WEST AGREES NOT TO PUSH SENATORIAL RACE

PORTLAND, May 20.—Former Governor Oswald West, nominee of the democratic party in Friday's primaries for United States senator, has issued a public statement, addressed to Senator Charles L. McNary, nominated by the republicans, proposing that for the sake of their "life-long personal friendship," and because the public will be better occupied with helping to win the war than in prosecuting a political campaign, they refrain altogether from any activity whatever between now and the November election in behalf of their respective candidacies.
