

BOYS AT THE FRONT SERVING UNCLE SAM

(The Mail Tribune will publish in this column each week interesting letters from our soldiers and sailors and news items concerning their movements. The Association of Mothers, Wives and Next of Kin requests that items for publication be furnished to Mrs. M. C. Barber, chairman of the press committee, not later than Thursday of each week.)

Another boy who enlisted as a private and is now a corporal.

April 31, 1918.

Dear Papa: I am somewhere in sunny old France, just where I wanted to be free months ago. I like it fine here, we are quartered in a great big stone building. I am in charge of one room with eight men in it. It is a fine big room with electric lights and everything. I wouldn't mind staying here a long time.

The band is getting along fine, we practice every day and play a concert outside every day for the men. The place where we are quartered is right in town, the men are allowed passes but they must be with a non-commissioned officer. I have taken several men on pass with me since I have been here. There are lots of pretty girls in this town but I can't talk French so I don't get along with them very well.

We can't buy tobacco over here, the army has provided a way for us to get one can a week. When we go out on the streets the French soldiers try to buy our tobacco. We can hardly buy any candy or sweet stuff. I found a place where I could get candy but it cost one franc for three pieces—that is 20 cents in our money.

We are getting good food here. We are getting good old U. S. rations. For a while we were getting English rations and we nearly starved. The building we are staying in is an old building and we are staying in an old old spears and armor used by the French soldiers long ago. I am well satisfied with the branch of the service I am in. I think it is the best. I am learning to play my cornet better every day. I am as thin as a rail after hiking so far, but I feel good. We had lots of hiking to do during the trip. Let me know if you got my cornet. I want you to keep it until I get back. I oiled the valves and things so it will be all right. I haven't received any mail since I left New York. It has been nearly two months but really I haven't expected any. Today is Sunday and I am going to church services pretty soon. The band is going to play the music at church.

Your loving son, ROLLIE. Corporal Petty, Band Hdq., Co. 65th Art. O. A. C., A. E. F. Don't worry about your cornet, son. Your father will take good care of it and be glad to do anything for a son of whom he has every reason to be proud.

Calutous McCredle is still in the hospital trying to get rid of the diphtheria germs in his throat. He is to have his tonsils removed and hopes that a few days after he will be able to rejoin his company abroad. He is to be sent to a tent hospital so see what pure air and sunshine will do for him.

Post cards have been received announcing the safe arrival of Corporal Eugene Narreagan and of Acting Corporal William Stinson overseas. "Good-bye, good luck, God bless you."

Somewhere in France. Well, I prophesied right so far. I said I would arrive safely and I did. I don't know, but I suppose you have heard all kinds of stories (some thing censored). I sure would have hated to take a swim for several hours out there on the watery deep. It didn't look at all inviting.

I do not know where we are going, or when, and don't even know where we are, only that we are "somewhere in France." So you see I can't disclose such information to the enemy even if I chose and I don't choose. Not by a long shot. But I sure will have lots to tell about when I get back if things keep up like they are now. This is a very interesting country, as much as I have seen of it, altho not exactly modern. But a person could not expect any better. In fact it isn't nearly so bad as I expected. It probably will be worse later on but one must expect that because we are not on any plane, not by a whole lot. I am expecting the worst and hoping for the best. And say, won't I be some thankful little boy when I set foot on American soil again. I can't think of any place, nor have I seen any place that I would rather live in than old Oregon. She is the best place in the world, and right where you are the best spot in the state and I'll bet that if you ever leave there you will go back.

I haven't seen Rollie (Petty) for some time and haven't any idea where he is but hope to see him in the near future. Well, how is everybody by now? Tell them all hello for me and that I am feeling fine as a fiddle. Don't worry about me as I am perfectly able to take care of myself, or have been up to date. Gee, I sure would like to see you again, but it won't be for a long time, I guess. Well, I will be impatiently waiting to hear from you all. Write long letters and as often as you can. I will close now and will write again in the next few days or maybe a week. I haven't had time to get any of your letters yet, but hope to soon.

