Robert Boyl, well known Medford man and traveling salesman of the Mason-Ehrman company, was badly injured in an auto accident near Roseburg at 10 o'clock last night, as a result of which he will be confined in the Roseburg hospital for the next two weeks.

Mr. Boyl was returning in his auto from having visited merchants in the surrounding country and had a head-on collision with another car. Another report was that the dimmers on his own car failed to work. Anyhow there was a collision and his car went over the embankment, overturning three times.

Word of the accident reached this city after midnight and Mrs. Boyl accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Clyde Hanzelrig and son, Worth, George Collins, manager of the Mason-Ehrman Co., and Edward Soutter left for Roseburg at 1 a. m. by auto.

First reports were that Mr. Boyl was dangerously injured, but Mr. Collins phoned to Medford from Roseburg this noon that he would be confined to the hospital for only two weeks. Mrs. Boyl will remain at her husband's bedside for several days, and the rest of the party will return home this evening.

OFFER PRIZE TO YOUTH FOR ESSAY "DEBT TO FRANCE"

To encourage in the youth of the state love of country and study of its history, the Oregon Society of the Sons of the American Revolution annually offers to people in the public schools of the state series of prizes for the best essays on subjects connected with the history of the American revolution.

It is peculiarly appropriate at this time to recall the help of France at a most critical period of that life and death struggle, and the committee in charge of the contest therefore has announced the following subject: "Our Debt to France for Aid Rendered to the American Colonies in the Revolutionary War."

Three cash prizes will be awarded: the first of $25, a second of $15 and a third of $10.

The contest is limited to students in high schools and in the two higher grades of grammar schools.

The conditions controlling the contest are as follows: Essays shall not exceed 5000 words in length; shall be written in the pupil's own handwriting on one side only of white paper, and must be accompanied by a certificate of the pupil's teacher to the effect that the essay is the unaided work of the pupil.

Essays must be signed by the writer with full postoffice address, including name of county and mailed to A. A. Linn, care of 400 Perry building, Portland, Ore., and must be received not later than April 1, 1918.

Essays not complying with these requirements will be rejected, and no essays will be returned.

Prizes will be awarded upon the following points:

1. Originality.
 2. Accuracy of statements.
 3. Manner of treatment.
 4. Orthography, syntax and punctuation.
 5. Neatness and legibility.
- The state library has special collections of books on the American revolution which have been provided by the Oregon Society of the Sons of the American Revolution and are available for any school in Oregon, free of charge, except for transportation to and from the school. The grade libraries contain twenty volumes, and for the high schools there are thirty-three volumes. They may be obtained by writing to Miss Geraldine Marvin, state librarian, who takes an active interest in patriotic education and gladly will afford every possible facility to ambitious students.

FIRE DANGER FOR SEASON IS OVER

The heavy rain the latter part of last week put an end in southern Oregon to the danger of forest fires, and the fire fighting season is practically over, according to District State Supervising Fire Warden W. T. Griev.

The state and government forestry employes are now busy gathering up the fire-fighting tools and storing them for the season.

State Forester F. A. Elliott returned today to Salem after a week spent here in inspecting the forest fires of the summer and fall, and in going over forest matters in general with Mr. Griev and National Forest Supervisor Erickson.

F. E. Wymrook returned today from a business trip to Portland.
