THE HUNS DID THIS

"Faubourg of Nancy, Mr. Vasse had in his cellar many refugees. Germans set fire to his house. Refugees try to escape, but are shot one after the other as they come out. These abominations have been committed by the Second and Third regiments of Bavarian Infantry."—From the official account of German atrocities at Meurthe et Moselle, August 29, 1914.

The above is the fourth of five pictures furnished exclusively to the Mail Tribune from the paintings of Ferdinand Guedry. They were painted especially for the French government from incidents authenticated by French official reports, the accuracy of which is vouched for by President Poincare and General Joffre. The paintings, with others, are on exhibition at 677 Fifth avenue, New York, the house loaned to the committee for the relief of disabled French soldiers by Colonel Cornelius Vanderbilt.

BOYS AT THE FRONT SERVING UNCLE SAM

(The Mail Tribune will publish in this column each week interesting letters from our soldiers and sailors and news items concerning their movements. The Association of Mothers, Wives and Next of Kin requests that items for publication be furnished to Mrs. M. C. Barber, chairman of the press committee, not later than Thursday of each week.)

Any mother who hasn't received a letter from her boy in the 65th from England, must not be too quick to think it wasn't written. Mrs. Coleman received a letter from Frank, from France a day or two before the English letter came, postmarked Rousey, the same as Morris Leonard's, last week. The French letters have no postmarks except when they do. The letter from Frank is postmarked Limoges, which is about a third of the distance to Paris from Bordeaux. Later letters from the 65th have no postmark.

Dear folks: Just a line to let you know that I have arrived safely overseas. I suppose you have received my card before now. Can't tell you where I am, but will say that we are not as yet at our destination. Don't know when we will leave here, but will write as soon as I get there. England is a beautiful country. Everything is green and luscious looking. Went on a hike today and saw some quaint old buildings. Our trip across was without any mishaps at all. Didn't enjoy it much though, as it was pretty crowded. Have seen a lot since leaving Oregon, and when I get back can tell you a lot. Have traveled over 10,000 miles. Believe me the good old U. S. A. don't know what war is. You sure can notice it over here. When you send cards, send something sweet and something that will keep a long time. Write to me soon. Give my love to all my friends. Love,

FRANK L. COLEMAN,
Somewhere in France,
April 12th, 1918.

My dear folks:
At last we are in France after having traveled a long way. We are in buildings and are very well satisfied. I have slept sitting up and every other way since leaving the United States. It is getting to be a common thing to sleep with your clothes on. Have seen all kinds of weather. The worst of it all was for the fog got in the night. Believe me, France has it on England for climate, as well as air, constellations. I don't think much of the English yet except the French people as well as the soldiers. We are the best I ever saw. Believe me they sure are polite and will do anything in the world for you. Already

I have learned a little of French and think by the time I get home I will be a pretty good Frenchman. They are crazy for American tobacco and cigarettes. The little kids 12 to 16 years old all smoke cigarettes and every evening they gather around our quarters and beg for them.

We are right in a town and today they took us out for a bath. It sure did go good as it was the first one we had had for some time. Was pretty dirty and cattle cars are not very clean. Have eaten a lot of corned beef and hard tack on the trip. Now we are getting regular American rations, and they sure taste good. My, how I longed for some good home cooking more than once. I could eat a dozen pies right now, apple, please.

We don't hear any war news, and no doubt you know more about it than we do. The people over here are very confident, and I know it can't last long. Have not seen Bill Mitchell or any other Medford boys with the exception of Boyd Keizer. Saw him in England. I have no idea at all where any of them are.

I am feeling fine and enjoying it all, even if it is a little hard at times. Dewey Purdin and the rest of the Medford boys are O. K. I suppose you know Paul Leonard was left in New York when we left. He was quarantined on account of spotted fever. Don't know whether he will catch it or not. Sure hope so. I haven't heard a word from any of you since leaving Medford and suppose I will get a lot of mail one of these days. When you all read this send it on to Elbert. It will interest him. Tell all my friends hello for me. And don't forget to write. We have to sign our names in full. Love to all.

CORP. FRANK J. COLEMAN.
I have two letters are so much more interesting read at the same time, showing the difference in his impressions.

Another letter from the 65th, Murrel Kiddle, to his sister, Mrs. Beebe.

Dear Gladys:
Well, I will try and write a few lines this evening, as we have stopped for a few days. Have been on the road nearly a month and a half, without a rest.

I have been sick with a sore throat and cold. Nearly everybody in the battery has cold, but that is to be expected, being in so many different climates. I see why they want strong men for the army. It surely takes them.

