KORNILOFF HEADS RUSSIAN REVOLT AND IS DEPOSED

preme power. General Klenbovsky was appointed commander-in-chief. Premier Kerensky has issued the following proclamation:

Kerensky's Proclamation. "On September 8 a member of the Duma, M. Lvoff, arrived in Petrograd and called upon me, in the name of General Korniloff, to hand over all civil and military powers to the generalissimo, who would form a new government at his pleasure. The authenticity of this summons was afterwards confirmed by General Korniloff himself, who had a conversation with me over the direct telegraphic wire between Petrograd and main headquarters.

"Considering the summons, addressed through me to the provisional government, as an attempt by certain quarters to profit by the difficult situation of the country, and establish a state of things contrary to the conquests of the revolution, the provisional government has recognized the necessity of charging me, for the safety of the republican regime, to take the urgent, indispensable measures necessary to cut at the root all attempts against the supreme power and rights of the citizens won by the revolution.

Korniloff Removed. "I therefore, for the maintenance in the country of liberty and public order, am taking all measures which I shall announce at the proper moment to the people. At the same time I order General Korniloff to hand over his functions to General Klenbovsky, commander in chief of the armies of the northern front, which bar the way to Petrograd, and order General Klenbovsky to assume provisionally the functions of generalissimo, while remaining at Pskov.

"Secondly, I declare a state of war in the town and district of Petrograd. "I appeal to all citizens to remain calm, maintain the order necessary for the faith of the fatherland, army and navy, and tranquilly and faithfully fulfill their duty in the defense, fatherland against the foreign enemy."

Due to death penalty. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Russian embassy officials believe the resignation of General Korniloff was forced by elements of the council of workmen and soldiers' delegates opposed to enforcement of the death penalty for mutinous soldiers and that General Klenbovsky, the new commander, will modify the death penalty order.

Representatives of the workmen and soldiers' in the Kerensky cabinet, it was pointed out, have been dissatisfied with the stringent measures adopted to restore the Russian army to discipline, fearing the power might menace the new democratic ideals of the republic.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Later today some dispatches reached the embassy from the Russian foreign office and altho the contents were not revealed, officials remarked:

"It is a very serious moment for Russia."

DAVIS RESIGNS JOB ON HIGHWAY

Discord is raging among minor officials in charge of the road building and improvement work in the Siskiyou division of the Pacific highway, as a result of which Peril Davis, state supervising foreman of the division and several others have resigned their positions.

State Highway Commissioner Nunn arrived in the city today and at once went to the Siskiyou to endeavor to adjust the trouble and restore harmony.

Mr. Davis who has been the foreman ever since the highway work was begun, was in the city today and will remain here until he hears from Mr. Nunn. It is understood that there has been friction ever since the California contractor, who has the contract for grading the highway, began work and that Davis and others declare it is an impossibility to work in harmony or get along with the superintendent of this contractor.

OBITUARY

Geo. R. Brobeck died on Saturday, September 8, 1917, at his home at Maryme orchard, on King's Highway, aged 63 years and 20 days.

Deceased was born at Circleville, Ohio, August 19, 1854. He leaves a widow, two sons, Carl S. and Walter E.; two daughters, the Misses Georgia and Zula, two sisters and one brother. He had been a resident of Medford nine years.

Funeral services, under the auspices of the National Bible Students' association, will be held at Peril's chapel, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

M. P. DAVIS FOUND DEAD IN HIS CABIN

The body of M. P. Davis was found at the Ray mine at the head of Palmer creek early Friday morning by Amos McKee, who was hunting cattle in the mountains. Davis had been dead probably a week and the body was badly decomposed.

He was in bed in his cabin and had apparently passed away in his sleep. The body was brought to this city, where it will be held for the arrival of his sister, who resides at Redding, Cal.

Davis was about 50 years old and unmarried. He was well known in southern Oregon and northern California as a prospector. Last year, he was said, took about $700 from a prospect in the vicinity of the cabin in which he died.

City Water Superintendent Arnsperger is contemplating calling off all water restrictions within the next few days. As soon as he reaches a decision the taking off of the restrictions will be advertised in the Mail Tribune.

JAZZ ORCHESTRA FOR THE COUNTY FAIR

The Jazz orchestra from the Oregon Grill, Portland, has been secured to furnish the music for the five nights' dancing to be held in the Natatorium during the county fair, which commences September 18.

This is the same musical organization that made the Ashland platform dances famous during the round-up last July.

In obtaining the services of Portland's best "jazzers," the Fair Association feel that they have gone the limit to bring each evening's entertainment up to the highest point of perfection.

