

The Kaiser's Iron Cross, For Murder.

The Brand of Cain!

The Lord Set a Mark Upon Cain

BOOK OF GENESIS, Chapter IV.

2. . . . Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord.

3. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of the first thereof; and the Lord had respect unto Abel and unto his offering.

4. But unto Cain and to his offering, He had no respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

5. And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth, and why is thy countenance fallen?

6. If thou doest well, shall thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door.

7. And Cain said unto the Lord, My offering is rejected, as if I had not brought it. And he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

8. And he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

9. And he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

10. And he said, What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

11. And now art thou cursed from the earth, which has opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand!

12. A fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13. And the Lord set a mark upon Cain.

Here is History's greatest Murderer!

All the criminals and ravagers of the earth since time began will hand the arch-fiend's laurels to the modern Madman who "blasphemously claims partnership with God."

Caesar slew his thousands; Attila with fire and sword swept tens of thousands into eternity; then came Timur—

*"Who built his ghastly towers
Of eighty thousand human skulls."*

Hundreds of thousands of homes were desolated by Napoleon's ambition to give a world that was just beginning to learn the meaning of Freedom.

These are all as children, "pickers," to the man from Potsdam who slays his millions to enslave the world that glories in its Freedom.

To Murder Millions—think what that means! Former Ambassador Gerard told Seattle:

"If you were to take the bodies of those fallen in battle alone and put them in line, head touching heel, those bodies would reach from New York to San Francisco; another line would reach back to New York, and then back again half way across the country to Denver. I wish I could take the man who is responsible and drive him along such a Calvary of bodies, scourging and lashing him at every step!"

The Belgians, the Armenians, the Poles, the Serbians who have perished miserably—murdered by the Kaiser—bring the total to fourteen millions.

If the Kaiser had murdered seven thousand human beings every year since Christ was born in Bethlehem—almost 2,000 years—he would even now be just catching up with his record since August 1, 1914.

This is the man America is fighting; this is the man to conquer whom your sons are taking their places in the blood-drenched trenches of Europe; this is the man who says "America next!"
