ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Ashland now has its duly constituted company of the state militia, the home guard having been mustered in on Wednesday night by Acting Adjutant General Williams. The organization, which lagged in the fifty-odd classification for some time past, might soon reached the required 65 men as to numbers when the alternative to muster or not to muster was put up to the community.

According to reports from The Dalles, F. E. Moore, principal of the Ashland high school, has been elected to a like position in the schools of that city for the ensuing year.

Rev. W. L. Mellinger, pastor of the Christian church, after lecturing at intervals in neighboring towns, will take up Chautauqua work exclusively for the next four months, beginning June 1, his territory being assigned in a number of states.

products being the motive for flagging the autos. Very little liquor and no "valuable ones" were found secreted as contraband. Preparing for a large haul from the cars searched, the alephic ward in the city hall was on the Saturday previous cleared of 75 quarts of whiskey, all of which was poured into sewers tributary to Ashland creek, spirit thermometers on the Plaza recording 110 degrees in the shade during the emptying process.

Miss Constance McWilliams of Klamath Falls is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. McWilliams.

Passengers of the inter-county trolley report that on Tuesday the council of national defense at Klamath Falls ordered a Mrs. Anna Blachly, dressmaker, and J. W. Tyrrell, barber, to leave that vicinity instantly, owing to disloyal pro-German utterances too frequently expressed. The man left, but the woman lingered and was arrested.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Drew, from Klamath county, are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Smith.

C. B. Watson has gone to Klamath Falls, where he is in the employment of the Ewanna Box Mill Co.

The annual May dance, arrangements for which are now being planned by the Auxiliary club, will be given on the evening of Friday, May 21.

The funeral of Edgar L. Cochran, who died on Tuesday of pneumonia, was held Thursday, interment being in Wagner Creek cemetery. The deceased was 85 years of age, and was employed in the local Southern Pacific roundhouse. He leaves a wife and two children.

The watchmen guarding the score of tunnels and trestles on the Siskiyou within Oregon territory have been sworn in as deputy sheriffs of Jackson county, the oath of office being administered here and their duties defined accordingly.

W. S. Du Peau, who has been employed for some time past at Pittsburg, Calif., has returned home for the summer.

A letter from Leo Dollar now in the U. S. navy, states that he is having the time of his life, has been to France twice and has made one trip to Scotland and has seen a number of hostile submarines.

It is reported that Table Rock roosters are now crowing on the new time, having finally adjusted themselves to the change, however milk cows do not come up from the pastures any earlier than before the change, hogs being the only animals on the farm to readily adopt the new system.

The ditch company has a crew employed in cleaning out road ditches. Don't forget the primary election to be held May 17th.

The Itching and Sting of Blazing, Fiery Eczema Seems Like the Skin Is on Fire. There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation.

of extra work being carried on owing to the war. The next Red Cross drive will begin May 20th, so let us be ready to once more come to the aid of this noble cause.

During the recent Liberty loan drive bonds to the number of 23 were sold in this school district.

The band of sheep belonging to the Rosenberg brothers were moved last Saturday from the pasture on the Ray ranch to the home ranch at Agate to be sheared.

Three auto loads of Table Rockers were taking in the sights at Prospect last Sunday and report an enjoyable time, notwithstanding the fact that a large tree fell across the road on the return trip, dividing the procession and requiring several hours' hard work to cut a road around it.

Henry Maury and sister Miss Mary of Ross Lane, Sanford Richardson and family and Miss Katherine Nealon spent Sunday in the Meadows district along Evans creek.

The little thrift stamp contest between the Table Rock, Agate and Willow Springs schools which closed recently, was won by the Table Rock school with sales of stamps amounting to nearly $700, which is remarkable, considering the fact that our school district is the smaller of the three in area and in population, has fewer children of school age, is further away from the valley towns and a Liberty loan drive had just been completed, that netted the sale of 24 bonds.

Patriotism is running high at the Modoc orchard, several of the employees purchasing Liberty bonds and thrift stamps, one man buying $20 worth of stamps.

The prize in the thrift stamp contest was an automobile trip to the Ashland park, where an all-day picnic was held, and the "kiddies" going from this district report a most enjoyable time and proclaim Mr. Elden a very nice entertainer.

"Galliger," a lively high school comedy, will be staged at the Table Rock schoolhouse next Saturday night. This is an up-to-date, clean, snappy play with the parts well carried out by the performers, and including the excellent musical selections between acts will make an evening of ideal entertainment and as the proceeds will be used for patriotic purposes should draw a full house.

The dance given at Central Hall May 10th, for the benefit of the Red Cross was well attended and quite a sum was realized to carry on this good and noble work.
