

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

John E. Olmstead has decided to quit the grocery business and will close out his stock and fixtures at once. He has been in the grocery business in Medford for the past 11 years. Mr. Olmstead says he has no other business in view at the present time, or reason for discontinuing the grocery business other than he just decided to quit it.

Dr. Heine fits glasses correctly. Harry Rosenberg left last night for Seattle to be absent some time on business and pleasure. Dave Rosenberg leaves Saturday to attend the state fair at Salem next week. Fresh huckleberries. Phone 680. —156

At noon today negotiations were completed for the sale of Arthur Hazellrigg's bungalow residence on Roosevelt avenue to Mrs. Jennie D. Knight, wife of George Knight. The terms of the sale were not given out. Mr. and Mrs. Knight will take possession and move in at once. She is connected with the office of E. M. Wilson, the public accountant, and only recently located in the city from Adin, Calif. Her husband who is still at Adin superintending the shipping of their furniture to Medford, will arrive in the city in a few days.

Alec Taxi. Phone 898. L. P. Kirkland, who, it is understood, is connected with the Pantages circuit, left Thursday evening for San Francisco after a day devoted to business in this city. While here Mr. Kirkland inspected a property on Main street with a view to establishing a vaudeville theater in this city this fall. He is delighted with Medford and its promise of rapid development, declaring that it is the most substantial little city he has found in his travels this year. Mr. Kirkland was somewhat reluctant to discuss his proposition here beyond the statement that he has long had Medford in view as a good location for a vaudeville theater to break the big jump between Portland and San Francisco. Medford Transfer Co. Phone 95.

The Moose lodge has kindly consented to not hold their regular dance Saturday night of this week, on account of the big dance, with jazz orchestra, at the fair. The fair association desires to thank the lodge for this courtesy. All steaks 20c pound. Star Market. Phone 273. 156*

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Folger and daughter, Mrs. R. J. Dodge, left on Thursday evening for a several weeks pleasure visit to New York city and other eastern points. Dr. Heine, eye, ear, nose, throat. Wanted—Some young man to cut the grass each week and water the lawn at the Bert Anderson home. Good chance for a young man who will attend school. See S. S. Smith. 156

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller of Yreka, Calif., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Walther. Johnson for high-class watch repairing. T. E. Pottinger left Thursday evening on a short business trip to Portland. Metz cars at Riverside Garage. 156*

The drafted soldiers from California began passing thru the city yesterday enroute to Camp Lewis, American Lake, Washington. Two long trains of the soldiers passed thru Thursday and at 4 o'clock this morning another long train went by. The young men aboard the trains shouted and cheered all the way from the time the trains entered the city limits. The trains did not stop. Eighteen of these special trains bearing about 10,000 soldiers are scheduled to pass thru the city within the next six days. Each car was covered with characteristic inscriptions telling where the boys wanted the kaiser to be and what they were going to do to him.

Milk-fed veal roast 1 1/2 pound. Star Market. Phone 273. 156* Harry Nordwick, 24 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Nordwick, left this morning for San Francisco where he intends to work for the government as a machinist in the Mare Island naval plant. Should he fail to land a position at the big plant in the government service the patriotic young man will at once enlist in the aviation corps. He is determined to get at doing his bit in the war as soon as possible. Bring your wheat to the Central Point Mills. We handle it in bulk and save you the cost of bags. We are in the market for all kinds of grain.

Mrs. E. B. Besty and Mrs. M. Winches who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hollis left this morning for their homes at Oakland, Calif. Fresh huckleberries. Phone 680. —156

Henry O'Malley, superintendent of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, who is on a tour of inspection thru the coast country, will arrive here next Sunday morning, accompanied by Hugh Mitchell, superintendent of the state bureau of fisheries, and they will at once leave for the government fish hatchery at Trail where Mr. O'Malley will inspect the new work there. Baths, 25c. Hotland Hotel. P. E. Wynkoop, of 829 West 12th street, went to Portland Thursday evening on estate business that may detain him a month.

Metz cars at Riverside Garage. H. E. Wills, of Wenatchee, Washington, is in the city and vicinity to inspect the fruit harvest conditions and, incidentally, to see if there are Rogue river valley farmers who desire to trade their property for real estate in the Upper Columbia territory. Dr. Chas. T. Sweeney, Physician and Surgeon, Phipps Bldg. Phone 36. Tad Tenwald, nephew of John A. Westerlund and brother of Carl Y. Tenwald, and who is well known in Medford, having resided here last winter and spring, is meeting with rapid promotion since he enlisted in the quartermaster's department of the army several months ago. He has just been appointed personal stenographer of Major General Liggett, the commander of the 41st division of the army whose headquarters are at Camp Green, Charlotte, N. C. A year or so ago he won a gold medal in the Colorado state stenographer's contest. He is an expert stenographer and typist. See Dave Wood about that fire insurance policy. Office, Room 404, M. F. & H. Building. Medford Book Store. —156*

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gay have returned from a several days auto trip to Portland.