If they would let us, we could write a whole book, everything is so much different from our own country. We are camped now in one of the old Roman buildings, you have seen the pictures, and they are just like them. All the buildings are made of stone. There doesn't seem to be any lumber in the country. The railroads are funny looking things, but you can sure travel some.

We have very good food over here, sugar is the only thing that is scarce. It is awful hard to make the people know what you want and then money is hard to count till you get used to it. These people are very polite and try to do anything they can for us.

Guy Owens was over to see us several days ago, also Boyd Oseneham, don't know how far away he is, only that airplanes are thicker than birds around here.

The climate is about the same as in southern Oregon, and this seems to be quite a fruit country. But they want awful prices for fruit. I would surely like to get a letter, have been expecting one every day. The chaplain told us today, that he thought we would get some mail next week.

Well, I will quit, hope you are all well and that I will get a letter soon. With love to all.

MURREL M. KIDDLE.
Bill Mitchell writes that he had a cough and went to a city and found Frederick Heath there. They had dinner together and both had a good visit with each other.

Earl King has written to his mother that he is out of the hospital and with his company again. He said that Russell Semon was with him and they were both writing to their mothers.

The libraries of the state are having placed on their walls an honor roll of the boys in the library districts much like those now in our churches. A list is being made for the Medford libraries. The honor rolls in churches are being secured. If any one knows of any name not on any church or school roll, please send the name in full, with branch of service, to the library, or if possible, telephone to Mrs. M. C. Barber.

The paper published somewhere in France by Companies A, C, and Headquarters of the 1st Battalion, 20th Engineers, has on its staff, Co. C correspondent, Private Clyde C. Barrman.

A letter from Paul Leonard gives the information that Carl Ringer was left in quarantine at Camp Merritt, when the five Medford boys of the 65th were released. He was certainly "out of luck" as the boys say, but Carl Ringer is too good a soldier to let that bother him. Once he gets over he will be in step with the rest.

Cards have come announcing the safe arrival over seas of five of the six boys left in quarantine when the 65th sailed. They were Paul Leonard, Harry Bryant, Ralph Balcon, Clarence Robinett and Graydon Childreth.

LEONARD EASILY WHIPS MCCARTHY IN FOURTH ROUND

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, easily outboxed Johnny McCarthy of San Francisco, in a four round bout here tonight, which was one of nine events in a program arranged for the war department athletic fund. Approximately 10,000 people witnessed the bouts. The gate receipts were $18,540.

Willie Ritchie, former world's lightweight champion, also won his bout in four rounds against Frankie Jones of San Francisco. Ritchie, however, experienced more difficulty in achieving his victory than the present champion, as Jones pressed him hard.

Just previous to the Leonard-McCarthy bout, a telegram was received from the war department, which forbade the rendering of a decision. A gold medal from Mayor James Rolph Jr., of San Francisco was presented to Leonard, "in recognition of valuable services on behalf of the war department athletic fund."

The money derived is to be applied to the purchase of athletic paraphernalia for the training camps at Camp Lewis, Wash., and Camp Kearny and Fremont in California. It was expected that $15,000 would be raised.

BORGLUM FOUND GUILTY OF GRAFT CHARGE

NEW YORK, May 11.—In a statement issued here late tonight, Gutzon Borglum characterized as a "scurrilous frame-up" the charges made against him in Washington yesterday in relation to his connection with the investigation of aircraft production.

"This scurrilous frame-up, which I charge it to be, has been in the hands of the government for months," he said, "and is now sprung when it has finally become evident that I shall persist until the airplane failure is honestly and thoroughly investigated. The charges of Mix, a confessed tool of Deeds, and Mix's engineer, are lies unreservedly, both in intention and statement, as applied to me in anything I ever did, directly or indirectly, that was improper in my capacity as a representa-

Catarhal Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running nose or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be removed and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. AMERICANS AID IN RAID OF FRENCH SOLDIERS

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 10.—(By the Associated Press.) The American artillery participated and the American infantry lent some assistance in a successful French raid in the Apremont forest, northwest of Toul, at dawn today. The American batteries, according with the French artilleryists, in a heavy two-hours' bombardment were showered with gas shells by the Germans.

Slightly to the east of the section raided American patrols created a diversion. One patrol entered Apremont village, which was found to be deserted. This provoked a German barrage while the men were returning. Another patrol cut the enemy's first system of barbed wire and was engaged on the second entanglement, ten yards from the trenches, when it was attacked by 15 Germans, using rifles, bombs and pistols. The Americans fought for 15 minutes and retired, without suffering casualties, on the approach of enemy reinforcements.

On the Luneville sector, quiet prevailed.
