

BOYS AT THE FRONT SERVING UNCLE SAM

Lloyd Corey has been in France with the Second Balloon Squadron for the past few months. In a recent letter he says that he is stationed in that part of France once held by German soldiers. Though he spends part of his time under ground he writes that he is well, and likes his work.

Everett Corey, who has been with the ambulance company at Camp Lewis, since his enlistment, is now in an officers' training school. He writes that Jay Gore and James Vance of Medford, have also enrolled in the same training school.

Camp Farragut, Company 16, 3d Reg. Norfolk, Va., May 13, 1918.

Dear Father: I received your letter sometime ago. I am in camp again. Was on the ship six weeks. Had a good time and two trips out to sea. I never got seasick.

Received a letter from Fred's wife sometime ago. I made my rating fine while I was out, made second class. Am getting $40 now. Well, Dad, I am getting along fine and dandy. How is mother now?

Well, it is slow time, so will close. Your son, OLIVER H. TICE.

F. H. Tice is still in base hospital at Camp Lewis. He is improving slowly.

The Y. M. C. A. does fine work in the camps, as in Europe. For one thing there is the free paper, envelopes and ink which they furnish. They have good writing desks, which is a considerable improvement over one's knees. They have good libraries, victrolas, and pianos, besides daily papers from all over the United States, so a person can see a paper from his own town or state. They have some kind of a program every night, besides services on Sundays and Wednesdays. They have movies twice or three times a week, boxing and wrestling, and there is some good talent in the army (some of the best in the world) they put on some first class vaudeville performances. Sometimes actors from the Orpheum circuit come out, and give performances too. So you see the Y. helps out a lot in making army life easier.

This is about all I have time for tonight and I think its long enough anyway. We are going to have a six-act vaudeville, with an eight-piece orchestra tonight and its all ready to start, so good bye for this time.

LAWRENCE LUY.

Private Lawrence Luy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luy of Wollen, Ore. He is stationed at Waco, Tex., in the 623rd Aero Squadron of the aviation section.

How a Jackson county boy cared for young Roosevelt when he was wounded is related in the following letter from Bryan Case, grandson of Mrs. Maurice Case, and nephew of C. M. Case and Mrs. Theo Glass of Antioch:

"Somewhere in France," March 15, 1918.

My Dear Father: I received your most welcome letter a few minutes ago, the one you wrote at home on January 30th. I was sure glad to get it and hear that you were feeling better. I am feeling fine.

Have had one letter from Raymond since he landed. He was well and as happy as could be expected. I don't know where he is, but have hopes of finding out soon. Have a little plan, by which, if it works, we will be able to meet each other.

I certainly see all that there is to be seen and hear all that is to be heard. Have been right in it for over a month. The two towns that I have been working in are all in ruins. There is a whole building standing. We all sleep in dugouts where the rats and "cuties" are plentiful.

Many a time I have hit the ground when a big Boche shell came over. The ground is the safest place when you are out in the open. My work takes me within a few yards of the Boches' lines. It sure is a great experience. You ought to see me get into my gas mask. Why, I can do that in my sleep.

Could have been relieved today and gone back out of danger, but preferred to stay up here. I have helped treat two Boche prisoners who were taken wounded. Also dressed some wounds for T. Roosevelt's son, (Capt. Roosevelt).

Well, Dad, this is a great life if you don't weaken. How about it? I enjoy it and am quite used to the whistle of a shell. Don't worry about me because I am always lucky, you know—ha, ha.

Wrote you a letter a few days ago, but always have to write when I get a letter.

Am still in charge of the Infirmary and Aid station.

Well, Dad, will have to close for this time, as I have some patients to look after, wishing you the best of luck and health, I remain, as ever, Your loving son, BRYAN CASE.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Swan Berquest, one of our prosperous farmers, has sold his farm and is preparing to leave this part of the country. He told Wm. Von der Hellen that he was going back to France to help clean out the Germans. He was in town Thursday morning settling up his affairs and among other things settled for his W. M. T. He sold to C. E. Engkhard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Selter, W. Belle, wife and stepson, Corbett Smith of Butte Falls, motored thru town Thursday on their way to Medford. C. C. Pallem, Portland, mechanical engineer Standard Oil Co., and W. E. Walker, manager Standard Oil Co., dined at the Sunnyside.

Denny Zimmerman who has been living in the house owned and formerly occupied by Rev. L. L. Simmons, has moved out and gone to the L. C. manganese mine to live, where he expects to work this summer, and Owin Swift has moved into the building.

F. J. Ayers and wife were doing business with our merchants Thursday.

P. S. Anderson, who owns the Vatche ranch on Rogue River, has purchased a Dodge auto and expects in the near future to take a trip to Los Angeles in it.

Mrs. F. I. Newport, wife of the depot agent of the P. & E. R. R. of Medford, came out to assist her sister-in-law, Mrs. Amas Ayers, in the business in the E. P. depot during the absence of her husband who was called to Portland on business.

Mrs. Rosa Smith, wife of one of the R. R. employes, came out Thursday.

W. H. Crandall, the hustling farmer and fancy poultry raiser, was in town Thursday afternoon.

There are three or four auto trucks hauling manganese ore out from the mine daily and now have a large quantity stacked up at the depot ready for shipment. They each make three trips a day bringing one and a half tons at a load.

Thursday we had a regular train wreck on the P. & E. R. R. As the train was coming out from Butte Falls loaded with five cars of logs a car of ties and two box cars, an empty flat car and the passenger coach, one of the logs jarred off the top of one of the cars, causing the derailment of four of the log cars and the passenger car, and the result was that the conductor, Charley Bacon, detached the cars that were wrecked and transferred the passengers to an empty flat car, using railroad ties for seats, and came on out to E. P. and as it happened Henry Trusty, the E. P.-Perist mail carrier, was at the depot with his Ford and Charley Bacon soon arranged for the transportation of the passengers to Medford, among whom were Mrs. John Sandaz, Mrs. Harvy Smith and a man and his wife whose name I didn't learn who was going on to Yreka, Calif., that night and besides them some four or five little children and several men. The men all except the man who was going to Yreka were taken on to Medford on the little speeder used by the section men.

