

BAN PLACED ON SPECULATION IN COTTON SEED OIL

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Speculation in cottonseed oil, both by trade and outside interests, on the New York produce exchange, was forbidden today by the board of managers of the exchange at the instance of the food administration in Washington.

This action by the food administration followed upon sharply advancing prices for cotton oil, culminating yesterday in a jump of 175 points to 19 1/2 cents a pound, a record never before reached. So-called hedge selling under certain conditions is to be permitted.

"Speculative trading in cottonseed oil for any delivery, either by trade or outside interests is prohibited," reads the ruling of the managers.

"Hedge selling for protection against seed purchases or sale of refined oil, against purchases of crude oil, or purchases by consumers or exporters are permissible, but such operations shall be confined to legitimate trade only, and shall be of the smallest possible proportions consistent with the purpose of this rule."

Future trading of this kind will be confined to current months and two months ahead and to the closing out of old contracts for any month. Daily fluctuations in price beyond one cent a pound are forbidden.

NEW PEACE OFFER COMING FROM BERLIN

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 9.—Germany and Austria-Hungary have agreed to make another peace offer to the allies, the Deutsche Tageszeitung of Berlin says it learns on good authority. The offer will have as its basis no territorial aggrandizement, the surrender of French and Belgian territory, the renunciation of positive territorial acquisition for payments in money and no indemnity on either side.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Jim Briscoe of Medford was visiting relatives in Beagle last Thursday.

Gyp Vincent and family, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sams Valley for several weeks, left the latter part of the week for Fort Klamath, where they will spend the winter.

J. W. Scott of Medford spent Saturday night at his home ranch in Antioch.

Mr. Smith of Antioch has been busy the past week hauling hay for his winter supply.

Dell Morrison and wife were trading and doing business in Medford Saturday.

The Beagle store has changed hands. Mr. Jasper Rodgers, former owner, has sold out to Mr. Sanderson of Central Point, who took possession last week. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers have moved to their home ranch north of Beagle.

Claude Chapman and wife and C. Conley and wife were hunting and visiting relatives and friends in Antioch Sunday.

Roy Green and Miss Opal Centers both of Sams Valley, were united in marriage one day last week and the many friends in Antioch and Sams Valley wish them a long and happy life.

Miss Audrey Homes, the Antioch teacher, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks in Central Point.

Mrs. Henry Morgan and Mrs. Jim Rodgers of Fort Klamath are visiting friends and relatives in Beagle for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rodgers of Beagle visited Monday with their daughter, Mrs. Roscoe Doty, of Medford, who has been sick for some time past.

Among the men who have sold their beef cattle and have been busy the past week bringing them from the mountains are Glass Bros., Mr. Moore and son, Rube, Mr. Gaines and Mr. Houston.

Worth Their Weight in Gold. No man can do his best when suffering from backache, rheumatic pains, swollen joints, sore muscles or other symptoms of kidney trouble.

B. H. Stone, 849 N. 2d St., Reading, Pa., writes: "I contracted a most severe case of kidney trouble. I gradually grew worse and for months was unable to attend to business. I began to use Foley's Kidney Pills and soon found the pains were gone and I have had no aches since. They have been worth their weight in gold to me." Sold everywhere.

Theaters and Movies

Messrs. Shubert will present "The Knife" at the Page theater on Tuesday evening, October 16.

"The Knife" is a new play by Eugene Walter, author of those powerful and successful plays: "The East-West Way," "Paid in Full" and "Fine Feathers." It tells the story of a Virginia heiress who disappears on a shopping trip to New York. The search for the young woman and the events which follow are said to be unfolded with the suspense, vividness and intensity which have always characterized Mr. Walter's work. In the cast will be Norman Hackett, May Bookley, Eva Benton, Clifford Stork, Cordeia MacDonald, Robert Barrat, Frank Wood, Franklin George and others.

DESMOND AS CROOK 'TIME-LOCKS, DIAMONDS'

With a plot swinging from the "Gay White Way" to the cloisters of "The Eternal City," and with an "international crook" plying his trade with all the cunningness of a Sherlock Holmes, "Time Locks and Diamonds," a Triangle release, featuring William Desmond, bristles with most stirring excitement and clever dramatic moments.

There is cleverness in every foot of its reelage, and William Desmond in the role of "Silver Jim" Farrell, an international crook, gives one of the best impersonations of his career before the camera.

Gloria Hope, Robert McKim, Rowland Lee, Mildred Harris, George Beranger, Thomas Guise and Milton Ross are in support of Mr. Desmond. "Time Locks and Diamonds," with William Desmond in the featured role, will be seen on the screen of the Page theater tonight.

MORE CERTIFICATES OFFERED AT 4 PERCENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Another offering of short time treasury certificates and indebtedness, $300,000,000 at 4 per cent, was agreed upon today by treasury officials and probably will be announced within a day or so.

