Forward!
The fighting forces in France, when they hear the stirring cry of "Forward!" charge in spirited fashion against the enemy and leap over the trenches in the face of bullets, barbed wires and bombs.
Let this be your battle-cry in the struggle of life. The man of courage and determination is not content to remain in the background; he is sure with the will to attack.
You will find no better way to do this than a sound banking connection, one that will aid you with advice, counsel and loans in the battle of business, one that will always be at your side when the fight is fiercest. That is the proud position occupied by this institution toward all of its depositors.
We will be glad to number you among them.
The Jackson County Bank
Medford, Oregon. Established 1883.

At the First M. E. church Thursday evening a reception was held in honor of Dr. J. C. Rollins and family, who have returned to the Medford pastorate another year. The assemblage was also a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steep, who leave soon for Tulsa, Okla., to be gone indefinitely and will visit their daughter, Mrs. Frank Reed. The church was decorated tastefully with red and green and the large number present were appreciative of a very interesting program. Dr. C. C. Van Sooyoc presided as chairman, and each number of the program was heartily applauded and a few encores. Instrumental duets, Misses Brooks and Philbrook; address of welcome, O. C. Boggs; response, Dr. Rollins; violin solo, Elias Heime, accompanied by Miss French; vocal solo, Miss French, accompanied by Mrs. Van Sooyoc; reading, "An Inventor's Wife," Mrs. Heime; vocal solo, Mr. Brooks; farewell address for Mr. and Mrs. Steep, H. A. Canaday; response, Mr. Steep. Dr. Hill spoke, highly recommending Dr. Rollins, and told of many things praiseworthy. Dr. J. C. Elliott was also present, a noted health specialist, southern California. Everyone seemed in high spirits as the crowd was served to cake and coffee by the Ladies' Aid.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Waters and Mrs. Roughn delightfully entertained the Arts and Crafts League ladies and their husbands Friday evening with a card party at their home on North Central. The decorations were handsome and unique. The bright autumn colors in leaves and flowers were carried out in all the rooms, with pretty jacks of lanterns lighted amid the foliage, giving the wondrous, beautiful effect. While the guests were heartily served to dainty refreshments, the artistic prizes were awarded to Mrs. Satehwell, ladies' highest score; Mr. Cartwright, gentleman's highest score, and Mrs. Heime carried away the cute little booby prize, which the guests all envied. The host and hostesses were thanked by the league for the most delightful evening the club had ever enjoyed.

Friday evening at the home of Sharon Hawk, the A. R. B. class of boys of the M. E. Sunday school delightfully entertained the girls' class of the same Sunday school. The evening was spent with games and music, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Leland Vandemark, Misses Vera Reid, Mildred Bridges, Hazel Elliott, Blanch Lantz, Bessie Jackson, Georgia Williams, May Lindley, Myrtle Oltendale, Lucretia Bateman, Maude Raypholtz, Alice Lyons, Mary Hess and Kate Stine; Messrs. Harold Leonard, Glenn Darby, Earl Campbell, Ralph Brandon, Milburn Harvey, Forrest Westerland, Harold Wiley, Joseph Bateman, Arthur Hess, Carroll Powell, Edward Haerle, Anstin Raymond and Sharon Hawk.

Mr. Roger S. Bennett, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mrs. Charles Butterfield and Mrs. O. C. Boggs entertained at the home of Mrs. Boggs Monday evening for the members of the Ocotille club and their husbands. The evening was given over to bridge, after which light refreshments were served. Honors for the game fell to Mrs. Edward Sautter and Roger Bennett. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sautter; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stoekman; Mr. and Mrs. George Collins; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bennett; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butterfield and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boggs.

The Parent-Teacher circle of the Washington school will hold a meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at the school building in the interest of food conservation. An urgent invitation is extended to all the parents to come and co-operate in the work.

Mrs. Delroy Getchell entertained last Saturday in honor of her little daughter, Valerie, it being her second birthday.

Mrs. J. F. Norwood and mother, Mrs. L. D. Walker, left Thursday for Louisville, Ky., where they will spend the winter.

The Lincoln Parent-Teacher circle will meet at the school building Friday afternoon, October 26, at 3 o'clock. Frances E. Willard day will be observed by the school and the following program will be given: Flag salute, school song, "America," school address, Dr. J. C. Rollins; eulogy, Frances Pierce; "Life of Frances Willard," four pupils; "Her Childhood at Forest Home," Bessie Handice; "Her Education and Travels," Wilhelmina Rimey; "Her Choice of a Career," Esther Ashcraft; "Her Connection with the W. C. T. U.," Fay Garnett; "Quotations From Miss Willard," five pupils of sixth grade; song, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," school. At the close of the program there will be a short business session. All mothers are urged to be present, as the interest of the child and school must be taken into consideration at this critical time in our national affairs. "For the boys and girls of today are the men and women of tomorrow."

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Kline of Central Point, received a very pleasant surprise on Friday evening, October 12, when their friends and neighbors of the west side assembled on mass in honor of their eighteenth wedding anniversary. After an evening spent in social intercourse, the bountiful refreshments which the guests provided were served, and after congratulations and many best wishes for the continuation of their happy marriage the guests departed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Gay, Mrs. M. M. Cooksey, Mr. and Mrs. John Grim, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farra, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walters, James Walters, Rev. and Mrs. P. S. Bandy and Lorna Hamrick.

