$500 FINE, SIX MONTHS IN JAIL FOR BOOTLEGGING

By paraphrasing a biblical saying it is no exaggeration to write that the ways of the Oregon bootlegger are hard. So think Rankin Estes of Medford and C. H. Smith of Portland as they sit in their cells in the county jail today pondering on what might have been and what is. They will have many days to ponder, too, for each is now serving out a sentence of $500 fine and six months in the county jail, pronounced against them yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Taylor after they had pleaded guilty to importing intoxicating liquor into the state. They had hoped by pleading guilty to escape with a lenient sentence, but Justice Taylor gave them the limit because he regarded them as professional bootleggers. They were arrested on the Pacific highway in the Siskiyou late Wednesday night while returning from Hornbrook, and in their two cars the arresting officers found about 80 gallons of whiskey. Find Booze in House. Last evening Sheriff Jennings and Deputy Sheriff Anderson searched Estes' home and found there 35 more quarts of whiskey. Estes' pool hall has been suppressed as a public nuisance by Prosecutor Roberts and was closed up today. Roberts told Estes yesterday that he would have to voluntarily close the place or he would begin legal proceedings to have it suppressed as a public nuisance. Estes, who had planned to have another man operate the place while he was in jail, then decided to close it up. The mystery as to the identity of the Portland man arrested with Estes was cleared up yesterday afternoon when in court he gave his name as C. H. Smith. The car in which he was bringing the booze from Hornbrook was a Chalmers six whose license number is 29118. The owner of this license number is Dr. Z. L. Dimmick of Grants Pass. Relonged in Grants Pass. When Dr. Dimmick was apprised last night that his auto was mixed up in a bootlegging case, he explained that some time ago he turned the car over to Clarence Smith of Portland, his brother-in-law, who was to trade it for his own in Portland. The doctor did not know that his brother-in-law for the car were in southern Oregon until told over the phone last night of the arrest. Dr. Dimmick was both to believe that Smith was engaged in the bootlegging business. This afternoon W. J. George, a clerk in Estes' pool hall, who was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging that he and Estes had sold whiskey in the pool hall, will be tried before Justice Taylor. Prosecutor Roberts said today that no more arrests were to be made in connection with the bootlegging operations of Estes and Smith, as so far as he could learn no one else was engaged in the unlawful business with either of them. He also stated that Estes and Smith were working independently and just happened to meet at Hornbrook and decided to drive back to Medford together.

SHERIFF DESTROYS 112 GALLONS OF SEIZED WHISKEY

There was excitement in Jacksonville Friday, when Sheriff Jennings and Deputy Sheriffs Anderson and Stansell destroyed 112 gallons of whiskey, by pouring it into Jackson creek. The ordeal of witnessing such a wanton waste of (to them) precious fluid was almost too much for a number of the old-timers of the town, and those who were not running around aimlessly with their tongues hanging out of parched throats were in a dazed, tear-bedimmed condition. The destroyed whiskey was that taken in the bootlegging captures of Rankin Estes and C. H. Smith of Portland on the Siskiyou Wednesday night, and the raids on Estes' pool hall and home in this city yesterday. The whiskey was destroyed in accordance with the law, by order of County Prosecutor Roberts. Last week, by Prosecutor Roberts' orders, another large quantity of whiskey taken from captured bootleggers was destroyed by being poured into Bear Creek. On these occasions of destroying confiscated liquors the officers always have competent witnesses present.

Percy and Moran, the owners and managers of the theater, were the recipients of many warm congratulations. A much appreciated feature of both shows last night was the music by the Symphony Orchestra organ which was played by a skilled professional. Rex Beach's "The Barrier," the opening attraction, will be given today and Saturday with matinees at 2 p. m. and evening shows at 7 and 9 p. m.

The mine cannot be operated again until the power facilities have been restored. H. L. Walther, manager of this district, and W. M. FOOD CONTROLLER ASKS WOMEN OF STATE TO ASSIST

W. B. Ayer, Federal Food Commissioner for Oregon, is desirous of enlisting the services of every Oregon housewife in the Hoover food conservation plan. With an earnest plea for its serious consideration, he has sent out the following message. To the Women of Oregon:—The greatest opportunity for patriotic service since the war commenced is offered to the housewives of the state. The season of perishable fruits and vegetables is upon us. The value of the thousands of war gardens planted in response to the president's appeal will depend upon the effort made now to preserve their products. Let every housewife be a soldier in the food army. Can and dry everything not required for immediate use. Let nothing go to waste. Foods preserved for home use will release other supplies for our soldiers at the front. There will undoubtedly be high prices and scarcity of many articles next winter. Those who provide for the future now will have little to worry about then. For recipes describing effective and inexpensive methods of canning, drying and pickling call upon Oregon Agricultural College or the Department of Agriculture at Washington. Many of these recipes supplied for your service in the daily newspapers. Let these not be a minute's delay or the waste of a pound of food that can be preserved. Our boys are proud to fight for our homes and liberty; let no woman be too proud to do her bit in conserving the food supply.

SALMON PACKERS ASKED TO RESERVE 10 PER CENT PACK

SEATTLE, Aug. 31.—Federal authorities today asked salmon packers to reserve 10 instead of 6 per cent of their pack of higher grade fish for government uses. Thus far this request applies to sockeyes and chinooks, but it is believed among packers that 10 per cent of the humpbacks or pinks will be taken as well. The estimate of 6 per cent for government requirements was made before the salmon run, when the American Canning company's estimate of $,000,000 cases of this was generally accepted as a conservative estimate of the pack. On this basis the federal officials believed that 6 per cent of the salmon canned on the Pacific coast would meet all federal needs. Since the Puget Sound sockeye pack has fallen off to approximately 25 per cent of the pack of 1913, there has been a general revision of government requirements. Working on a safe basis it has been declared to packers that a reservation of 10 per cent for government needs may be required. The Alaska pack has not yet been reported, but should show a slight increase. Reports from the Columbia river are indefinite. The extent of the Puget sound pack will not be known for two months. The run of humpbacks, or pinks, is now good and apparently the fish are approaching the height of the run. If this is true the fish will continue to come for some time and the cannery may have more than 600,000 cases of pinks.