After Charley had arranged for his passengers he started back up the line with his engineer, Tony McClellen, "Dick" Diamond and El Coy, the two brakemen and Mr. Stout, the fireman, and in the course of four hours they placed the four log cars and coach on the track, after repairing it for considerable of it was out of commission, and were in E. P. safe and sound. There was one of the cars broken in two in the middle, but not so bad but it could make the trip. For fast work in that line Charley and his crew are up to date. Fortunately there was no one hurt and no great damage done.

Frank L. Bailey, a timber cruiser of the general land office, and William of Applegate spent Thursday night with us; they were on their way to Butte Falls.

Mr. Berelson, who has charge of the water intake of the Medford waterworks, came out Friday and took the E. P.-L. C. stage for home.

Our mill men, the Brandon Bros., are running the Snowy Butte mills night and day on their second contract to furnish the government with flour. They have already shipped the first contract, 79,000 pounds, and are rushing the second lot thru as fast as possible.

H. N. Starr of Marshall Wells Hdw. Co., Portland, was here for supper Friday.

The arrangement was made to have the Reese Creek, Brownsboro, Lem Charley and Eagle Point schools meet in a nice grove about three miles above here on the creek Friday morning and have a nice social time and picnic dinner but there were only two schools represented, the Brownsboro and Eagle Point schools. The cause of the failure of the other schools coming here I have not learned. They had the usual sports enjoyed on such occasions, such as running, jumping, etc., in the forenoon and in the p. m. Prof. Allen of the Corvallis college gave them an address on club work and then Mr. Harrington of Salem gave an address on conservation of feed, etc. There was quite a large crowd and all hands had a good time and the dinner was just like all the picnic dinners they have on Butte creek, first-class.

I am requested by our primary teacher, Miss Pina Benedict, to tender the thanks of the board of teachers to those who so liberally gave the use of their autos to carry the children to and back from the grove and other little acts of kindness.

Miss Mabel Thompson of Derby, who has been visiting Miss Joyce Von der Hellen, returned home Saturday. Mrs. George West, wife of one of the foresters, was on the train going to B. F. for a few days to visit with Mrs. Bulah Hildreth.

J. B. Jackson, who with his family have been to San Francisco and Mare Island to visit their children, returned Friday night.

Since my last report Swan Berquest has settled up for the W. M. T. and Lem F. Coy has renewed his sub. to the D. M. T.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

The senior class enjoyed a trip to Ashland last week as part of their yearly frolic, visiting Kingsbury Springs, Helman Baths and luncheon in beautiful Lillia park, returning by way of Medford to attend the Page theater.

Sunday night the baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. Dorran in the M. E. church to an interested audience on the subject "As a Man Thinketh, So Shall He Be."

Wednesday night the graduation exercises are to be in the opera house, with C. M. Thomas delivering the address.

Elmer Cooksey receives the scholarship of Willamette University, having highest of the six points required.

Miss Marjorie Lewis receives the Pacific University scholarship.

The following is the list of graduates: Elmer Cooksey, Margaret Chisholm, Alva Cook, Marjorie Lewis, Ada Lewis, Esta Davidson, Elizabeth Smith, Horta Paulson, Velma Davidson, Maud Coy and Earl Cook.

Mrs. Mattie Kees left Monday to visit in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Pelton of Sams Valley were shopping in Gold Hill Monday.

W. C. Kinney of Sams Valley was a Gold Hill business visitor Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Traux made a trip to Medford Monday.

Mrs. Ella Caine and daughter Helen, were Medford visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Dennis Dugan of Sams Valley was a Gold Hill visitor Monday.

Mrs. H. C. Baughman, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Milam, left Monday for Ashland where she will remain for some time.

A. S. Rosenbaum, claim agent for the S. P., stopped over between trains Monday to visit at the Horace Pelton home.

Mrs. H. J. Van Hovenberg of Sams Valley was a Gold Hill visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Shanks was in from Sardine creek Monday.

Mrs. Frank Avery and Miss Nora Newton of Sardine creek were shopping in Gold Hill and visiting friends Monday.

Mrs. Emmet Sutton, who has been visiting her old home on Kanes creek, has returned to her home in this city. The delegates from the Epworth league convention at Grants Pass returned Sunday night and report a very interesting and profitable meeting.

UNITED STATES REPLIES TO GERMANS WITH DOLLARS

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The American people answered Germany's renewal of the offensive on the western front today with an outpouring of more than thirty-two million mercy dollars, swelling the American Red Cross second war fund to $144,000,000. Reports still were coming in from some district at midnight and the final total of the drive which ended then will not be known until tomorrow.

Greater New York, which early in the night had reported only $27,000,000, turned in final subscriptions at midnight of $33,434,730. The Atlantic division, outside of Greater New York and the Pennsylvania and Mountain divisions also reported, increases after first totals were made public.

The oversubscription was much larger than that of the first $100,000,000 fund last year and was believed to have reflected the determination of the people to see that the Red Cross war not alone among the American troops, but among the civilians of France should be extended.

Every Red Cross division except the central and every state in the union except Illinois went over its quota. The central division lacks $300,000 of reaching its $13,800,000. Over-subscriptions in Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Michigan could not offset the $2,800,000 by which Illinois failed to achieve its $8,000,000 goal.

The foreign division rolled up the greatest percentage against its quota, reporting four times its $300,000 minimum.