General upholstery, furniture repaired and refinished, mattresses renovated, feathers steamed and cleaned, carpets and rugs cleaned and relayed. Douglas, 225 S. Riverside. Phone 900-L.

George Wemar is a business visitor in the city today from Roseburg. Prof. W. L. Powers of the O. A. C., who has been delivering addresses at the county fair this week, left this morning for Corvallis.

Pork and beans with pie, 20c. Diamond Restaurant, 127 East 6th St. Mrs. W. P. Gould of Mayten, Cal., who has been here since August 13 in charge of the packing department of the Bear Creek orchard is taking a few days' vacation between the packing of the early and late pear crops which she will spend at home. She left for Mayten this morning. Pot roasts 15c pound. Boil meat 12 1/2c pound. Phone 273. 156*

John Dent has resumed his usual duties at the local office of the Wells Fargo Express company, after having spent two weeks at the Ashland office of the company filling in for an employe there who was on vacation. Johnson for high-class watch repairing. A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Mordoff were at the depot this morning to bid them farewell on their departure for Baltimore, Md., their future home.

The Red Cross has been asked by the Seventh company to furnish more gun wipes. Outing flannel or similar material is used, cut in 2 1/2-inch squares. This is work the children can do, and they are asked to come to Red Cross headquarters on Monday to help prepare them. There is some material on hand, but if anyone has any scraps, they can be used. Each one is asked to bring a pair of scissors and help do their bit. C., who has been delivering a nunun

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Laidley have just received a letter from their son Glen, who is serving in the navy. He has met with several promotions since he enlisted last February, and is now a petty officer serving on one of the navy's largest battleships which at the present time is on war duty in South American waters. Palmer Piano Place, 28 South Central is unloading a carload of pianos today, which were shipped direct from the factory. 151*

Among the tourists and visitors registered at local hotels today are the following: P. A. Wetstein of New York city, A. W. Morey and W. A. McPherson of Los Angeles; J. W. King and Eugene Mann of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Turner of Broken Paw, Neb.; M. C. Maloney of Coos Bay; M. Newfield of Lodi, Calif.; W. E. Dresser of Fresno; R. E. Ferguson and A. K. Ferguson, of Stockton; C. H. Henderson of Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Helms of Spokane, Dr. R. B. Stoddard of Oakland, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. F. Holder, Miss Clara H. Alken, W. C. Hammatt, Carl Wiegelt, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Griffin, C. H. M. Cheady, and Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Murray of San Francisco; and M. J. P. Draper, C. C. Kramer, John Welch Jr., F. S. Johnson, C. J. Lowe, H. G. Posey and P. T. Donovan, of Portland.

"Eversharp" pencils need no sharpening. Cheaper than wood pencils. Medford Book Store. —156*

Captain V. C. Birney, surgeon of the Third Oregon infantry, is in the city today paying one of his periodical trips of inspection to C company.

The school board have replaced the Remington typewriters at the high school with Royals, which they purchased thru the Medford Book Store. —156*

Roy Elliott of the city fire department is enjoying his annual vacation, and on Thursday took his Ford and his rifle and departed for the hills where he will hunt deer.

Dr. Frank Roberts, dentist, St. Mark's Building. Phone 323-Y. A. J. Vove and C. B. Henry of Klamath Falls are visitors in the city today.

Alec Taxi. Phone 808. One of the oddest growing freaks in the history of the county is an exhibition in the Commercial club window. It is a watermelon which grew thru a tomato can and really looks like two melons grown fast to the ends of the can. This freak grew on the Annie Orphan ranch on Coleman creek. When the melon was comparatively young, 15 year old Wesley Turnbough placed a tomato can, both of whose ends were out, against the melon to protect it from rabbits. The melon grew thru the can. The Turnbough boy proudly brought it to the Commercial club Friday to be placed on exhibition.

Call Taxi 303. While Owen Dunlap of Phoenix was driving his five-passenger Velle car down this side of the Jacksonville hill Wednesday in some manner the car caught fire. He stopped at once and fought the fire in vain for ten minutes, pouring dirt and dust on the flames. Finally when the fire got close to the gasoline tank he abandoned the fight and took to the tall timber. The car was ruined as the body, wheels and tires were destroyed. It is thought that the fire started in the muffler from soot. It had gained considerable headway before Mr. Dunlap noticed it.

