ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Rev. W. J. Douglass and family left for their new home in Gooding, Idaho, on Tuesday evening, followed by the well wishes of all citizens irrespective of denominational affiliations. On Monday evening, in view of their departure, a public reception was held at the Methodist church in honor of the family, the gathering being held under the auspices of the Teacup club. As pastor and friend Mr. Douglass has unceasingly taken opportunity for being useful in countless ways, and his family have been active and helpful in all of the uplifting activities of both church and community. At the leave taking an appreciation of the pastor's efficient work in this field, covering a period of four years, found expression in sentiments of regard and affection gauged more than from the standpoint of commonplace esteem. Their new home will be in Lincoln county, and in a thriving town in southern Idaho, located on the Oregon Short Line.

Rev. G. K. Berry, pastor of the Christian church here during the memorable Oliver revival period, and recently connected with the Kern Park church in Portland, has been tendered the pastorate of the church at Corona, Calif.

Mrs. Kenneth McWilliams is teaching in the schools of Grants Pass, at first temporarily as a supply, but as her merits as an instructor became apparent, recognized ability won for her a permanent place.

The 24th annual convention of the Jackson County Sunday school association, in session at Phoenix Oct. 12, at Talent the 13th, winds up with a big rally at the Chautauque auditorium in this city, on Sunday, Oct. 14. The big hall will be needed to accommodate the crowd which is coming from all parts of the county. The Sunday school of the Christian church at Medford is to attend in a body, and various other church affiliations will be here in relative proportions.

The man found wandering on local streets last Sunday finally gave the name of Harry Martin. It is thought he might have fallen off one of the troop trains. In the meantime he is in the hands of county authorities pending developments.

The Wednesday Afternoon club met Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. Caroline Schuerman. Guests were admonished to "lend to their knitting," as experts were present to instruct novices in a drive of needful work for the soldiers, especially in the way of mittens, wristlets and other comforts.

W. K. Smith is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Drew, at Hildebrand, in Klamath county, Mrs. Drew being his daughter.

Dr. D. M. Brower is temporarily supplying the pastorate of the Brethren church, since Rev. C. E. Johnson removed to Turlock, Calif., some time ago.

Frank Black, dining car inspector on the Southern Pacific, with headquarters at Oakland, Calif., returned south on Tuesday, after a strenuous experience here in attending to contracts connected with the feeding of the army of drafted men bound for American Lake. This management was on a colossal scale, and Mr. Black being an expert in such matters, attended to every detail in a manner that was gratifying alike to men on the way to the military encampment, the hotel and restaurant keepers, and everybody else concerned.

A reception will be held at the Congregational manse on Wednesday evening, Oct. 10, tendered to the John P. Patty family previous to their removal to Gold Bar, Wash.

Pell's hill is now receiving some of the attention heretofore lavished on Billings hill. The steps scaling Pell's hill, which shortened the distance from the Plaza around the horn to Granite street to an extent equaling the Lucin cutoff at Salt Lake, relatively, are to be rebuilt. The prospect incorporates a reduction of the grade from 75 to at least 25 per cent, with a remodeled stairway in keeping with the demands of a "safety first" proviso as applied to pedestrian traffic. The expense will be met by a bond issue, those most directly interested clipping in to a sinking fund to meet requirements of survey and constructive obligations, the work to be completed this fall if the necessary lumber and steel can be procured. Subscriptions for stock can be left with F. F. Whittle, trustee.

C. H. Chamberlain, who removed to Ashland from Seattle with his family awhile ago, has bought of Jeff Howard the residence property, including nearly two acres, at the corner of Quincy and Garfield streets, and will occupy it as a home refuge. The sale was made by the Beaver Realty Co. Mr. Chamberlain is an old-time Washington rancher, who comes to southern Oregon to take life easy on the retired list.

While a party of tourists who passed thru here lately were bathing in the Pit river in Shaasta county, fire destroyed their tent, including bag and baggage. Facing such a dilemma the bathers waited until nightfall and were compelled to walk three miles in undress uniform to civilization before dress suits could be procured.

"We are the Dutch Cleansers" was one of the slogans displayed by a troop train northward bound early in the week.

"Marathon" conversation over the phones, a polite term for endless as well as intermittent gossip, is being restricted gradually by the leading phone systems of the country.

Wm. M. Richards, who died recently at Kerby, in Josephine county, was a native of England, coming to America in 1853 and to Oregon in 1879. In 1881 he was married to Mrs. Sarah Chandler of Ashland. For several years he followed lumbering pursuits in Ashland creek territory. His wife and several children survive him.

Mike Parker on Monday began his drive of cattle which he recently purchased from Henry Harnburg to a change of pasture near Bly in Klamath county. The herd will be added to en route by cows bought in the Dead Indian country from the Lindsay brothers. Quartermaster Morgan will drive the grub wagon in the trek to the Klamath section. The outfit will be a week or so on the road.

Wilbur P. Jordan, electrician for some time past in the city's employ, went to Dunsmuir early this week to consider a proposition lately received from the Southern Pacific as signal man in the railroad service.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. McMahon of Idaho Falls, Idaho, are newcomers here with the view of locating permanently.

W. L. Rogers, local barber, has gone to Dunsmuir, having accepted a position in one of the shops of that city.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Medford Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This grateful citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed.

Such testimony is complete—the evidence is conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

Andrew Cantrall, retired farmer, California St., Jacksonville, Ore., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and am glad to say that they helped me. At the time, I was suffering from backaches and other symptoms of kidney disorder. Doan's soon stopped the trouble and I cannot praise them too much."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Cantrall added: "The statement I gave recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in 1909 still holds good. Doan's surely gave me good relief and I have great faith in them."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cantrall has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Try this! Your hair gets wavy, glossy and abundant at once.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the messy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the lumbar region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overloads the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The uric is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium chloride and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithium-water drink.

IRRITABLE NERVOUS

Was Condition of Indiana Lady Before Beginning to Take Card-u-i, the Woman's Tonic.

Kokomo, Ind.—Mrs. H. Hankemeier, of this town, says: "I look so well, and am so well, that it does not seem as if I ever needed Cardui. But I was not always this way. . . I think I have taken a dozen bottles . . . before my little girl came."

I was feeling dreadfully bad, had headache, backache, sick at my stomach, no energy. . . I was very irritable, too, and nervous.

I began taking Cardui about 6 months before my baby came. As a result all those bad feelings left me, and I just felt grand, just as if nothing at all was the matter, and when the end came I was hardly sick at all.

Since that I have never taken Cardui at all. . . It has done me good, and I know it will help others, if they will only try it."

Many women have written grateful letters like the above, telling of the good that Cardui has done them. Why should it not help you, too? If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, and feel the need of a safe, reliable, strengthening tonic, we urge you to begin today and give Cardui a fair trial. Your dealer sells Card-u-i. EB-10
