LET THERE BE LIGHT

PUBLICATION of documentary evidence of the German propaganda in America, such as recently made by the state department, exposing the activities of Wolfe von Igel, is the most effective way to combat treason masquerading under the guise of pacifism, and other seditious conspiracies, as well as throwing the searchlight upon the honor and faith of the German government in plotting against a friendly nation.

The exposure presents letters, telegrams, checks, receipts, registers, cash books, cipher codes, lists of spies and memorandum forming conclusive evidence of: "Violation of the laws of the United States. "Destruction of lives and property in merchant vessels on the high seas.

Many reputations of those loudest in assertions of patriotic conscientious activity are shattered when the proofs are produced, showing them recipients of German cash in conducting German propaganda under its many and various alliances. The Truth society stands revealed as a German subsidized concern whose object is to stir up trouble between England and Ireland, finding ready tools in the professional Irish-Americans, like Judge Cohalan of New York.

Sympathy of Americans with Irish, Hindu and Boer conspirators is alienated when it is proven that they are but paid agents of the kaiser, and that they conspired against the United States as readily as against Great Britain. The same agents toiled as industriously to create enmity between Mexico and the United States, and between Japan and America as they did between England and Ireland.

George Sylvester Viereck, whose paper, the Fatherland, was the organ of the kaiser in America, and which now, under a changed name, "American Weekly," loudly asserts his Americanism while subtly doing his mite to aid Germany, stands revealed as Von Igel's agent in the purchase of explosives for destroying American war industries. Even altruistic newspaper writers, like Emerson, Archibald and Brown, had their shekels from the kaiser.

Knowledge that such an unscrupulous campaign has been and is being conducted in the United States throws suspicion upon all obstructionists opposing the war and favoring Germany. We must question the motive of all who are against the United States in this struggle for national preservation, suspecting that if we dig deep enough we will uncover the hidden hand of the kaiser pulling the strings thru paid agents as his puppets dance to his bidding.

Horse Chestnuts USED IN MUNITIONS

LONDON, Sept. 26.—School children all over England will spend their leisure time during the next six weeks in gathering horse chestnuts, which the government is able to use in unlimited quantities in the manufacture of munitions. Researches last year by the Royal society led to the discovery that horse chestnuts provide a satisfactory substitute for the grain used in certain processes of munition making. Every ton of horse chestnuts harvested will save half a ton of grain for human consumption. Plans made by the school authorities indicate that more than 300,000 tons of these chestnuts will be turned over to the government by school children this fall. The plans for the harvesting are under the supervision of local committees. Groups of children will gather the chestnuts systematically in bags, which will be taken to a central square and deposited in great heaps. No payment will be made to the children. Chestnut collecting is to be regarded as their contribution toward winning the war.

EXAMINATION FOR POSTMASTER AT DERBY, OREGON

The United States civil service commission has announced an examination to be held at Medford, Ore., on October 26, 1917, as a result of which it is expected to make verification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth-class postmaster at Derby, Ore., and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $340 for the last fiscal year.

Applicants must have reached their twenty-first birthday on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a state where women are declared by statute to be of full age for all purposes at 18 years, women 18 years of age on the date of the examination will be admitted.

Applicants must reside within the territory supplied by the postoffice for which the examination is announced. The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application blanks, Form 1753, and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at the place of vacancy or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the commission at Washington, D. C., at the earliest practicable date. The present postmaster at Derby desires a person to take immediate charge of the office until a new postmaster is appointed. Apply at Derby office.

The Crown of Womanhood

"Uncared for hair cannot be beautiful. There is no part of the human makeup so revealing as the hair. It cries out: Look at me, care for me, or I will disgrace you! Treat me with consideration and I will be a glory to you."

"With the above words," Lillian Russell, an unquestioned authority on feminine attractiveness, places no uncertain value on nice hair as a beauty asset. Uncared, uncared for hair not only cannot be attractive but is actually a disgrace.

But why have ill-kept, untidy hair? By devoting a few moments regularly to brushing and intelligent application of NEWBRO'S HERPicide, the hair may be made to yield wonderful returns in increased personal charm.

Dandruff is the direct cause of more hair trouble than anything else. To the woman who wishes to look even and falls out in quantities, it looks dead and lifeless; there is no luster. The scalp itches.

HERPicide will remove the dandruff which is causing all the trouble, clean the scalp, give the hair life, snap and luxuriance. The hair stops coming out, the itching ceases almost at once and withal there is a most gratifying sense of cleanliness.

To the woman who wishes to make the most of nature's gift by having fluffy, beautiful hair, NEWBRO'S HERPicide is a toilet necessity. It is exquisitely perfumed and is a delightful hair dressing.

In 50c and $1.00 sizes. At drug stores and toilet goods counters everywhere. Guaranteed by The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ITALIAN HEROINES OF FARM HONORED BY GOVERNMENT

ROME, Aug. 31.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The Italian ministry of agriculture has just completed the award of 12,713 prizes to women workers on farms in Italy, owing to the scarcity of agricultural machinery, the lack of labor since the war has been felt more than in any other country, and this lack has had to be made up largely by the use of woman labor in the fields, helped by boys and girls from 8 years upwards.

In March, 1916, in order to encourage these hard-working women, the department of agriculture announced a series of awards to be given at the end of the year to those families who had done the best. The awards for the past year have just been made. Some of them consist of diplomas and medals, others of diplomas and money. The total shows 73 gold medals, 5739 gold and silver medals, 2845 silver medals and 2225 gifts of money.