This offering will bring the total of certificates issued in anticipation of receipts from the sale of second liberty loan bonds up to $1,550,000,000, of which $850,000,000 bear interest at 3 1/2 per cent and $700,000,000 bear 4 per cent interest.

EAGLETS ABROAD

The last time that I wrote for the Mail Tribune I was in Portland, and then gave an account of my trip from Spokane to Seattle, and now will finish up my journeyings for a while, at least outside of my little local sphere. After spending about a week in that city of the hills, altho it is located on Puget Sound, I took passage on the Great Northern route for Portland. Wherever I could I selected the daytime to travel, so that I could see the country, for when I made my other trip thru Washington I had to travel a good part of the way in the night, and consequently saw but very little of the country thru which I passed, but this time I had it fine view of it, considering the difficulties in seeing from a car window. Leaving Seattle at 11:15 a. m., we soon reached the

MARY PICKFORD IN ROMANCE OF REDWOODS

Mary Pickford, the darling of the screen, is back again. Back with a touching story of the "days of '49," when gold glistened from the sloughs of the giant redwoods of California and a seven-shooter and rope were the ends of justice. She is back with all the laurels of a coronation, for she has been unanimously acclaimed "Queen of the Movies." "A Romance of the Redwoods" is her most recent crowning glory. She journeys westward, and under the branches of the mammoth redwood trees of California enacts a red-blooded story of the west, surging with the humane, dramatic and thrilling incidents of typical Pickford charm. "Little Mary" appears in a role entirely different from anything else she has ever enacted before. Cecil B. De Mille, who directed Geraldine Farrar in "Joan the Woman," is co-author with Jeanie MacPherson of the story, and the picture was produced under his personal direction. Elliott Dexter, the well-known star and husband of Marie Doro, Tully Marshall, Raymond Hatton, Charles Ogle and Winter Hall make up a strong supporting cast.

You can't miss seeing "Little Mary" Pickford in "A Romance of the Redwoods" at the Page tomorrow and Thursday.

There is a middle-aged man here by the name of Wilcox who reports that while he was sleeping in a rooming house in Redding, the room was so warm that he opened the door to let it cool off, and dropped off to sleep, and when he woke up he found his pants that he had laid on a chair in the doorway and $57.39 missing from his pocket, but the thief left nearly $200 and a gold watch undisturbed. The larger amount was paper, and the thief overlooked that. He admits that it was a very careless trick, carrying so much money in his pants pocket, but he knows better now.

J. P. McCabe passed thru town Saturday morning on his way to Medford.

J. B. Stevens of Tolo passed thru town to the agate fields Saturday morning.

George B. Brown and three of his five little girls motored from Brownsville, his home, this (Saturday) morning. He brought out some produce to ship on the P. & E.

B. F. Fuller brought out a lot of household goods for Orville Spencer to be shipped to Medford this a. m.

Brandon Bros. shipped 1000 pounds of flour to Butte Falls the same day.

Rudolph Peck, one of the Lake Creek hucksters, came in to the P. & E. depot this morning with five sacks of lath plaster and took out three rolls of wire fencing.

Henry French brought in his regular weekly supply of cream to go to Medford today.

John Howard, who has been spending the season with Pete Betz, came in today, paid up his subscription to the D. M. T. and started for Los Angeles.

J. G. McAllister of Lake Creek brought in 150 pounds of mohair for George Brown & Sons today.

Messrs. M. Liebman, G. W. Liebman and R. S. Putnam are making fruit boxes at the Tronson orchard. They are taking their dinner at the Sunnyside.

Al Clements, one of our regular boarders, made a flying visit to Ashland Thursday.

Friday afternoon I called at the Raymond orchard and while there A. G. Bishop renewed his subscription to the D. M. T.

part of the community. She left a husband, father and mother, Elder Moosaw and wife, two sons and a daughter and a number of warm friends. I also miss quite a number of the young men who have volunteered to go in answer to our country's call to defend the principles of democracy, and among them is Robbie Harnish, who was absent at the time of his mother's death.

J. L. Combs and family of Klamath Falls have moved into the P. H. Daly house and there are quite a number of people moved into the neighborhood this fall to take advantage of our fine school.

Mrs. Amanda Fitzgerald, one of the pioneers of this section, being a daughter of the late John Matthews, came out Tuesday.

D. W. Meyers, formerly of Brownsboro, but now of Hell Graham Head, R. C., but before he left he left a year's subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune to be sent to him, at the Eagle Point bank for me.

Robert A. Neill of Brownsboro called for the night at the Sunnyside and while here renewed his subscription to the W. M. T.

There were two fine Cotswold bucks came in on the P. & E. train Tuesday for a man on Elk creek by the name of Oleson, who has sheep up there. They were taken out on the stage.

Nobel Zimmerman, one of our hustling young men, who has been up in Washington, returned Friday, took dinner and went on up to Butte Falls. He says that the L. W. W.'s won't let people work when they get a job up there.