If the "jazz" rage takes hold of Medford's dancing element like it has in Portland and elsewhere throughout the country, then the Fair week promises to be one of great merriment.

MATERNITY

Maternity and "Mother's Friend" have long been thought of together. "Mother's Friend" is a safe external preparation for expectant mothers. By its regular use the fine network of nerves just beneath the skin are soothed and stretching pains are avoided. The abdominal muscles relax easily when baby arrives and the form is preserved. "Mother's Friend" makes it possible for the mother to be herself and to aid nature. By so doing pain is avoided at the crisis. Do not neglect to give nature a helping hand. Ask for a bottle of "Mother's Friend" at your druggist's. Buy and write for valuable book, "Mothers' Friend and the Baby." It is free. Address: The Bradwell Regulator Co., Dept. P, 209 Lamar Building, Atlanta, Ga.

COAL REPLACES WOOD AS FUEL CITY SCHOOLS

The public schools of Medford will be heated with coal instead of wood this year and, incidentally, the school board has beaten the wood dealers' trust. The board also estimates that by using coal it will save at least one-third the usual annual heating expense.

W. E. Phipps, as the special fuel subcommittee of the board, has ordered 150 tons of best grade Washington state soft coal, and it is understood that this coal will be laid down here and delivered at about $9 a ton. Board members claim that one ton of coal will go as far as two cords of high-grade fir wood. Mr. Phipps ordered the coal with the full approval of the board.

The best bid that the board could get for 325 cords of wood was about $7 a cord. It is claimed by the board that the wood dealers did everything they could to prevent the board from getting any wood at a lower price; that the dealers even put in bids at low and reasonable prices and then after a time withdrew them in the hope that the board would have to pay the dealers' price rather than delay longer. The board also says that the dealers would follow board members around the state and whenever the board had a wood deal pending at a reasonable price would overbid it.

While it is admitted by the board that wood is cleaner to burn than coal, yet its members claim that the janitors of the schools can so regulate the handling of the coal as to cause comparatively little dirt and soot.

KAISER RULES SOCIALISTS.

from Germany. But the promoters of the congress are so violent and rabid in their pro-Germanism that they made a deliberate effort to give the plan of an immediate peace based on German victory at least three-quarters of the delegates—even assuming that the French and British really entered into the conference as official participants.

There are to be 202 delegates at the conference. Of these, 155 are from groups which have declared themselves in favor of an immediate peace on the basis desired by the German socialists.

Manipulation Shown. If we examine the number of votes allotted to the various nations and to various socialist factions, we find some astounding manipulations aimed at making the German control of the meeting more secure. We must understand that all international socialist gatherings have admitted labor unions on equal terms with the socialist parties. But the French, British and American labor unions are overwhelmingly against any kind of German peace. Therefore the representation of labor unions has been discontinued (with one slight exception) for the coming congress.

This stroke has cut any possibility of a strong pro-entente delegation in half. The American, British and French unions might not consent to attend, but the congress then ceases to be an international socialist and labor congress as all its predecessors have been—and it can make no further claim whatever to represent the "working class" of the world.

Peddling of Votes. Next we find an amazing peddling of the votes of all the neutral countries which Germany expects to control. While the great powers are given only 20 votes each, Hungary is given 8—which provides Austria-Hungary with a total of 28, while Italy has only 10, Sweden is given 12 votes, more than Italy, while Denmark obtains 10, Finland 5 and Norway 6. In view of the small population of these countries and the relatively small number of working-men, this representation is preposterous.

yet these are the very countries where pro-Germanism is strongest. On the other hand, a country like Spain, where socialists are pro-entente, is given only 2 votes. It is probable that in both of those two countries the "working class" is more numerous than in Sweden.

No convention was ever called by Tammany Hall or any other corrupt and abandoned political organization in the world on a more corrupt and shameless partisan basis. If we note the turn of the call for the meeting we find an equally aggressive pro-German bias. The delegates are all pledged in advance.

MAYOR IS INDICTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ill., Sept. 10.—Mayor Fred Mollman of East St. Louis and his private secretary, Maurice Ahearn, were indicted today in connection with the grand jury inquest into the recent race riots in East St. Louis. Indictments were returned against 37 other persons in connection with the riots, but their names were withheld as the capias for their arrest had not been issued.

The grand jury submitted a report condemning the mayor for his alleged dilatoriness in taking means to curb the rioters, who took part in the killing of negroes on July 2, and recommended that he be removed from office.