The ministry's report quotes the reason for the awards in a large number of cases. As examples, the following are selected at random:

"Paulina Benedi, widow, of Borgo San Donnino: After her five sons had been called to the army, she remained with her three grandsons and ten nephews, aged 1 to 12. She managed not only the family but the farm of ten acres, besides 15 head of cattle, without outside aid.

"Maria Gaurari of Sperlinga: In the period when harvesting was most necessary and labor nearest, contrary to local habits, she was the first woman to come forward and work in the field, setting a splendid example which had great effect.

"Rosa D'Argenio of Alluno: Her husband was called up in May, 1915. Although she had a family of eight children, the eldest only 11 year old, she worked her farm of 2 1/2 acres thoroly without allowing her domestic interests to suffer.

"Caterina Climadamo of Arrezzo: After her husband and five male relatives were called up, she, with the aid of a 70-year-old grandfather and two female cousins, carried out all the farm labor harvesting the crops and looking after the animals on a farm of 10 acres without forgetting the care of three small children."

EVEN MONEY BET UPON WORLD SERIES

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 26.—Chicago brokerage houses with New York connections reported today that the bet they were able to get was even money in betting on the world series. They said that the New York team was generally the favorite in that city at 10 to 8 and 7 to 5, but that the odds varied upon the appearance of Chicago money. In this city it is regarded as an even proposition.

NAVY YARD STRIKERS ORDERED TO RETURN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—International officers of the labor unions involved in the strike of more than 3000 mechanics at the Norfolk navy yard have advised the heads of the local unions there to return the men to work, pending negotiations to adjust the differences.

PEOPLE LEAVING PETROGRAD FOR INTERIOR POINTS

PETROGRAD, Sept. 26.—Altho there are no signs of panic among the population and there are indications of returning confidence, the partial evacuation of Petrograd is proceeding, irrespective of whether the government will be transferred to Moscow.

A priceless collection of pictures at the Hermitage gallery is already boxed for shipment to an unknown destination. The treasures of the synod and parochial churches in Petrograd also are being removed.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 26.—Sharp criticism of Germany's reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals appears in the Russian press. The newspapers take the view that the German note is useless from the standpoint of bringing peace.

The Reich, organ of Professor Paul Minkoff, leader of the constitutional democrats, says Bepfin's answer means complete disillusionment for those who hope for speedy peace.

The social revolutionary paper Dielo Matrya says that in view of the fact that the reply makes a fourth winter campaign inevitable, it must be considered an indication of blind and criminal stupidity.

The Novaya Zhizn, the Bolshevik organ of Maxim Gorky, admits that the note is "equivocal and hypocritical," and says that the time has come for the Russian democracy to present a bill for payment to the German working class.

VISCOUNT ISHII SEES PRESIDENT WILSON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Viscount Ishii, head of the Japanese mission, was a white horse today. It was the first time he has seen President Wilson since he formally received on his arrival in the capital. Since then conferences have been going on with Secretary Lansing.

'FRISCO AVIATOR KILLED IN BATTLE WITH 8 AIRPLANES

WITH THE LA FAYETTE SQUADRON, Sept. 26.—The death of Douglas MacMonagle of San Francisco, a member of the La Fayette squadron, occurred during a patrol fight with two other Americans, Lieutenant Lufbery and Sergeant Rockwell. They were attacked by eight German machines believed to belong to the combination known as the "Tango circus." Apparently MacMonagle was taken by surprise. He fell within the French lines.

Sergeant Rockwell went to the rescue, but was too late to save his comrade. After a short fight, however, he downed the German, who fell crashing into a wood.

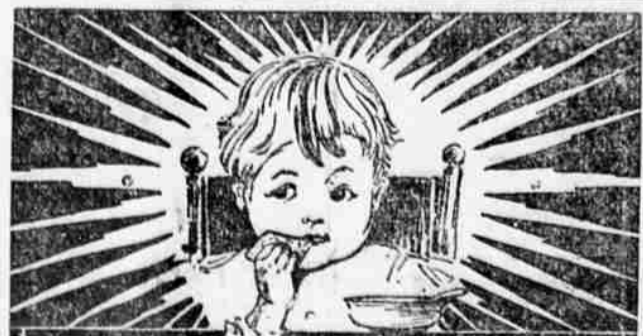

MacMonagle's body was recovered. He was shot twice thru the head. The funeral will be held on Wednesday with American military honors, as a camp of American engineers is stationed near enough to the base of the squadron to send men to sound taps.

Behind the bare official announcement that Sergeant Douglas MacMonagle of San Francisco has been killed in an aerial encounter with two German machines, lies one of the most poignant tragedies of the war, says the Herald. Almost at the moment the sergeant met his fate, his mother, widow of Dr. Beverly MacMonagle, an eminent Pacific coast physician, was completing the journey of 6000 miles from San Francisco to visit her only son.

Sergeant MacMonagle, who was in Paris a few days before he was killed, seems to have had a presentiment of his fate. He said to friends: "Well, fellows, if they get me you may bank on it mother will have the consolation of knowing I passed out fighting and doing my best, as she would wish it."

Lieutenant Lufbery is reported to have downed another German machine. Observers state the German fell inside the French lines.