Mrs. James L. Spink gave a surprise party Wednesday afternoon for her daughter, Mrs. Paul M. Janney, in honor of her birthday. Those present were: Mesdames Honoin, Vilas, Wilson, Denniston, Lunge, E. H. Janney, Myron Root and Paul M. Janney; Misses Hoppen, Burke and Putnam.

The Alpha Delta class of the Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, 747 West Jackson street, Thursday afternoon, October 25, at 2:30. This will be the first meeting, since the summer vacation, and a full attendance of all members is desired. Mesdames McDonald, J. H. Bellinger and A. J. Hanby will assist the hostesses in sewing.

The parents and teachers of the Roosevelt circle are busy preparing for the Halloween party, which is an annual event in their district. Owing to the county institute at Ashland on Halloween proper, the social will be held this year on the Friday preceding, October 26, at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Conro Fiero entertained at their home near Central Point Sunday with an afternoon reception and picnic supper. About twenty guests were present.

Dr. and Mrs. E. N. French and son Ned have returned to Medford for the winter after an absence of five months in the east visiting in Cincinnati, Chicago and Detroit.

Little Jeanette McKee, six months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McKee, scored 100 per cent at the eugenic baby test held in this city on October 9.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmens entertained at dinner Wednesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Biddle of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Biddle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Phipps returned home Friday from Portland, where they attended the wedding of their son, Dolph, to Miss Mary Cellars of that city.

Next Wednesday evening the Eastern Star lodge will have a social evening at the lodge hall. Mrs. E. D. Elwood is chairman of the committee.

Mrs. W. L. Holloway left the first of the week for Portland to visit her daughter, Mrs. John L. Banks and attend the tuberculosis conference.

Miss Weeks was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. M. Purdie was hostess to the Nullo Bridge club Thursday afternoon.

The Misses Carlton entertained at tea at their home Monday afternoon.

William G. Tait has returned from a trip to Portland.

At a simple home wedding solemnized Wednesday night, Miss Mary E. Cellars became the bride of Dolph E. Phipps of Medford. The marriage service was read at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cellars, and Rev. John H. Boyd of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

A bank of yellow and white chrysanthemums and ferns in front of the fireplace made a pretty foil for the bridal party, similar floral decorations being used about the rooms. Miss Mignon Allen of Astoria, one of the bride's sorority sisters, was maid of honor, and her brother, Lieutenant James H. Cellars, of the 348th Field Artillery, stationed at American lake, acted as best man. The ceremony, which was kept on the simplest scale possible, was read at 7 o'clock, and the wedding guests were sorority sisters of the bride, with a few additional friends of the couple. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Edward Phipps, came from their home in Medford to attend the wedding.

Miss Irene Strawbridge sang preceding the ceremony, choosing the favorite, "At Dawning," with violin obligato by Harry Parsons, Miss Lucille Marton played the wedding march.

The bride, who is a charming and popular girl, was gowned attractively in a semi-formal toilette of electric blue chiffon velvet, trimmed with beaver fur. Her hat was a small toque of blue velvet with silver. She also wore a corsage of orchids.

The maid of honor wore a stunning creation of black velvet and iridescent bead trimming, a small black velvet hat and a corsage bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held, Mr. and Mrs. Phipps and Mr. and Mrs. Cellars receiving with the bridal party.

Presiding in the dining room, where a buffet supper was served, were Mrs. Joseph Sheehan and Mrs. Dell O'Hanlon, both of whom are recent brides and sorority sisters of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Phipps attended the University of Oregon, the former being a Phi Delta Theta man, and his bride a Gamma Phi Beta. The couple left for their ranch in Medford, where they will make their home.—Portland Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Phipps came to Medford Thursday morning and immediately left for Rogue Elk Resort and Crater lake, after which they will return here, where they will make their home.

The regular meeting of the Woman's College club was held at the home of Miss Grace Mitchell Saturday afternoon, October 13. An unusually large attendance marked the beginning of the winter's activities. This program was in charge of Mrs. Ed Warner, who made a few remarks on food conservation, which was the topic for the afternoon. An enjoyable as well as profitable talk was given by Miss Anne McCormick, who gave many useful suggestions to the ladies regarding means of economizing. She explained the importance of the present Hoover campaign and urged the co-operation of all. Musical selections by Miss Flora Gray greatly added to the enjoyment of the afternoon. Refreshments were served by the following committee: Mr. Herman Hanson, chairman; the Misses Searl, Fielder and Kentner. Saturday evening the ladies furnished the dessert for the dinner at the camp grounds of the Company G boys, who left there last week. A dinner had been planned, but the unexpected departure of the boys prevented the plans from materializing.

The Parent-Teacher Circle of the Roosevelt school held a very busy and interesting meeting on Friday afternoon, October 12. Various committees for the year were appointed and arrangements made for a delegate to be sent to the State Federation of the Congress of Mothers. Miss Ferguson, the principal, made a strong plea for the campaign in behalf of food conservation. Much interest is being taken in the Halloween fête, which, owing to the teachers' institute, will be held this year on Friday preceding Halloween evening. Many new ideas are being worked out for the entertainment and the event promises to be of more than usual merit.

The High School Parent-Teacher circle will open its activities this season with a Hoover luncheon next Tuesday, October 23, at 12 o'clock. All high school teachers, special teachers and circle members are cordially invited to be present. The luncheon will be served in the basement of the Methodist church building, corner Fourth and Bartlett streets.
