Sergeant James Brooks who has been marine recruiting officer in Medford for the past six months, has received word from the Portland marine recruiting headquarters that Sergeant B. J. Martin will arrive in the city Friday to relieve Brooks from recruiting duty here. Sergeant Brooks and his wife and son will leave for Portland in a few days, he having been detailed to duty at the headquarters office.

Dr. Helne fits glasses correctly. Dr. H. C. Reik, the famous surgeon on the faculty of Johns Hopkins university of Baltimore, and who is the leading expert in color photography in the United States, returned last night with Will G. Steel from Crater Lake and departed for San Francisco. Dr. Reik, who is touring the national parks, arrived in the city last Sunday and left with Mr. Steel that day for Crater Lake. He obtained some excellent results in color photography while at the lake. Two years ago his hand was crippled by an accident which prevented him doing further active work in surgery and it was then that he took up the study of color photography in which he has won world recognition.

The downfall of rain Wednesday night made it seem like old times—winter times—and was much needed in the valley. The rain fell in sufficient quantity for hours to do the fruit and other crops much good. The weather bureau reports that the fall was .2 of an inch. However the downpour caused no end of trouble to the trucks that were hauling fruit to the packing houses and several trucks became stalled in the deep mud and were put out of business for the night. Most of the trucks discontinued hauling about midnight, but took up the work again this morning. Fruit picking was resumed this forenoon. The weather report for tonight and tomorrow predicts probable rain.

D. M. Lowe, who is working over the county to secure an exhibit for the state fair, says the interest in the county fair is wonderful and the exhibits promise to be very large. There is a big rivalry regarding the district exhibits, as the prizes are big, and this will be an interesting department of the fair. He says there is liable to be a shortage of potatoes and onions because the average grower thinks his products are smaller than they should be, but Mr. Lowe says exhibit them anyway as the size will be smaller this year.

The ladies should remember there is still plenty of time to arrange and prepare exhibits for the county fair. The entries do not close until Tuesday evening, and nearly every lady or girl has some work of art, fancy work, canned fruit or vegetables, flowers, etc., they can show and stand an equal chance to win the prizes. Telephone Mrs. Jap Andrews if you do not understand about the exhibits, but start now to prepare your exhibits.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 13.—Because of the increased demand for gasoline and other oils, members of the National Petroleum association, in convention here, said they look for higher prices in the near future for those products. The supply of petrroleum, some of the members told the convention yesterday, is dwindling and there is no hope of increasing the production while the war lasts.

SEATTLE SHIPYARDS TO BE TIED UP BY GENERAL STRIKE

SEATTLE, Sept. 13.—A strike of more than 5000 union shipwrights and joiners and shipyard laborers has been ordered to begin in Seattle shipyards tomorrow morning to enforce the boycott declared Sept. 1 by the Seattle Central Labor council, the Seattle Building Trades council and the Seattle District Council of Carpenters against lumber turned out by mills operating on a ten-hour workday basis.

The general strike was ordered at a conference held this morning before representatives of the Seattle Metal Trades council, the International Union of Timber Workers and the Shingle Weavers' International union.

The strike will tie up at once every wooden shipyard in the city, the union representatives declare, and within less than a week will stop work in all the steel shipyards as well.

This would mean the enforced idleness of at least 15,000 union workmen.

Harry W. Kent, secretary-treasurer of the Seattle Construction & Drydock company, declared at noon today that his company had received no official notification of any threatened strike on the ten-hour lumber.

The strike ordered for tomorrow morning is entirely separate and distinct from the strike that recently threatened the shipyards over a demand for a general increase in wages amounting to about 35 per cent.

The wage controversy is looked upon as virtually settled by action taken by the United States shipping board in Washington, D. C.

GERMANS SET FIRES CATHEDRAL OF ST. QUENTIN

PARIS, Sept. 3.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The Germans, according to the French claim, not only deliberately caused the fires that have partially ruined the beautiful and famous cathedral of St. Quentin, but pillaged the city before they set fire to part of it.

The vandalism is laid to the door of officers and soldiers of the 116th and 117th regiments of the Twenty-fifth German division, and more or less directly to the commanders of these units, respectively Colonel Gijng, Colonel Klotz, and General Von Scharfenstein, who are charged with having ordered a systematic pillage of St. Quentin as soon as they entered the city.

Officers with soldiers to do the heavy work went about the city, it is claimed, and carried off furniture, silverware, pianos and valuable pictures and shipped them to Germany. They even took safes filled with valuables and did it openly, piling their loot on to vans in midday.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—An embargo on cotton was indorsed today by Senators Smith of Georgia and Williams of Mississippi, both of whom told the senate it would have no effect on the market and that the supply this year will fall 700,000 bales below last year's consumption, including shipments to neutrals.

Senator Williams charged that opposition to the embargo only was part of impeding passage of the war measures.
