to make it a success. The little Shultz baby, who has been very ill, we are glad to report, is fast improving. Saturday evening the road was almost blocked with a troupe of merry-makers, consisting of most of our young people, who wended their way to the river for a weenie roast. The Tresham threshing machine was put into operation Monday. The crew was composed mostly of the grain growers of this district. Henry Vogie, one of the parties interested in the Straus ranch, is visiting at the Straus home. He expects to return to his home in Iowa soon. Jesse Gilchrist, family and friends, and W. C. Kenney and wife composed a recent party of Crater lake viewers, making the trip in two days. John Jones, who was taken to the doctor Sunday evening with a severe case of tonsillitis, has fully recovered. Mrs. M. E. Lyman and daughter, Grace, of California, who have been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law, George Lyman, left for their home Tuesday morning. Miss Grace will be greatly missed among the young people. A change for the better has been noticed in the condition of Grandma Edgington. Work is being done on the road between the Wilson and Moore ranches, which is a great improvement, as by widening the road it is much more convenient for passing carts and teams. Agnes Flippen is in Medford having dental work done. Mrs. W. C. Kenney and children visited relatives in Central Point Tuesday. D. C. Wilson attended business in Medford several days last week. Dick Straus and H. A. Vogel accompanied Mr. Newman of Gold Hill to Medford and back Friday. M. A. Shultz returned Monday from a several days' hunting trip in the Salt Lake region. No luck reported. Miss Eva Nealon returned to Table Rock after visiting relatives. She was accompanied home by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nealon, who visited Sunday at the Wilson ranch. ASHLAND AND VICINITY Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Badger of Oakland, Cal., are here for an extended visit, accompanied by their son Raymond. Mrs. Badger came by train, father and son making the trip in the family car via Eureka, Crescent City and Grants Pass. Mr. Badger's stay will be limited, owing to business engagements in Oakland. J. B. Icenhower is about to move his second-hand stock from 74 North Main to 389 East Main, near Brown's west market. Cecil C. Clemens and Grace P. Smith, both of Medford, were married here on Tuesday at the home of T. M. Lynch by Rev. W. T. Van Seoy. In line with recommendations of various Masonic grand bodies, the dues of members serving in the army are to be remitted. About a dozen belonging to local affiliations as represented by Ashland Lodge, No. 23, and Siskiyou Chapter, No. 21, will thus be exempted from these financial obligations. The annual meeting of the Chautauqua association will be held on Tuesday evening, September 4, at Chautauqua hall. Election of officers will be in order, together with financial statements and the presentation of sundry reports. D. M. Lowe, dry farmer and fair promoter, has returned from the Willamette valley with several head of fine cattle for his model ranch in the Valleyview district. W. W. Caldwell's holdings on Oak street, corner of Nevada, consisting of residence and lots, have been sold thru the Beaver Realty Agency to Carl Laack of North Dakota, who will occupy the premises with his family. A lecture on motor car appliances, accompanied by film illustrations of noted auto manufacturing plants, will be given at the Vining on Monday evening, August 27. Following close upon the announcement that paving operations would soon begin on Farnham hill comes the rash statement that the proprietors of the old opera house lot, corner Main street and Pioneer avenue, stand ready to commence building a modern structure on these premises by September 1. The city council has prohibited camping in Ashland canyon above the lower intake, an edict which is as perennial as "the flowers that bloom in the spring, tra la."
