ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The program at the band concert on Thursday evening, September 27, will include a dozen popular numbers, a goodly share being patriotic selections. An enlivening march song will be "My Soldier Boy," exceedingly opportune these stirring days. Reminiscent of "So Long Letty," several leading selections will be introduced from the orchestral accompaniments of that big attraction. Memories of Stephen Foster suggest a medley of the old familiar airs immortalized by that versatile composer. Mr. James of Medford will assist the band merger as violinist. The concert will be given at the Chautauqua auditorium. The low terms of admission will assist in offsetting the h. c. l. being only 10 cents for children and 15 cents for adults. The benefit is for the musicians who have entertained us all summer in public concerts, and the entertainment should be patronized to beat the band.

Siskiyou county's valuation has been placed at $21,658,605. The general tax, outside of special school levies, has been fixed at $1.86, instead of being figured in mills. L. G. Gieve, head clerk at Vanpel's dry goods store, has resigned. The White Hassars Singing Band will appear in concert at Chautauqua auditorium, Saturday evening, September 29.

Fred Taylor, formerly of this city, where he conducted the "Temple of Trade," came up from Corning, Cal., recently for a visit with relatives.

W. H. Byers, occupying the Kennard ranch, east of here, has traded that property for an extensive tract in the Canadian northwest, located in the Saskatchewan valley, and has gone north to occupy his new purchase. The other party to the trade is a Mr. Dix, who will motor to southern Oregon in due season with his family and occupy the Kennard

REBECCA LECTURE AND WAR MOVIES AT RIALTO TONIGHT

The benefit entertainment for the Sacred Heart hospital at the Rialto this evening is deserving of a generous support from the public. There is no more deserving institution in the city, and it is hoped that its friends and patrons will fill the theater to the doors. The hospital was built some years ago, at the solicitation of our leading citizens, on a scale commensurate with the expectations then entertained of the development of the community, and it has been maintained since by the heroic labors of the sisters who have devoted themselves to their often hard and disagreeable tasks cheerfully and faithfully, winning a place in the regard of those whom they have served which should bring them a hearty recognition this evening.

"WITHIN THE LAW" AT THE PAGE TONIGHT

"Within the Law," the screen version of Bayard Veiller's sensational stage success, which was viewed by more than four million theatre goers in the United States and Canada, will open at the Page theatre today for a two days engagement. "Within the Law," is welcomed by the public as an old favorite, and the picture is a pronounced success throughout the country.

There are numerous reasons why the silent dramatization of Bayard tract. A son of Mr. Dix has been here lately negotiating the exchange. The big motor truck on the Pacific highway work which figured in the late tragedy on the Siskiyou, is still a menace to travel over the mountains, having lately collided with an Ashland auto, injuring its two passengers to such an extent that they were fit subjects for the hospital. As for the auto, it was damaged sufficiently to need the services of the "chair doctor." Truck driver has been discharged.

Altho the draft exemption button has not as yet made its appearance here, the query arises where it will be worn when it does arrive without enlarging the average coat lapel area, already overburdened with the square and compass, three links, Elk tooth or antlers, American flag, Red Cross badge, liberty bond token and Belgian baby pledge, all being supplemented by the display of a garland or two.

The Masonic bodies of Ashland, responding to suggestions from their grand lodges, have remitted the dues of members who are actively serving either in the army or navy of the United States during the prevailing war. In Ashland Lodge No. 23 the list includes J. A. Graham, Dr. J. P. Johnson, A. J. McCallan, C. A. Malone, Vern V. Mills and Earl C. Weaver. In Siskiyou chapter, No. 21, in addition to Johnson, McCallan, Malone and Mills, W. W. Cashner and O. H. Steed are also added.

All Choked Up With Catarrh? Why Continue Makeshift Treatment? Sprays and douches will never cure you. Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing painful and difficult breathing and other discomforts. But the real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs. This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface. To be

OPERATIC STARS TO SING HERE

The La Scala Grand Opera company, composed of 125 members, is the largest organization of its kind touring the United States this season at popular prices. The company is made up of 30 artists and principals, a chorus of 40 voices and an orchestra of the same number which is under the direction of Chev. Fulgenzio Guerrieri.

To be able to present stars of the Metropolitan, Boston National, Chicago National, Havana, Montreal, and Covent Garden Grand Opera companies at popular prices is a managerial achievement that should be welcomed by opera lovers of the west.

Manager Hunt of the Page theatre, has booked "Carmen," Bizet's masterpiece, as the season's greatest attraction. It will be presented with a notable cast by the La Scala Grand Opera company at that playhouse on Thursday night, Oct. 4.

