

SMALL OFFERINGS BUT HIGH QUALITY AT STOCKYARDS

PORTLAND, Oct. 11.—The offerings that have been brought forward to the Portland Union stockyards for the week's opening do not constitute as great a volume as that which was offered for the previous week, they make up in quality what they lose in quantity, inasmuch as the percentage of good finished killers and high-class feeders is considerably higher than was shown last week.

Cattle.
The cattle market continues steady with last week's prices in all departments. The operations in the feeder cattle department have been rather slow for the day, whereas the feeder department has been extremely active. Of the entire volume of 1500 cattle, probably 50 percent were feeders, which changed hands at current prices. Buyers for this class have been plentiful in the yards for some time past, and many of them left without getting what they came for, so that the feeder market continues strong at this writing. Feeder cattle are by no means a drug. The demand is stronger than a week ago. Quotations: Best steers, $9.00@9.75; good steers, $7.50@8.75; good cows, $6.75@7.50; ordinary, $4.00@6.75; heifers, $7.00@8.00; calves, $7.00@9.50; bulls, $4.00@6.50; stockers and feeders, $4.00@7.25.

Hogs.
One load of hogs changed hands at $18.25, the this perhaps should not be considered characteristic of market conditions. While the top extended to $18.25, the bulk of the sales were about $17.75, with one load at $18.00. The market continues active in the feeder department with a heavy demand. Quotations: Prime light, $17.75@18.00; prime heavy, $17.50@17.75; bulk, $17.75; pigs, $15.50@17.00.

Sheep.
Conditions continue firm in the sheep department with the volume of business somewhat smaller than the previous week. Neither packers, feeders or breeders are receiving enough to meet their wants. The following quotations are current: Yearlings, $11.25@11.50; wethers, $11.00@11.50; ewes, $8.00@9.00; western lambs, $13.50@14.00; valley lambs, $12.75@13.50.

TALENT TALK

Arthur M. Brown of Medford was attending to business matters for the Mail Tribune in Talent Monday morning.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter, who has for the past year been making her home in Portland with her daughter, spent a few hours in Talent Monday, en route to Medford, to visit her sister, Miss Armstrong. Mrs. Carpenter has just returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Vance Walcott at Brookings, and her son, Robert, at Eureka, Calif. Mrs. Carpenter will return for a more extended visit in Talent next week. We are all glad to see Mrs. Carpenter again.

Mrs. Harold Simpson, who has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. Jay Terrell, for some time, left recently for Rock Point to visit a sister, Mrs. Alice Morris.

Ralph Bowman received a painful fall from a barn loft Thursday, striking on his back across a manger.

Mr. Estes, brother of W. W. Estes, who has been making him a visit for the past few weeks, left Friday for California, where he will spend the winter.

Dud Esteh is staying in Medford to be nearer his doctor so as to get better treatment.

D. T. Lawton, county sealer of weights and measures, was up from Medford Friday and adjusted the scales for the sugar beet company and found the scales all O. K.

E. E. Cook spent Friday and Saturday at his Ashland ranch on scenic drive.

Marion Tryer transacted business in Ashland Saturday morning.

Miss Daton of Ashland has been a guest at Oakmont, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller, for the past three weeks.

Now the busy season is over, the Red Cross is picking up its attendance. Quite a nice number of ladies were out to the last meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Judge and Mrs. Willett of Klamath Falls are the guests of Mrs. Willett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Alford.

Dinner and supper will be served at the Methodist church for the delegates to the Sunday school convention which meets here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wells were Ashland visitors Wednesday afternoon.

The railroad officials are expected in Talent Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Terrell are spend-

WHY SMILES PAY A STAR OF SCREEN AND THEIR RECIPE

By MADGE KENNEDY.

(Famous comedienne who makes her screen debut in Goldwyn pictures.)
A pleasant smile pays in more ways than I can say. How I wish every girl might realize just what it means to go down deep every time she smiles, I think we would remember and smile oftener than we do.

There are ways and ways of smiling. One may smile and not have it mean a single thing, or one may smile and have a person feel it to one's finger tips. Such a smile isn't easy, but what a compensation one may have for any trouble taken to learn it after the results are considered. But in spite of everything, I have never heard anyone give a smile anything but the praise it deserves.

I have a simple recipe for smiling which I had to learn before smiling came as easy as it does now. Now I smile just from force of habit, but I really mean everything my smile says. My recipe is this: When you are about to smile, think first that in your smile you are about to promise something. That is what a smile is for; you know it is a promise and you may make it any kind of a promise you like. Some people hardly move their lips at all in a smile, others smile entirely with their lips and leave their eyes expressionless. But the nicest smile of all is the smile that promises most. And I can promise much in "Baby Mine" at your beautiful new Rialto theater tomorrow.

