The Whole Neighborhood Knows.

Mrs. Anna Felzer, 2526 Jefferson St., So. Omaha, Neb., writes: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar as a sure cure for coughs and colds. It cured my daughter of a bad cold. My neighbor, Mrs. Benson, cured herself and her whole family with Foley's Honey and Tar, and everyone in our neighborhood speaks highly of it." This reliable family remedy masters croup. It clears the air passages and eases the gagging, strangling fight for breath. Sold everywhere.

CAMPAIGN FOR $800 RECREATION FUND

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Commercial club last night it was decided to launch a campaign to secure $800 for the national war community recreation fund which is being collected throughout the country by the Playground and Recreation association of America.

The national fund is placed at $3,750,000, to be expended at the soldiers' training camps for recreation purposes for the draft army of 1,250,000 men.

President C. W. McDonald appointed the following committee to take charge of this campaign: Dr. J. Lawrence Hill, W. A. Folger, H. C. Garrett, A. L. Hill, T. E. Daniels and Rev. W. B. Hamilton.

The Greater Medford club will be asked to assist in the campaign and appoint a similar committee from among its members.

This work is considered important for the moral and physical welfare of the soldiers, has the endorsement of President Wilson, and the directors of the club believe that the $800 can be raised without difficulty.

It was also decided to appoint a committee to investigate the present status of the Commercial club, its membership and financial condition and report recommendations, for an increase in the club's membership and effectiveness.

The matter of a beet sugar factory in the valley was discussed it being decided to leave the question of launching an active campaign to secure the factory to a committee composed of J. A. Perry and H. L. Walther.

It was also decided to provide data and provide necessary information for George Watkins Evans, the government engineer who will be in Medford about the fifteenth of the month to make a survey of the local coal deposits. A car will be placed at Mr. Evans' disposal and men familiar with the coal fields in this vicinity will be on hand to give what facts are at present obtainable.

TALENT TALK

The Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Leonard Dorthings Thursday afternoon. Miss Carlton will deliver an address. All are cordially invited to attend.

Ernest Minuth of the Ashland Lumber company left Monday evening for Lyndonville, Vt., to accompany the remains of George A. Chase, who had a ranch west of Talent. Mr. Chase had no relatives here, but had two sisters and one brother in Vermont.

The Virolta purchased by the school is greatly enjoyed by the children.

Services next Sunday morning will be conducted by Rev. Anderson of Ashland in the absence of Rev. M. C. Reed, who, with Mrs. Reed, left on Wednesday for conference. At the close of conference, Mr. and Mrs. Reed will continue their trip to the east. Other services as usual.

Miss Bell French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. French of North Talent and Lawrence Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Crawford, were united in marriage at Jacksonville September 25. After the ceremony the young couple returned to the bride's home in North Talent, where they partook of a bounteous wedding dinner, leaving immediately after for Klamath Falls, where the young people intend to make their home. Only the relatives of the bride and groom were present at the dinner. Talent extends its heartiest congratulations to the young couple and wishes them a long and happy life together.

Fred Brandt has accepted a position in the railroad employ at Ashland and will soon move his family there.

Fire destroyed the residence of W. F. Donn in South Talent Wednesday morning. There being no way to extinguish the flames, the house was a total loss. Also a part of the household effects were burned. The fire appeared to have originated between the ceiling and roof, where tar paper had been used for ceiling purposes.

Mr. Bowman, the rural mail carrier, who has been occupying the Kasey place for the past year, is looking for a house in town and intends moving his family in soon.

Mr. Workman is having the barber shop remodeled and intends building on an addition to accommodate his family, as he intends to lease the family residence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pace are expected home the end of the week from Arizona, where they were called by the death of their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Workman.

The ladies of the Talent churches are getting together to make arrangements for the entertainment of the delegates and guests expected to be in attendance at the Sunday school convention which meets here on October 13.

Marion Tryer and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brandt of North Talent Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Walters, who owns the store where Mr. Robinson has his confectionery store, has had it remodeled and newly papered. Mr. Hazen is doing the work.

Mrs. H. R. King is to leave soon for Kenneth to join her husband and son, who are working at that place. We regret to lose Mrs. King from Talent.

Bickerdyke are expecting a visit from Mrs. Bickerdyke's brother in the near future.

During Mr. Pace's absence, a number of the larger boys, Ernest Jeffrey, Earl Weaver, Oscar Anderson, Sven Honston have been doing the janitor work at the school. The boys will doubtless be glad to see Mr. Pace back, as it must have been quite an added undertaking with their studies, judging by the illumination at the schoolhouse every evening.

H. H. Goddard, who has been doing carpentering work in Klamath county all summer, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. Fuller of Ashland is the guest of his son, J. H. Fuller, at Oakmont farm, on Wagner creek.

Ed Robinson and family were on an outing at Crater lake last week, returning last Sunday.