Mme. Ester Ferrabini, considered by many the greatest Carmen on the Italian stage, will be featured in the title role. Mme. Ferrabini's portrayal of Carmen in New York recently created such a sensation that Gotham critics have declared her a near rival of Geraldine Farrar for Carmen honors.

Giuseppe Gaudenzi, last season's leading tenor with the National Grand Opera company, will sing the role of Don Jose, while Mario Valle of the Covent Garden company, London, will be heard as Escamillo, the torero. Italo Picchi will sing Zuzinga and Georgina Gallini will appear in the role of Micaela. This same cast will be heard in Portland, San Francisco and all of the other larger coast cities. The curtain will rise promptly at eight o'clock.

The La Scala company will arrive in Medford on a special train composed of seven Pullmans, one diner and three baggage cars.

Veiller's wonderful story should and does meet with popular favor wherever it is played. The characters in the play run the entire gamut of human emotions. That ever-burning question, the salary that should be paid to department store girls in order that they may follow the straight and narrow path of virtue, is vividly portrayed by Alice Joyce, who, as Mary Turner, a department store girl is arrested for stealing from her employer. Upon this one apparently insignificant act in itself, Veiller has built ever to be remembered, and J. Stuart Blackton has produced a silent drama that must leave its mark on screen history.

the School of Journalism at the State university, also being employed as reporter on the Morning Register of Eugene. He leaves for the north this week.

C. W. Nims, as junior grand warden, and Stuart Saunders as eminent commander of Malta commandery, No. 4, left on Tuesday for Marshfield, where they will attend the sessions of the grand commandery, Knights Templar of Oregon.

Rev. J. C. Bollis, pastor of the Methodist church at Medford, accompanied by his wife and family, was in town Monday evening to meet his son, who was on his way from California with one of the military contingents bound for American Lake.

A. E. McFarland and William Penner are among a number of Ashland carpenters working on public buildings at Yreka.

Cecil Grison, and C. B. Edwards have organized a new taxi company here, operating with both Ford and Dodge rolling stock.

Frazier, Cal., on the Shasta division, has been opened to traffic as a class "C" station.

Under federal auspices, the work of taking a census of store products throughout the country has reached Ashland. The schedules will be taken weekly, showing the current retail price of groceries and provisions, as prevailing in this locality. This movement is national in its scope, being "Hooverized."

Mrs. Herbert G. McCarthy of Klamath Falls has been visiting relatives here recently, and attending meetings of the Eastern Star, she being worthy matron of the chapter of that order in her home town.

Alfred Beaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beaver, is now located in Portland as general salesman of the Ford distributing agency in the metropolis.

The state time board, of which Benton Flowers of this city is a member, will meet at Salem on Thursday, September 27. A special order of business will be stating the site for a location for a state-owned plant.

At the Oregon conference of the Methodist church, which meets in Springfield this week, Bishop Matthew Simpson Hughes will have the following district superintendents as members of his official cabinet: Rev. H. J. Van Possen of Ashland, Klamath district; Rev. Wm. W. Young, Portland district; Rev. T. B. Ford, Salem district; Rev. James Moore, Eugene district. All the foregoing are doctors of divinity.

Lieutenant Don Spencer of First company, now at Fort Stevens, has been appointed signal officer, detailed to look after this special work in connection with Columbia river defenses.

W. E. Newcombe, Western Union manager, and who has occupied the leading offices of the major fraternal organizations in town, has recently been appointed district deputy grand exalted ruler of Elks, southern Oregon jurisdiction.

Eight coast and intermountain states are represented by the 18,500 drafted men now being mobilized at the 91st division headquarters of the new national army, which is at Camp Lewis, American Lake, near Tacoma. Twelve railroad systems participated in the special train movements, the Southern Pacific handling about 10,000 of the men passing thru the Ashland gateway north bound. Over 80,000 meals were required by the entire body of men en route over the several lines. The longest haul made by the Southern Pacific was 1600 miles, from El Centro, Cal., a trip entailing eight changes of train crews and twelve changes of engines.

Ashland's apportionment in the library war service fund is $250, an amount which will be readily forthcoming without any special attempts at canvassing. Subscriptions may be left either with Major Lambin or at the State Bank, care of Cashier Eubanks. A ready response will expedite matters.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Medford readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. J. H. Gustin, 521 S. Grape St., Medford, says: "I have been taking Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I have felt the need of a kidney medicine for several years and I have always received the most satisfactory results. My kidneys seem to be my weakest spot and every little cold or strain affects them and my back becomes weak or lame. After I have taken a couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, my kidneys become normal and in every way, I feel as well and strong as ever."