I am, your, HARRY BRYANT, Battery E, 65th Artillery.

Pauret Wilson, son of O. N. Wilson, writes that he is in the trenches feeling fine, having the time of his life. "I am living in a good dugout and it wouldn't be so good if we didn't have a few pet rats and we all have a few 'cooties.' The copy of the Stars and Stripes he sent tells of the alarm clock that some ennobled American hung on the barbed wire barricades and when it went off the Germans used a fine lot of ammunition on it and being a real American clock, it kept right on ringing. No wonder the Americans have the Germans locoed—they never know whether a raid is on or whether the Americans are amusing themselves.

A message from Portland gives the good news that a cablegram has been received stating that the 318th engineers have arrived safely overseas. Ernest Carpenter, Kary York and Robert Roy of Ruch were the valley boys in the company.

Robert Blaine Wolff who enlisted in the engineers corps has been ill in a hospital in Washington, D. C., for some time, and will be coming home soon.

The following letter was received by Mrs. J. C. Aitken from her son in the aviation service. One son, Ralph, has been in France with an engineering corps for almost a year. Kelly Field, May 9, 1918.

My Dear Mother: I received your welcome letter the other day. My good news arrived today and that is that I am to go across soon and expect to start any day now. In fact have practically started already. I left Line 58 today and am in Kelly 3 now. There are 250 of us in the detachment and we have one lieutenant and four acting sergeants. I have a few over 100 men to look after so I expect to be quite busy from now on. Our lieutenant is sure a fine fellow and he has made a good impression on all the boys for they all speak very good of him.

I don't expect it will be any use to write me any more until I get settled again as I don't expect I will receive the letters. I don't know where I will go from here. I went to lodge in San Antonio last Monday and I can't say that I had a good time for I didn't. There were only 15 in lodge and it took about 20 minutes to hold lodge. Believe me, no place like home, or rather Medford.

I guess I will ring off now as it is about midnight and it is not very long until morning, so will close with lots of love to you all. Your loving son, GEORGE. Fortunate for this lad that his mother knows that mail will be forwarded and that he will want it long before he can get it.

A post card to L. A. Diamond gives the information that Sergeant Carl Ringer has arrived safely overseas. Sergeant Ringer was left behind in quarantine when the second detachment of the 65th, also left in quarantine, sailed.

Merritt Merriman had another operation last Tuesday. A wire from the surgeon on Friday states that the operation was successful and that Merritt is in excellent condition. He is now in a hospital in New York City where the Red Cross have charge and it is hoped that he will soon be able to start home.

Lieutenant Thomas Scantlin sent a wire to his father from Hoboken on May 17. Lieutenant Floyd Hart was with him. They had been given ten days' furlough and both boys made good use of the time visiting relatives. "Good-bye, good luck, God bless you."

Sergeant Merle Kellogg will finish his course at the motor school June 20th and will then be home on a furlough. He hasn't been home since he left in March, 1917, has worked hard and certainly has earned all the good things that will come his way when he gets home.

Louis Jenkins and Ronald Trowbridge are still at Vancouver barracks and still eagerly hoping that they will be the next ones to go over. They are in the signal corps. Co. 7 have been at Fort Canby practicing on the big guns there and have also had instruction in the gas masks. They think that 27 or more are to be taken out to form a nucleus for a new company to go over and every one of them hopes he will be one to go.

After Three Years. Many men and women are sick and don't know it. Some never discover they have kidney trouble until they apply for life insurance. The kidneys are working all the time, filtering poisonous waste out of the blood stream, and when they become weakened or deranged, headache, backache, pains in sides and groins, so-called rheumatism, languidness, swollen joints and other symptoms develop. Foley Kidney Pills relieved me of severe kidney troubles of three years' standing." Sold everywhere. —Adv.