"THE KNIFE" NOT A FILM SHOW

Eugene Walter's new play, "The Knife," will come to the Page theater Tuesday, October 16. The play made a deep impression in New York during its several months' run at the Bijou theater. The piece deals with police graft, clairvoyance and allied topics, and is reported to be gripping and powerful. In the cast will be

EDEN PRECINCT

I. M. Huff and an auto party and a man with a team and hayrack were in a mixup last Saturday evening near the bridge north of Phoenix; the extent of the damage is not known.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Reese spent last Friday with Mrs. Reese's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey, and started Sunday for Los Angeles, by auto, where they expect to spend the winter.

The Women of Woodcraft will hold their next regular business meeting Wednesday afternoon in W. O. W. hall, Phoenix, and all members are requested to be present; it will be to your interest.

Louis Colver has bought a car and was learning to drive it Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. C. Roberts left Phoenix last week for Lebanon, Mo., where she expects to spend the winter visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Shearer of Medford spent Saturday night and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey in North Talent. Ed Thornton

MARY PICKFORD'S LATEST TRIUMPH IS REDWOOD ROMANCE

We had thought to use the line, "Mary Pickford gives conclusive proof in 'A Romance of the Redwoods' that she is justly popular," as an opening shot in this review, but suddenly the intelligence swept over us that somewhere at some time it had been employed before. "Little Mary still has no rivals" proves just about as original, and "The latest triumph of the darling of the screen" doesn't surpass either of the former in novelty. However, now that we've written them all we are firm in our purpose to stand by them. But it would take a good many catch lines and pet press agent phrases to adequately convey the quality of Miss Pickford's performance in this, her latest Artercraft picture, "The Romance of the Redwoods."

There are hearty laughs in the spectacle of Jenny, fresh from staid Boston, encountering the crude methods of living prevalent in the west in the days of '49, in her announcement that she wants laundry work, and the subsequent efforts of the miners to be first in tendering her their respective shirts, and also in the final discovery of the vigilance committee that the compromising story told by Jenny to free "Black" Brown was a clever little lie, cooked specially for the occasion. In fact, the picture is superbly balanced from first to last.

The photographic effects and lighting introduced by Alvin Wyckoff are realistic to the extreme. The scenes selected are typically western. In fact, in the matter of production "A Romance of the Redwoods" leaves not a thing for the hungry eyes of the hypercritical to seize upon.

Chief in the supporting cast are Elliott Dexter as "Black" Brown, Charles Ogle as Lyn, Tully Marshall and Raymond Hatton have parts of lesser importance but which are acted splendidly.

Mary Pickford's engagement in the "Romance of the Redwoods" closes tonight at the Page theatre.

Norman Hackett, May Backley, Eva Benton, Clifford Stork, Cordelia MacDonald, Robert Barrat, Frank Wood, Franklin George and others.

ing the week on Butte creek at the home of Charles Terrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter have leased the Wilson place west of town and are expected to arrive soon from eastern Oregon. Mrs. Porter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herring of this place.

Mr. Manning and Mr. Dillard recently brought in a nice flock of wild ducks, and a nice catch of fish.

Mrs. Perry was a Medford visitor Tuesday morning.

Mr. Bickerdike took a nice supply of produce to the public market in Medford Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Koozer were called away Wednesday by the sickness of Mr. Koozer's father.

Mrs. Manas, who has been in Ashland for some time past, is being cared for by Mrs. Kline here. Mr. Mannas has taken the Steppy house where he can have oversight of his mother.

Mr. Rice has rented his place and has returned to Arizona where he has been offered employment.

Dr. and Mrs. Anderson left for their home in Roseburg after a short visit with Mrs. Anderson's father, J. N. Rice.

Last Friday morning there was quite an exciting time in North Talent. Lawrence French left home in the morning to take a little hunt on his father's place and when he did not return that day nor the next night his parents became alarmed and raised an alarm. Telephones and autos were soon brought into use, but not until Saturday noon was the young man located. When found he and another boy had gone up Coleman creek to get a coat that Lawrence had left at an old cabin a few days before.

Last Sunday Walter Canaday and H. G. Shearer, C. Carey and Sybil Furry took an auto ride up to Mr. Gamell's place west of Phoenix and Mr. Carey says Mr. Gamell has one of the finest orchards and the finest and cleanest apples on it that there is in the valley and says he sure has some grapes, too—the finest ever.

A. H. Houston of Phoenix left Friday for Hood River to visit his son, Emil Houston, and family.

Ed Hamlin of Eden Valley has purchased a new Chevrolet car and was out Sunday with his mother and a friend trying out his new purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. John Rader, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ashpole and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ashpole, Sr., Mrs. Taylor and Ted, Mr. Furry, Mr. and Mrs. H. Standley, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Owens, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rader composed an auto party over the mountains and down the Klamath river Sunday. J. M.