Palmer's Piano Place, 28 South Central, has just received a carload of pianos which were shipped direct from the factory. 156*

The concert to be given tonight at the Natatorium by the Medford Choral society as a part of the fair program, will begin at 7:30 o'clock. A large crowd is expected to hear this splendid home organization. Fruit dryers at Pacific Furniture & Fixture factory. M. C. Maloney, editor and publisher of the Coos Bay Times of Marshfield, spent Friday in Medford. Fresh huckleberries, Phone 680. —156

John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, is a week end visitor in Medford and Ashland, looking after the welfare of the troops being transported to Lake Washington. For the best insurance, see Holmes, the Insurance Man.

A. F. & A. M. Regular communication Medford lodge 103 Friday evening, September 21. Important business. By order of the W. M.

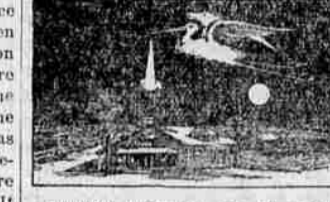

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY WANTED—Good heavy work team. State age and price. Box D, Mail Tribune. 157*

CHILDREN'S DAY BRINGS CROWD TO VISIT THE FAIR

Another fair sized crowd was in attendance at the county fair today. It was children's day, and this afternoon on the Natatorium grounds an interesting program of sports, games and races of various kinds is being run under the supervision of County School Superintendent Ager and assistants. Among the other features of the afternoon was the address by Dean Miller of the University of Oregon.

A large crowd is expected at the fair tonight to attend the concert to be given by the Medford Choral society, with George Andrews directing. The program to be given by this well known and splendid organization is designed to please lovers of both popular and classical music. There will be vocal and instrumental selections of unusual merit and a number of favorite soloists will sing. At noon today one of the officials of the fair association said that if Friday's and Saturday's attendance anywhere near equalled that of the

The New Mother

Heartfelt sympathy of all mankind goes out to her who is to become a mother. For over three generations, thousands of women have found through experience, that the absolutely safe, tried and reliable massage known to all women as "Mother's Friend" is the greatest aid procurable from the many distresses of childbirth. By its daily application the expanding muscles relax easily when only in born. The skin is made elastic and the fine network of nerves, tendons and ligaments are soothed. The breasts, too, are kept in good condition. Write the Bradford Regulator Co., Dept. J, 200 Lamar Building, Atlanta, Ga. They will send you without charge a very interesting book, "Motherhood and the Baby". Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" from the druggist today. It is of the utmost importance that you add nature in her work. "Mother's Friend" makes it possible for you yourself to give a helping hand. The preparation is without question a true and marvelous aid and is composed of such penetrating oils and other ingredients as to make it really indispensable to expectant mothers.

LESLIE SALT supplies the tastiness which coaxes the best flavor out of your cooking previous days, the receipts of this week's fair would pull the association out of debt.

PRESIDENT DENIES EXEMPTION APPEAL

SPOKANE, Sept. 21.—President Wilson has denied the appeal of Roy R. McKellips of Mohler, Wash., the first person, it is said, to appeal to him direct for release from the draft army, according to a telegram received by the district exemption board today. McKellips sought the exemption on industrial grounds as a farmer.

Mrs. C. L. Ankeny and daughter who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Miller returned home to Eugene today.

Who wants bread and butter when a feller can have POST TOASTIES says Bobby

LAST NIGHT TONIGHT "The Slacker" —IT'S TOO BIG TO DESCRIBE. —IT MUST BE SEEN. Emily Stevens Plays the Central Role. George Ade's Newest 2-Reel Comedy. All enlisted men in uniform and Grand Army Veterans admitted Free. TOMORROW OLIVE THOMAS Keystone Comedy, Zigfield's Follies Beauty, the darling of Broadway, in her first picture. "Mad Cap Madge" and laughs. COMING SUNDAY Fatty Arbuckle "Dictator" of Funland, in His Latest "Knockout," "A Rough House" Adults 15c, Children 5c. PAGE

GROCER J. E. OLMSTEAD GROCER GOING OUT OF BUSINESS Thousands of dollars' worth of Staple and Fancy Groceries to be sold out at once. Store is closed today. Groceries of all kinds. Nothing reserved. All are being marked and placed out on tables and counters. Contract goods and all must be sold. A real reduction on every article in this store. Make out your lists today and be on hand tomorrow. Real Sale of the Necessities of Life Sale Opens Tomorrow Morning, Saturday, September 22 CASH REGISTER, FIXTURES, ETC., FOR SALE J. E. OLMSTEAD ALL FIXTURES, COUNTERS, TABLES, ETC. FOR SALE 131 WEST MAIN STREET Sale Will Continue Daily Until Stock is Sold Out It Will Pay You to Come Positively Quitting Business Everything Must Go!