Mrs. Williams and Miss Gillman attended the show, "The Eyes of the World," at Ashland Tuesday night.

Charley Holdridge and family motored to Medford Wednesday evening to attend the show entitled, "The Eyes of the World."

Sunday school convention will convene on October 12, 13, 14. On October 12 at Phoenix, on October 13 at Talent, on October 14 at Ashland. This should be made one of the most successful conventions in the history of the society.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Goddard of Klamath Falls are visiting the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goddard, on Wagner creek.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Married—In Gold Hill, October 4, 1917, at the home of the bride, Mrs. Eva Newton and A. E. Kimball. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. A. Hutchinson at 8 p. m. and was followed by an elegant dinner. Only the immediate relatives were present.

Mrs. Robert McMillen of Portland stopped for a short time in Gold Hill Friday to visit with her friend, Mrs. Myrtle Day. Later she is to visit with her sister, Mrs. Will Dodge, in Ashland.

W. W. Hittle and family and Mrs. McCoy motored to Gold Hill Thursday from the Rock Point district.

Mrs. H. D. Reed motored to Medford Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. P. W. Blackert and Mrs. N. Blackburn.

Mrs. M. Calloun of Blackwell Hill was transacting business in Gold Hill Friday.

Mrs. W. L. Collins was in Gold Hill Friday from the ranch.

Mrs. George Lyman spent Friday with friends in Gold Hill.

William Kinney of Sams Valley was a Gold Hill visitor Friday.

O. E. Blackington and son, Fredrick, were business visitors to Gold Hill Friday from their Galls Creek ranch.

Mrs. H. Van Hovenburg entertained Wednesday afternoon at her Sams Valley home the following ladies: Mesdames Pelton, Burford, Smith and Bushnell.

Floyd Eddings was a Grants Pass visitor Wednesday.

Cory Mattison was a visitor to Gold Hill Wednesday, coming up from the Pass in the interest of some mines near here.

Mike Womack of Medford was a mining visitor to Gold Hill Wednesday.

Harry Porter and wife of Medford, but former residents of this city, were calling on old friends Tuesday.

Thursday morning to visit her relatives in that city.

Rev. Hutchinson was a Jacksonville visitor Thursday.

A. E. Kimble, who has been fire warden near Dallas, came down Tuesday to visit with friends at this place.

A grass fire which got beyond control destroyed the garage of J. W. Heron and caused much smoke and excitement. As there was considerable fire bark in the building, it caused a heavy black smoke to belch forth and a second alarm was turned in to call another hose cart to the scene.

Word received by local friends imparts the information that Miss Edna Proctor, a former teacher in the Gold Hill schools, was recently married and is living in Los Angeles.

Donald, 3-year-old son of C. R. Boyd, fell from the second story window of the Del Rio ranch house this week, but is not considered in a dangerous condition. Altho he had a good-sized scalp wound, it is doing nicely. Mr. Boyd is the new manager for that large and interesting orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith were Medford visitors Thursday.

Roy Cameron has returned to his work at Rajada after a ten days' stay at his old home in this city.

CENTRAL POINT

The many friends of Prof. and Mrs. E. B. Slatney are congratulating them over the arrival at their home on Thursday morning, October 4th, of a 7 1/2-pound son. Mother and child doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Paxon arrived home Tuesday evening from a ten-days' trip to Salem and other northern cities. They had a pleasant visit with their daughter, Miss Ruth, and attended the state fair.

Floyd Kyle, Clifford Hatfield, Frank Ross, Leonard and Miss Lola Freeman, left Thursday morning for Corvallis, where they will attend O. A. C. for the coming term.

James Vestal is here from his Reese Creek home and will spend a few days with friends before going to O. A. C.

The presbytery of Southern Oregon will meet at the Presbyterian church of Central Point, Tuesday, October 9th, at 7:30 in the evening. The Rev. E. W. Warrington of Roseburg will preach the opening sermon. On Wednesday evening Dr. Andrew Montgomery of Portland, representative of the board of home missions for Oregon, will address a mass meeting. The Rev. Boundin Seelye, assistant to Dr. Montgomery, will also speak. Another feature for Wednesday evening's meeting is the address by Rev. John Forman of India. Mr. Forman is one of the foremost missionaries of the world. His parents were missionaries to India, and he has two sisters and a brother that have invested their lives in that wonderful country. Do not fail to embrace the opportunity. Presbytery meetings are open to the general public.

Next Sunday the Rev. Paul S. Bandy will speak on Philip Melancthon, the scholar of the Reformation. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this service. Time of service, 11 a. m.

C. C. Sanderson and family of Beagle spent several days here this week.

C. S. Sanderson, formerly real estate agent here, is now proprietor of the Beagle store.

Mrs. James McDowell has returned to Yreka, after a few days' visit with her family in this city.

JACKSONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of Grants Pass spent Saturday and Sunday in Jacksonville, the guests of Mrs. E. J. Fleck.
